CIVIL ENGINEERING COLLEGE, SIBPUR.
Agricultural Department.

HIGHER AGRICULTURAL CLASS.

SESSION, 1903-1904.

RULES FOR ADMISSION.

For admission to the Higher Agricultural Class, an applicant must have one of the following qualifications:—

- (i) He must have passed the F.E. examination of the Calcutta University, and be under 23 years of age, but no student will be allowed to join the Agriculture class after the expiration of five years from admission into the Engineering College.
- (ii) He must have passed the B.A. examination of the Calcutta University by the B course, or possess other sufficient educational qualifications, be under 23 years of age, and, in addition, have received a nomination from the Bengal Government.
- (iii) He must have had a general education qualifying him to follow the instruction in the Higher Agricultural Class, and must also receive a nomination from Government for admission as a special student. To be eligible for a nomination under this rule, a candidate must either have landed property of his own, or be recommended by some influential landholder who desires to train him to take part in the management of his estate, or he must otherwise satisfy Government that he intends to make practical use of his agricultural training. Students entering under this rule will be termed Special Agricultural Students. They will not be subject to any maximum limit of age, but will not be entitled to the privileges conferred on passed students under rules 12 and 13, even though they should obtain fully-signed diplomas in due course after passing the necessary examinations.

Every candidate for admission to this Department must apply in writing to the Principal not later than the 14th July. The form of application for a nomination, which must be addressed to the Principal, is given in Appendix B. In the event of the form not being properly filled up, and accompanied by the necessary certificates, no notice will be taken of the application.

The number to be nominated each year will depend on the accommodation available.

Every applicant, not already a student of the College, must undergo a medical examination by the College Surgeon before admission to this Department. If this officer's report is unsatisfactory, the applicant will not be admitted.

The sessions begins on the first Monday in November. All students are required to join the College on that day. Any student prevented by sickness from attending on the opening day must produce a certificate to that effect from a Civil or Assistant Surgeon, failing which he will be liable to a fine not exceeding ₹10. No student will be admitted or re-admitted to the College after the month of November, except by special orders of the Director of Public Instruction. This permission will only be given under exceptional circumstances.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The course of instruction in the Higher Agricultural Class will extend over two academic years.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Senior scholarships awarded in the Engineer Department are tenable in the Agricultural Department.

One graduate scholarship of ₹30 a month, tenable for one year, will be awarded on the result of the examination held at the end of the first academic year.

APPOINTMENTS.

Two appointments annually are assigned to students holding a fully-signed diploma: one in the Provincial Executive Service and one in the Subordinate Executive Service. The right of selection for these appointments will rest with Government, and the students who gained the highest marks at the examination for diplomas will not necessarily be selected.

Other holders of fully-signed agricultural diplomas, who wish to compete at the examination for admission to the Provincial, Subordinate Executive, and Opium Services, may submit their names through the Principal to Government for nominations. These applications for nominations will be considered, provided the applicants appear to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to be otherwise suitable for admission to these services.

ENTRANCE AND TUITION FEES.

Each student in the Higher Agricultural Department will be required to pay an admission fee of R10.

F.E.'s who elect to join the Agricultural Department immediately after passing the F.E. examination are exempted from the payment of this fee, as their names are already borne on the College books.

For the present no tuition fees will be charged to students in the Agricultural Department, except in the case of those joining as special students under rule 3 (iii). The tuition fees for these students will be R8 a month.

Further particulars may be obtained free on application to the Principal.

Simla, the 2nd July, 1903.

No. 2528.—The Governor General in Council, with the previous sanction of His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, is pleased to direct that in the Notification of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 1324, dated the 2nd May 1902, for the words "Order of Merit" the words "Indian Order of Merit," and for the rules published therewith the following rules shall be substituted:

Rules for admission to the Civil Division of the Indian Order of Merit.

1. The "Indian Order of Merit" (Civil Division) consists of three classes, and is conferred on Natives of India, whether servants of Government or not, as a reward for personal bravery shown in aid or support of the public authority or safety. The insignia are, for the first class, gold; for the second, silver with a gold wreath; and for the third, silver only; to be worn on the left breast, pendant from a dark-red ribbon with blue edges.
2. Admission to the third class is obtained by any conspicuous act of individual gallantry; admission to the second class can be obtained only by members of the third class, and for a similar act of gallantry; and, in like manner, the Order of the first class is conferred only on members of the second class. In recommending persons for admission to the Order, the act of gallantry must be particularly specified, and the statements of eye-witnesses to the deed must be attached. It is of the highest importance, in view to maintaining the value and prestige of the Order, that the greatest discretion shall be used in submitting recommendations; as it is very desirable that the distinction should only be granted for conduct which can clearly be defined as an act of conspicuous gallantry.
3. Admission to each class of the Order rests with the Government of India alone; and, when the act of gallantry has taken place in India, recommendations for the reward will be forwarded for submission to the Government of India, in the case of civilians through the District Officers to the Local Government, and in the case of native officers and soldiers through the usual military channels.
4. A record in each case of the particular act of gallantry for which the Order has been conferred is kept in the office of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department; and a certificate signed by him, declaring the grant of the Order, will be given to each individual on his admission to, or advancement in, it.
5. District Officers are required to report immediately to the Local Government, for communication to the Government of India in the Home Department, any casualty by death amongst individuals admitted to the Order which may occur previous to the receipt of the decoration.
6. The following are the rules for the disposal of the insignia of the Civil Division of the "Indian Order of Merit" on the decease or promotion of members:

In cases of advancement to a superior class of the Civil Division of the "Indian Order of Merit," the inferior badge is to be forwarded, through the prescribed channel, to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department, Calcutta. The insignia of the Order are, however, allowed to remain in the possession of the family of a deceased member.
7. Whenever a servant of the Government, being a member of the Order, is dismissed the service, and whenever any member of the Order is convicted of any such offence, or subjected by a Criminal Court to any such order, as implies, in the opinion of the Local Government, a defect of character which unfits him to be a member of the Order, a full report of the circumstances shall be transmitted to the Government of India in the Home Department, together with an expression of the Local Government's opinion; and it shall, thereupon, be open to the Government of India to direct the dismissal of any such member from the Order and to require the surrender of his decoration.
8. As a rule the conferment of the Indian Order of Merit in the Civil Division will not be accompanied by any grant of money; but the Government of India reserve the right of making such a grant, in addition to conferring the Order, in special cases.

The 3rd July, 1903.

No. 2286—68-6.—The following draft of Rules which it is proposed to issue in exercise of the powers conferred by section 20 of the Indian Mines Act, 1901 (VIII of 1901), is published, as required by the said section, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration by the Governor General in Council on or after the 4th day of October 1903; and any objection or suggestion, which may be received from any person with respect to the draft before that date, will be considered by the Governor General in Council.

DRAFT NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 20 of the Indian Mines Act, 1901 (VIII of 1901), the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules for application to all coal mines in British India.

I.—SINGLE SHAFTS AND OUTLETS.

Rule 1.—(a) The owner, agent, or manager of a mine shall not employ any person in the mine, or permit any person to be in the mine for the purpose of employment therein, unless there are at least two shafts or outlets with which every seam for the time being at work shall have a communication, so that such shafts or outlets shall afford separate means of ingress and egress available to the persons employed in every such seam.

(b) Proper arrangements shall be made for persons to descend to and ascend from the mine at each of such shafts or outlets. If apparatus is necessary, it shall be kept on the works belonging to the mine, and shall be constantly available for use.

(c) Such shafts or outlets shall not at any point be nearer to one another than 45 feet, and each shall be connected with the other by means of a communication not less than 4 feet high and 4 feet wide.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this rule with respect to shafts and outlets shall not apply—

- (i) while a shaft is being sunk or an outlet being made;
- (ii) to any working for the purpose of making a communication between two or more shafts or outlets;
- (iii) to any working for the sole purpose of searching for or proving mineral;

so long as not more than 40 persons are employed below ground at any one time in the whole of the different seams in connection with a single shaft or outlet.

(e) In cases where there are special difficulties which make compliance with the foregoing provisions of this rule not reasonably practicable, the mine may be exempted therefrom by the Local Government, subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose.

(f) So much of this rule as requires two shafts or outlets to be separated by distance of not less than 45 feet shall not apply to any shafts sunk or commenced to be sunk before this rule comes into force.

II.—RAISING AND LOWERING PERSONS.

Rule 2.—In every mine which is usually entered by means of machinery the following provisions shall have effect, namely :

- (a) A single linked chain shall not be used for lowering or raising persons in any working shaft or plane, except for the short coupling chain attached to a cage, skip, bucket or tub.
- (b) There shall be attached to every machine worked by steam or mechanical power, and used for lowering or raising persons, an adequate brake or brakes, and a proper indicator (in addition to any mark on the rope) showing, to the person who works the machine, the position of the cage, skip, bucket or tub in the shaft ; and, if the drum is not on the crank shaft, there shall be an adequate brake on the drum shaft :

Provided that in the case of a shaft not over 100 feet deep or of a shaft in course of sinking so much of this rule as requires an indicator shall not apply.

- (c) Every apparatus on or in which persons ride in every working shaft, shall be provided with a sufficient cover overhead, except in a shaft not exceeding 100 feet in depth where buckets are used for winding, or in a shaft in course of sinking, or where persons are employed at work in a shaft.
- (d) Every working shaft used for the purpose of drawing mineral, or for lowering or raising persons, shall, if exceeding 100 feet in depth, be provided with proper means of communicating distinct and definite signals from the bottom of the shaft, and from every entrance for the time being in use between the surface and the bottom of the shaft, to the surface, and from the surface to the bottom of the shaft and to every entrance for the time being in use between the surface and the bottom of the shaft.
- (e) Every working shaft (except a shaft in course of sinking) used for lowering or raising persons shall, if exceeding 75 feet in depth, be provided with guides.
- (f) There shall be on the drum of every machine used for lowering or raising persons such flanges or horns or other appliances as may be sufficient to prevent the rope from slipping. The rope shall be securely fastened to the drum, and there shall be at least two turns of the rope on the drum when the cage, skip, bucket or tub is at the bottom of the shaft. After any stoppage of winding for more than two hours, the cage, skip, bucket or tub shall, before any person is allowed to ride therein, be run a complete trip up and down the working portion of the shaft at least once, to ensure that everything is in good working order.
- (g) A competent person or persons appointed by the owner, agent, or manager for the purpose shall, once at least in every 24 hours, examine the state of the external parts of the machinery and of the head-gear, ropes, chains, and other similar appliances of the mine which are in actual use both above ground and below ground, and shall, once at least in every week, examine the state of the shafts by which persons ascend or descend and the state of the guides and the conductors in the shafts, and shall write or cause to be written a true report of the result of such examination ; and every such report shall be recorded without delay in a paged book to be kept at the mine for the purpose, and shall be signed and dated by the person who made the examination.

III.—ROADS AND WORKING PLACES.

Rule 3.—The roofs and sides of all travelling roads and working places shall be made and kept secure.

Rule 4.—(a) Every part of a mine in or through which any person has to work or pass, shall be inspected at least once during every twenty-four hours by a competent person or persons appointed by the owner, agent, or manager for the purpose of ascertaining the condition thereof so far as the presence of gas, ventilation, roof, sides, and general safety are concerned :

Provided that when a mine has not been worked for more than twenty-four hours, the inspection shall be made within two hours before any workman is allowed to pass a station or stations appointed by the manager at the entrance to the mine or different parts of the mine, as the case may require.

(b) Every person who makes such inspection shall write or cause to be written a true report of the result of such inspection either during or at the close of such twenty-four hours, and every such report shall be recorded without delay in a paged book to be kept at the mine for the purpose, and shall be signed and dated by the person who made the inspection.

Rule 5.—If at any time it is found by the person for the time being in charge of a mine or any part thereof that, by reason of inflammable gases prevailing in the mine or part, or of any cause whatever, the mine or part is dangerous, every workman shall be withdrawn from the mine or part, and a competent person appointed for the purpose shall inspect the mine or part, and, if the danger arises from inflammable gas, shall do so with a locked safety-lamp, and in every case shall make a true report of the condition of the mine or part; and no workman shall, except in so far as is necessary for enquiring into the cause of danger, or for the removal thereof, or for exploration, be re-admitted into the mine or part, until the same is stated by the person appointed as aforesaid not to be dangerous. Every such report shall be recorded without delay in a paged book, which shall be kept at the mine for the purpose, and shall be dated and signed by the person who made the inspection.

Rule 6.—Where a place is likely to contain a dangerous accumulation of water, the working approaching that place shall not at any point within 100 feet thereof exceed 8 feet in width or height, and there shall be constantly kept at a sufficient distance, not being less than 10 feet in advance, at least one bore-hole near the centre of the working, and sufficient bore-holes on each side, and, where necessary, above or below.

Rule 7.—Every entrance to any place, which is not in actual use or course of working and extension, shall be properly fenced across the whole width of the entrance, so as to prevent persons inadvertently entering the same.

Rule 8.—Every underground plane on which persons travel and which is self-acting or worked by an engine, shall be provided (if exceeding 100 feet in length) with some proper means of communicating distinct and definite signals between the stopping places and the ends of the plane, and shall be provided in every case with sufficient manholes for places of refuge, occurring at intervals of not more than 60 feet, and being not less than 5 feet high, 2 feet 3 inches wide, and 2 feet deep.

IV.—PLANS.

Rule 9.—The owner, agent, or manager of every mine shall keep in the office at the mine an accurate plan of the workings of the mine, on a scale not smaller than 200 feet to the inch, showing the workings up to a date not more than six months previously. It shall also show the shaft openings, and all those important surface marks within the boundaries, such as railways, which lie within 600 feet of any part of the mine workings, also the general direction and rate of dip of the strata, together with a statement of the depth of each shaft and a section of the seam or seams being worked:

Provided that the owner, agent, or manager of a mine worked in the open and not under cover shall be exempt from the necessity of keeping such plans, unless required to do so by the Chief Inspector of Mines.

Rule 10.—The owner, agent, or manager of every mine shall, at any time on the request of the Chief Inspector of Mines or of any Inspector of Mines, produce to him at the office at the mine such plan and section, and also, on the like request, mark on such plan and section the then state of the workings of the mine; and the Chief Inspector or Inspector shall be entitled to examine the plan and the section, and for official purposes to make or have a copy made of any part thereof respectively.

Rule 11.—If the owner, agent, or manager of a mine fails to keep, or wilfully refuses to produce or allow to be examined, the plan and section aforesaid, or wilfully withholds any portion thereof, or wilfully refuses on request to mark thereon the state of the workings of the mine, or conceals any part of these workings, or produces any imperfect or inaccurate plan or section, he shall (unless he shews that he was ignorant of the concealment, imperfection or inaccuracy) be guilty of an offence against these rules.

Rule 12.—When a mine or seam is abandoned or has been discontinued for more than a year, the owner of the mine or seam shall, at the time of its abandonment, or within three months after the end of a year after discontinuance, send to the Chief Inspector of Mines the plan and sections which have been made for the mine or seam in compliance with these rules and showing the nearest surface boundaries in relation to the underground workings, or a true and accurate copy of the same; but no person except an Inspector of Mines shall be entitled, without the consent of the owner of the mine or seam, to see the plan when so sent until after the expiration of twelve years from the time of the abandonment.

V.—EXPLOSIVES.

Rule 13.—No explosive substance shall be used in a mine otherwise than below ground and under the following conditions, namely:

- (a) It shall not be stored in the mine.
- (b) It shall not be taken into the mine except in secure cases or canisters, containing not more than five pounds, each, and a workman shall not have in use at one time in any one place more than one of such cases or canisters.
- (c) In the process of charging or stemming for blasting, no person shall use or have in his possession any iron or steel pricker, scraper, tamping-rod, or stemmer, and only clay or other non-inflammable substances shall be used for tamping or stemming.

- (d) When a hole has been charged, the explosive shall not be unrammed, and no hole shall be bored at a distance of less than 12 inches from any hole where a charge has missed fire.
- (e) No detonator shall be carried or kept in the same case or canister with any other explosive material, or inserted into the priming cartridge until immediately before it is used.
- (f) No explosive shall be forcibly pressed into a hole of insufficient size.
- (g) In any place which is dry and dusty, or in which the use of a locked safety-lamp is for the time being required by or in pursuance of these rules, no shot shall be fired, except by and under the direction of a competent person appointed by the manager of the mine.

VI.—VENTILATION AND LIGHTING.

Rule 14.—An adequate amount of ventilation shall be constantly produced in every mine to dilute and render harmless noxious gases and clear away smoke, to such an extent that the working places of the shafts, levels, and workings of the mine, and the travelling roads to and from these working places shall be in a fit state for working and passing therein.

Rule 15.—No lamp or light other than a locked safety-lamp shall be allowed or used—

- (a) in any place in a mine in which there is or is likely to be any such quantity of inflammable gas as to render the use of naked lights dangerous; or
- (b) in any working approaching near a place in which there is likely to be an accumulation of inflammable gas; and when it is necessary to work the coal in any part of a ventilating district with safety-lamps, it shall not be allowable to work the coal with naked lights in another part of the same ventilating district situated between the place where such lamps are being used and the return airway.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, the expression “ventilating district” means such part of a seam as has an independent intake commencing from a main intake air course, and an independent return airway terminating at a main return air course.

Rule 16.—Whenever safety-lamps are used, they shall be so constructed that they may be carried with safety against the air current ordinarily prevailing in the mine.

Rule 17.—In any mine or part of a mine in which the use of safety-lamps is for the time being required by or in pursuance of these rules, the following provisions shall have effect, namely:

- (a) A competent person shall be appointed by the manager to clean, trim, examine, and securely lock all such lamps before they are taken into the workings for use, and such lamps shall not be used until they have been so examined and found to be in safe working order and securely locked.
- (b) No safety-lamp shall be unlocked except at the appointed lamp station, or for the purpose of firing a shot.
- (c) No person, unless he has been authorised in writing by the manager either for the purpose of examining safety-lamps or for the purpose of firing shots, shall have in his possession any contrivance for opening the lock of a safety-lamp.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule the term manager includes an under-manager and any person for the time being carrying on the duties of the manager.

- (d) No person shall have in his possession any unlocked safety-lamp, naked light, match, smoking apparatus or apparatus of any kind for striking a light, except within a completely closed chamber attached to the fuse of the shot.

Rule 18.—Where the use of safety-lamps is for the time being required by or in pursuance of these rules, the position of the lamp stations for lighting or relighting the lamps shall not be in the return air.

VII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Rule 19.—Every side entrance to a mine from the surface and the top, and all entrances between the top and the bottom including the sump (if any) of every working ventilating, or pumping shaft, shall be properly fenced: but this shall not be taken to forbid the temporary removal of the fence for the purpose of repairs or other operations, if proper precautions are used. Shafts temporarily or permanently out of use shall be properly fenced.

Rule 20.—Every fly wheel and all exposed and dangerous parts of the machinery used in or about a mine shall be kept securely fenced.

Rule 21.—Where no enactment for the regulation and inspection of steam-boilers and prime-movers is for the time being in force, every steam-boiler, whether separate or one of range, shall have attached to it a proper safety-valve, and also a proper steam-gauge and water-gauge to show respectively the pressure of steam and the height of water in each boiler.

Rule 22.—Ambulances or stretchers with splints and bandages shall be kept ready at hand in a convenient place and in good and serviceable order at every mine.

Rule 23.—Copies of all rules made under the Indian Mines Act, 1901, shall be kept at every mine, and shall be produced at any time on the request of an Inspector of Mines.

Rule 24.—Where the natural strata are not safe, every working or pumping shaft shall be securely cased, lined, or otherwise made secure.

Rule 25.—If in any mine the winding apparatus is not provided with some automatic contrivance to prevent over-winding, then the cage, skip, bucket or tub shall not, when persons are being raised in it, be wound up at a speed exceeding three miles an hour after it has reached a point in the shaft to be fixed by the special rules made for the mine under section 21 of the Indian Mines Act, 1901.

Rule 26.—Where any person required by these rules, or by any special rule made under section 21 of the Indian Mines Act, 1901, to make any report is unable to write, he shall be present when his report is written for him, and shall have it read over to him, and shall attach his thumb-mark to it. The person writing the report shall also sign his name at the end, together with a statement that it has been read over to the person for whom it was written.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 2nd July 1903, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The feeble cyclonic storm which was crossing the Bengal Coast on the morning of the 25th and a second small depression which formed over Central Bengal on the 28th both occasioned fair to moderately heavy rain over North-East India, the principal falls having been 7·45" at Sibsagar and 3·50" at Iezpur on the 26th; 7·94" at Cherra Poonjee, 6·61" at Darjeeling and 5·69" at Gauhati on the 27th; and 10·10" at Dhubri and 9·25" at Jalpaiguri on the 28th. During the 28th the second depression filled up, and, though Cherra Poonjee reported a fall of 18·64" of rain and Chittagong 4·34" on that day, the rainfall area had already begun to diminish. On the 29th and 30th of June and the 1st and 2nd of July rain continued to decrease both in amount and extent and during the last two days only showers were received over North-East India.

Over the Arabian Sea the monsoon current has been steadily weak throughout the period under review. Along the West Coast the rainfall has been generally light and the incursions of monsoon winds and rainfall into the Deccan, the Satpuras and the Central India Plateau have been feeble and intermittent. The heaviest falls in these areas were as follows:—1·53" at Calicut, 1·82" at Khandwa and 2·30" at Indore on the 26th; 5·23" at Calicut and 2·00" at Chanda on the 27th; 0·76" at Mangalore and 1·33" at Sambalpur on the 28th; 1·87" at Karwar and 0·67" at Kotah on the 29th; 1·06" at Cochin and 1·30" at Seoni on the 30th; 1·23" at Bombay and 2·30" at Raichur on the 1st; and 1·57" at Cochin and Mangalore on the 2nd.

Scattered showers, due to thunder and dust storms, were received during the week in Upper India, mainly on the 26th, 27th and 30th June, but generally over this area the rainfall has been local and the weather hot and sultry, while in Gujarat the week has been practically rainless.

The week's rainfall has exceeded the normal over Upper Burma, Assam, Bengal, Bihar, Orissa, the east of the Central Provinces, the Nizam's dominions and the extreme south of the Peninsula, the amount of the excess ranging from 0·10" in the Madura subdivision, 0·12" in the East Coast (South) division and 0·18" in the Burma dry division to 7·09" in the Brahmaputra Valley division. Over the whole of the remainder of the country the week's fall was less than usual, the deficiency exceeding 2" in the Burma coast division and in the Patna, Simla, Ludhiana, Jhansi, Bombay and Ahmedabad subdivisions.

Except over the Peninsula the rainfall, from the 1st of May to date, is below the average, the deficiency being large from Bihar westward to the Indus as well as over the Central India Plateau and North Bombay.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday,
27th June 1903.

Madras.—The rainfall was good in the West Coast, parts of the Circars and light to fair elsewhere. Irrigation supplies generally are sufficient. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue in parts. The standing crops generally are fair. Harvests continue in some places with fair outturn. Pasture is scanty in parts. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are generally nearly stationary, but some grains have varied irregularly.

Bombay.—Good rain fell during the week in parts of the Konkan and Sholapur. The rainfall was moderate in parts of Broach, Surat, Nasik, Ahmednagar and Belgaum and very slight in parts of Ahmedabad, Kaira, Poona, Satara, Bijapur, Dharwar, Rajkot and Baroda. Early rain is needed in parts of Thar and Parkar, Gujarat, Nasik, Poona, Sholapur, Satara, Bijapur and Belgaum. Seedlings have been damaged by locusts in parts of Larkana and by insects in parts of the Upper Sindh Frontier and Bijapur. They are in good condition elsewhere. The preparation of lands for autumn cultivation is in progress in parts of Hyderabad, the Upper Sindh Frontier, Gujarat, Thana, Colaba, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Sholapur, the Carnatic, Rajkot, Wadhwan and Baroda. Sowing continues in parts of Sindh, the Panch Mahals, Surat, Thana, Ratnagiri, Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur, Belgaum and Dharwar and are retarded for want of rain in parts of Nasik, Satara and Bijapur. Transplantation continues in parts of Karachi, Sukkur, Larkana, Hyderabad, Ratnagiri and Kanara. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of Larkana and the Upper Sindh Frontier. Agricultural stock is in good condition and sufficient except in parts of Sukkur and Sholapur. The water-supply is deficient in parts of Baroda. Prices have fallen in two districts, have risen in two districts and are stationary elsewhere.

Bengal.—The rainfall continued to be general and heavy in East and North Bengal, but lighter elsewhere. The districts of Gaya, Shahabad, Monghyr, Bhagalpur and Puri are in need of more rain. The sowing of autumn rice and jute is approaching completion. Transplantation of winter rice has commenced. Prospects are fair. Fodder and water generally are sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in ten districts, fallen in nine and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces—Rain fell throughout the Provinces except in Garhwal where it is said to be urgently required for low-lying tracts. Three inches of rain were recorded in Gorakhpur and two in Naini Tal, Etah, Pilibhit, Kheri, Bahraich and Ballia, while twelve districts received one inch. In other districts the falls average from five cents to three-quarters of an inch. More rain is needed and in Etawah, Bara Banki and Partabgarh the sowings of autumn crops are being retarded for want of it. The irrigation and harvesting of extra crops continue. Locusts appeared in four districts and did slight damage to the sugarcane crop in Mirzapur. Supplies are adequate, but fodder is still reported to be scarce in Hamirpur. Prices continue stationary.

Punjab.—Slight rain has fallen in the Amballa district and in parts of Hissar, Ferozepore, Lahore, Sialkot, Shahpur, Rawalpindi and Mianwali. The price of wheat remains unchanged and the prices of other food-grains are fluctuating. Threshing and removing of spring crops have been finished. Sowings of autumn crops continue. Rain is urgently needed in some districts. The condition and prospects of standing crops are good. Locusts appeared in parts of Hissar and Amritsar, but did no damage. Cattle are generally in good condition. Fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts except in parts of Hissar, Shahpur and Mooltan.

North-West Frontier Province.—Slight showers fell all over the Province during the week. The prospects of the standing crops are good. Flood irrigation is favourable in Dera Ismail Khan as rivers are rising. Fodder is abundant, and the condition of cattle is good. Prices are falling.

Burma.—The rainfall was heavy in all the coast districts and in Myitkyina and moderate to slight in others, except Mandalay, Lower Chindwin, Kyaukse and Myingyan, where no rain fell. Ploughing for wet-weather paddy is in full operation everywhere and sowing has been commenced in Kyaukpyu, Tharrawady, Thongwa and Myaungmya. Reaping of dry-weather paddy in Lower Chindwin and of early wet-weather paddy in the Southern Shan States have been begun. The sowing of early sesamum has been completed in Magwe and reaping started in Kyaukse. The resowing of early paddy on river bank damaged by recent floods is in progress. The sowing of paddy has been deferred in the Wuntho subdivision of Katha for want of rain. In Thayetmyo more rain is urgently required in the riverine tract of the Sinbaungwe and Minhla townships. Rats are destroying crops on hill-sides in the Minhla and Mindon townships. Early sesamum and cotton crops are fading for lack of rain in Lower Chindwin and need rain also in Myingyan. The condition of standing crops on the whole is still good. The price of paddy has risen considerably in Upper Chindwin and very largely in Myitkyina and Shwebo. It has changed slightly in three districts, but is stationary elsewhere.

- (d) the deposit must be a receipt for the amount (which may not exceed Rs. 40 for each tender) from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made;
- (e) the amount of the tender must be made payable either at the Head Post Office of tender (whether the tender was made at the Head Post Office or at one of its Sub-Offices) or in Calcutta. In the case, however, of a tender made at a Post Office in Calcutta, the amount of the tender must be made payable only at the Bank of Bengal.

The tenders will be transmitted by post by the Post Master to the Comptroller General so as to reach him before 11 A.M. on Wednesday, the 22nd July. The Comptroller General will deal with them as if they had been made direct to him, returning deposits on non-accepted tenders through the Post Master.

5. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms—as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders—will be rejected as null and void.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

Deposits.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of not less than one-hundredth or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. The deposit must be in one of the following forms: (a) a receipt for the amount from the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, or Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an officer in charge of some Public Treasury, or (b) a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, or (c) Government Promissory Notes¹ standing in the name of, or endorsed to, the tenderer or the person making the deposit. In the case of tenders made at Post Offices under note (2) to clause 4, the deposit must be a receipt for the amount from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made.

8. (a) Deposits, not being promissory notes, will, in the case of accepted tenders, be credited proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender, and will bear interest for the purpose of clause 16 below from the date of the opening of tenders. When a tender is not accepted in full, the deposits, when they are not in the form of promissory notes, will be credited as far as possible proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of it. If any allotment-certificate is not fully taken up, the deposit credited in respect of it will be forfeited.

(b) Promissory notes deposited in respect of any accepted tender will be held until all the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender are paid up and will, if the allotment-certificates are not fully taken up, be appropriated by the Government and cancelled.

Opening of Tenders.

9. The Governor General in Council reserves the right to declare, on or before the 15th July, the minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted. If not declared, the said minimum rate will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected because it is below the recorded minimum.

10. Tenders will be opened publicly by the Comptroller General at the Public Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, at noon (Calcutta time), on Wednesday, the 22nd July next, and those received under the terms of note (1) to clause 4 will be similarly opened by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore at the local time corresponding to noon Calcutta time, on the same day; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 12.

11. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders; provided that no allotment will be made if the amount distributable on any tender is less than Rs. 100: preference will however be given to small tenders, not exceeding Rs. 2,000, at the lowest accepted rate, such tenders receiving allotments in full as far as possible.

Allotment-Certificates.

12. To each tenderer (or to his agent) whose tender is accepted in whole or in part, such number of allotment-certificates as may be necessary to make up the aggregate amount allotted to him will be issued by the Comptroller General as soon as possible after the 22nd July and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such allotment-certificates are issued will be posted for general information at the Head Offices of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, and at the Branch Offices of the Bank of Bengal at Allahabad and Lahore.

13. If the allotment made on any tender is less than Rs. 3,000, then the whole of the allotment-certificates [after credit of the deposit under clause 8 (a)] will be made payable upon the 3rd September.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments as follows:

Instalment I.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 4th August:

Instalment II.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 3rd September:

Instalment III.—The balance payable upon the 23rd September: allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

But the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time on receipt of the allotment-certificates.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100.

14. Any allotment-certificates will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of other denominations; provided that if any payment (beyond the deposit) is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded on, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

15. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, or Madras, or Bombay, or any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the officers in charge of the Government

Treasuries at which payment is made, by enfacement upon the relative certificate. In the case of accepted tenders which were made at Post Offices other than Post Offices in Calcutta under note (2) to clause 4, payment of allotment-certificates may also be made at the Head Post Office of tender, and the Head Post Master will give a receipt for such payment by enfacement upon the relative allotment-certificate.

Issue of Promissory Notes.

16. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, promissory notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than Rs. 100) bearing interest from 31st December 1903, and he will also receive interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the 30th December 1903.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 30th June 1903 to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain promissory notes as above, bearing interest from 30th June 1903.

Opening of Tenders.

9. The Governor General in Council reserves the right to declare, on or before the 15th July, the minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted. If not so declared, the said minimum rate will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

10. Tenders will be opened publicly by the Comptroller General at the Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, at noon (Calcutta time), on Wednesday, the 22nd July next, and those received under the terms of note (1) to clause 4 will be similarly opened by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore at the local time corresponding to noon Calcutta time, on the same day; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 12.

11. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders; provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than Rs. 100: preference will however be given to small tenders, not exceeding Rs. 2,000, at the lowest accepted rate, such tenders receiving allotments in full as far as possible.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments as follows:

Instalment I.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 4th August:

Instalment II.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 3rd September:

Instalment III.—The balance payable upon the 23rd September: and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

But the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time after receipt of the allotment-certificates.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100.

14. Any allotment-certificates will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations; provided that if any payment (beyond the deposit) is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

15. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal or Madras or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. In the case of accepted tenders which were made at Post Offices other than Post Offices in Calcutta under note (2) to clause 4, payment of allotment-certificates may also be made at the Head Post Office of tender, and the Head Post Master will give a receipt for such payment by encasement upon the relative allotment-certificate.

Issue of Promissory Notes.

16. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, promissory notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than Rs. 100) bearing interest from 31st December 1903, and he will also receive interest at $3\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the 30th December 1903.

THE GAZETTE OF INDIA, EXTRAORDINARY, JULY 7, 1903.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 30th June 1903 to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain promissory notes as above, bearing interest from 30th June 1903.

Agricultural Department.

HIGHER AGRICULTURAL CLASS.

SESSION, 1903-1904.

RULES FOR ADMISSION.

For admission to the Higher Agricultural Class, an applicant must have one of the following qualifications:—

- (i) He must have passed the F. E. examination of the Calcutta University, and be under 23 years of age, but no student will be allowed to join the Agriculture class after the expiration of five years from admission into the Engineering College.
- (ii) He must have passed the B.A. examination of the Calcutta University by the B course, or possess other sufficient educational qualifications, be under 23 years of age, and, in addition, have received a nomination from the Bengal Government.
- (iii) He must have had a general education qualifying him to follow the instruction in the Higher Agricultural Class, and must also receive a nomination from Government for admission as a special student. To be eligible for a nomination under this rule, a candidate must either have landed property of his own, or be recommended by some influential landholder who desires to train him to take part in the management of his estate, or he must otherwise satisfy Government that he intends to make practical use of his agricultural training. Students entering under this rule will be termed Special Agricultural Students. They will not be subject to any maximum limit of age, but will not be entitled to the privileges conferred on passed students under rules 12 and 13, even though they should obtain fully-signed diplomas in due course after passing the necessary examinations.

Every candidate for admission to this Department must apply in writing to the Principal not later than the 14th July. The form of application for a nomination, which must be addressed to the Principal, is given in Appendix B. In the event of the form not being properly filled up, and accompanied by the necessary certificates, no notice will be taken of the application.

The number to be nominated each year will depend on the accommodation available.

Every applicant, not already a student of the College, must undergo a medical examination by the College Surgeon before admission to this Department. If this officer's report is unsatisfactory, the applicant will not be admitted.

The sessions begins on the first Monday in November. All students are required to join the College on that day. Any student prevented by sickness from attending on the opening day must produce a certificate to that effect from a Civil or Assistant Surgeon, failing which he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 10. No student will be admitted or re-admitted to the College after the month of November, except by special orders of the Director of Public Instruction. This permission will only be given under exceptional circumstances.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The course of instruction in the Higher Agricultural Class will extend over two academic years.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Senior scholarships awarded in the Engineer Department are tenable in the Agricultural Department.

One graduate scholarship of Rs 30 a month, tenable for one year, will be awarded on the result of the examination held at the end of the first academic year.

APPOINTMENTS.

Two appointments annually are assigned to students holding a fully-signed diploma: one in the Provincial Executive Service and one in the Subordinate Executive Service. The right of selection for these appointments will rest with Government, and the students who gained the highest marks at the examination for diplomas will not necessarily be selected.

Other holders of fully-signed agricultural diplomas, who wish to compete at the examination for admission to the Provincial, Subordinate Executive, and Opium Services, may submit their names through the Principal to Government for nominations. These applications for nominations will be considered, provided the applicants appear to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to be otherwise suitable for admission to these services.

ENTRANCE AND TUITION FEES.

Each student in the Higher Agricultural Department will be required to pay an admission fee of Rs 10.

F.E.'s who elect to join the Agricultural Department immediately after passing the F.E. examination are exempted from the payment of this fee, as their names are already borne on the College books.

For the present no tuition fees will be charged to students in the Agricultural Department, except in the case of those joining as special students under rule 3 (ii). The tuition fees for these students will be Rs 8 a month.

Further particulars may be obtained free on application to the Principal.

PUBLIC DEBT.

Simla, the 7th July, 1903.

THREE-AND-A-HALF PER CENT. LOAN.

No. 3868-A.—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General in Council has resolved to borrow two hundred lakhs of rupees for the public service in the following manner :

2. Promissory Notes will be issued for the said amount in the Form annexed to this Notification, being the form of the notes of the Three-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan of 1900-01, of which loan the notes to be now issued will form a part. All the conditions which apply to notes of the Three-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan of 1900-01, will apply to the notes to be now issued. The interest on the notes of that loan is payable half-yearly on the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December; and the notes are not liable to discharge before the 31st day of December 1920.

Tenders.

3. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said amount of Rs. 2,00,00,000 will be received by the Comptroller General from this date to noon of Wednesday, the 22nd July next. Tenders must be for sums of 100 Rupees or multiples of that sum.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this Notification, to the Comptroller General, Calcutta, and enclosed in a closed cover, superscribed "Tender for the Three-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan." If the tenderer is not resident in India, he must name an agent resident in India to whom an allotment-certificate may be issued, if any part of the loan is allotted to such tenderer.

NOTE (1).—Tenders made in accordance with these instructions will also be received by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore, on account of the Comptroller General, Calcutta, on the 21st July and up to the local time corresponding to 12 o'clock in Calcutta on the 22nd July; provided that—

- (a) they are delivered personally or by clerk or messenger at the Accountant General's Office (where a receipt will be given for them);
- (b) they are made on printed forms, to be obtained at the same office or at the local Presidency Bank;
- (c) each tender is for not less than Rs. 10,000;
- (d) the deposit is either a promissory note or a Treasury Receipt from the local Office of the Presidency Bank, or a cheque on a local Bank in favour of the Accountant General;
- (e) the amount of the tender is made payable either at the place of tender or in Calcutta; and the Accountant General will return deposits on non-accepted tenders and will issue allotment-certificates so far as the tenders are payable in Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore.

NOTE (2).—Tenders made in accordance with these instructions will also be received at all Head and Sub-Post Offices up to a date to be notified at each Post Office. The date will vary according to the distance of the Post Office from Calcutta and will in no case be later than the forenoon of the 20th July. The following conditions must be complied with:

- (a) the tenders must be delivered personally or by messenger at the Post Office, where a receipt will be given for them;
- (b) they must be made on printed forms, to be obtained at the Post Office;
- (c) each tender must be for not less than Rs. 100 and not more than Rs. 2,000;
- (d) the deposit must be a receipt for the amount (which may not exceed Rs. 40 for each tender) from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made;
- (e) the amount of the tender must be made payable either at the Head Post Office of tender (whether the tender was made at the Head Post Office or at one of its Sub-Offices) or in Calcutta. In the case, however, of a tender made at a Post Office in Calcutta, the amount of the tender must be made payable only at the Bank of Bengal.

The tenders will be transmitted by post by the Post Master to the Comptroller General so as to reach him before 11 A.M. on Wednesday, the 22nd July. The Comptroller General will deal with them as if they had been made direct to him, returning deposits on non-accepted tenders through the Post Master.

5. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms—as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders—will be rejected as null and void.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

Deposits.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of not less than one-hundredth or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. The deposit must be in one of the following forms: (a) a receipt for the amount from the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, or Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an officer in charge of some Public Treasury, or (b) a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, or (c) Government Promissory Notes¹ standing in the name of, or endorsed to, the tenderer or the person making the deposit. In the case of tenders made at Post Offices under note (2) to clause 4, the deposit must be a receipt for the amount from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made.

8. (a) Deposits not being promissory notes, will, in the case of accepted tenders, be credited proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender, and will bear interest for the purpose of clause 16 below from the date of the opening of tenders. When a tender is not accepted in full, the deposits, when they are not in the form of promissory notes, will be credited as far as possible proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of it. If any allotment-certificate is not fully taken up, the deposit credited in respect of it will be forfeited.

(b) Promissory notes deposited in respect of any accepted tender will be held until all the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender are paid up and will, if the allotment-certificates are not fully taken up, be appropriated by the Government and cancelled.

Opening of Tenders.

9. The Governor General in Council reserves the right to declare, on or before the 15th July, the minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted. If not so declared, the said minimum rate will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

10. Tenders will be opened publicly by the Comptroller General at the Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, at noon (Calcutta time), on Wednesday, the 22nd July next, and those received under the terms of note (1) to clause 4 will be similarly opened by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore at the local time corresponding to noon Calcutta time, on the same day; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 12.

11. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders; provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than Rs. 100: preference will however be given to small tenders, not exceeding Rs. 2,000, at the lowest accepted rate, such tenders receiving allotments in full as far as possible.

Allotment-Certificates.

12. To each tenderer (or to his agent) whose tender is accepted in whole or in part, such number of allotment-certificates as may be necessary to make up the aggregate amount allotted to him will be issued by the Comptroller General¹ as soon as possible after the 22nd July and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such allotment-certificates are issued will be posted for general information at the Head Offices of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and at the Branch Offices of the Bank of Bengal at Allahabad and Lahore.

¹ For tenders received by the Accountant General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, and payable at those places, the Accountant General will issue the allotment-certificates.

13. If the allotment made on any tender is less than Rs. 3,000, then the whole of the allotment certificates [after credit of the deposit under clause 8 (a)] will be made payable upon the 3rd September.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments as follows:

Instalment I.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent. payable upon the 4th August:

Instalment II.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 3rd September:

Instalment III.—The balance payable upon the 23rd September: and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

But the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time after receipt of the allotment-certificates.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100.

14. Any allotment certificates will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations; provided that if any payment (beyond the deposit) is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

15. Payment of any allotment certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal or Madras or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made by encasement upon the relative certificate. In the case of accepted tenders which were made at Post Offices other than Post Offices in Calcutta under note (2) to clause 4, payment of allotment-certificates may also be made at the Head Post Office of tender, and the Head Post Master will give a receipt for such payment by encasement upon the relative allotment-certificate.

Issue of Promissory Notes.

16. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, promissory notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than Rs. 100) bearing interest from 31st December 1903, and he will also receive interest at 3½ per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the 30th December 1903.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 30th June 1903 to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain promissory notes as above, bearing interest from 30th June 1903.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department.

By the Notification in the Finance and Commerce Department, No. 3184-A., dated the 1st June 1903 the rules under the Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879, for the raising of loans by local authorities in the open market have been amended so as to admit of any particular loan being defined in sterling currency with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council.

2. His Excellency in Council gives notice that applications from local bodies for permission to issue sterling loans will be entertained only in cases in which there is a reasonable prospect of the money being raised at a rate of interest not exceeding 4 per cent., and at a price not appreciably below par. Applications should be made in sufficient time to admit of a reference to the Secretary of State before sanction is given to the issue of a sterling loan. Local bodies borrowing in sterling will have to make their own arrangements for bringing the capital raised to India and for remitting the interest to the holders of the stock. Such remittances will not be made by Government agency nor be brought on to the Government account.

3. The conditions set forth above will be applicable, not only to loans raised under the Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879, but also, as far as may be, to sterling loans which may be raised under special enactments by such local authorities as those specified in the margin.

TELEGRAPHS.

The 8th July, 1903.

No. 257.—The following is published for general information :

No. 922 T. E., dated Simla, the 6th July, 1903.

• RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Under the orders of Public Works Department Resolution No. 19 T. E., dated 7th January 1901, the ultimate strength of the Superior Establishment of the Indian Telegraph Department was, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, increased from 86 to 101 officers ; the increase of 15 being wholly in the grades of Assistant Superintendent.

2. The great expansion of the Department has, however, for some time past, forced the Government of India to admit the necessity for increasing the number of higher posts in order to maintain efficiency. The growth of all the divisions, notably those of the Punjab, Bengal, Bombay, Madras, Assam, and Eastern Bengal, has been so great as to render it impossible for one Superintendent to manage his charge in a thoroughly efficient manner. The mileage of posts has increased from 17,232 to 52,900, the mileage of wire from 39,113 to 170,776 and the number of telegraph offices of all kinds from 423 to 5,420 during the period from 1877 to 1900, while there has been no corresponding increase in the number of divisions which are now, as in 1877, only 16. A redistribution and an increase in the number of Superintendents' charges are therefore urgently called for in the interests of efficient administration. The Government of India, therefore, considered that five new divisions should be formed immediately.

3. It has also been represented by the Director General that the direction required to be strengthened. The existing staff of the Director General of Telegraphs' Office is stated to have been, for some time past, barely sufficient to carry out the ordinary routine work at high pressure; leaving no time for the initiation of schemes for improvements, tours of inspection, etc. The Government of India, therefore, proposed that it should be increased by the addition of two officers with the designation of Deputy Directors.

4. The above proposals will have the effect of increasing the number of charges above the rank of Assistant Superintendent by seven,*
- * 2 Deputy Directors.
5 Superintendents.
that is, from 31 to 38.

The present and proposed distribution of the appointments above the grade of Assistant Superintendent are shown in statement C accompanying this Resolution.

It was further considered that the pay of the two Directors should be raised from Rs. 1,600 to Rs. 1,800 a month; that the pay of the Deputy Directors should be Rs. 1,600; and that the four Chief Superintendents whose pay is now Rs. 1,125—75—1,500 should be formed into two classes with two Chief Superintendents in each on rates of pay of Rs. 1,250 and Rs. 1,400 a month, respectively.

Under this arrangement the organization of appointments and classes above that of Superintendent will be as follows:

	Rs.
1 Director General	on 3,000
1 Deputy Director General	" 2,000
2 Directors, each	" 1,800
2 Deputy Directors, each	" 1,600
2 Chief Superintendents, 1st Class, each	" 1,400
2 " " 2nd " "	" 1,250

5. In dealing with the grades of Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent, the Government of India considered it necessary to devise an organization which would produce a fair and reasonable rate of promotion through those grades for some years to come, while the establishment is in an abnormal condition owing to irregular recruitment in the past, and also in future years when it has settled down into its normal state. That is to say, they desired to prevent, so far as may be possible, a period of rapid promotion followed by a period of comparative retardation. While, therefore, increasing, as stated above, the number of appointments in the higher grades, and also improving the ultimate scale of the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent grades so as to give a better rate of promotion than the present sanctioned scale allows, they considered it necessary to prevent an abnormal acceleration of promotion in the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent grades by the introduction of a time limit of service, as well as a limiting scale for promotion, within these grades. With this view they recommended that the ultimate scale for the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent grades should stand as below:

Superintendents, 1st Grade	23
" 2nd "	13
Assistant Superintendents, 1st Grade	9
" " 2nd "	19
" " 3rd "	13
" " 4th "	14
TOTAL	91

but they further proposed that the selection of officers for future promotion to each grade, within the above limiting scale, should be subject to a time rule or qualification, dependent on total service in the Department, or in the successive grades, according to the following scale :

	Years' service from date of entering Assistant Superintendent, 4th grade.		Years' service in the grade below.
Time qualification for promotion to Assistant Superintendent, 3rd Grade, after	3	or	3
Time qualification for promotion to Assistant Superintendent, 2nd Grade, after	6½	"	3½
Time qualification for promotion to Assistant Superintendent, 1st Grade, after	11	"	4½
Time qualification for promotion to Superintendent, 2nd Grade, after	14½	"	3½
Time qualification for promotion to Superintendent, 1st Grade, after	19	"	4½

Note.—If, however, an officer eligible for promotion under the time rule is not promoted for any reason, such as not being recommended or being otherwise superseded, for each officer so passed over another officer may be promoted within the measure of the limiting scale.

The result of this rule will be that the actual scale will be the same as if all the officers eligible were promoted, so far as the limiting scale permits.

Under this rule any officer not qualified by length of service may be promoted in place of an officer who is eligible by the time rule, but not equally eligible with the former under the rule of selection.

One effect of the operation of the above time rule will be that the number of officers in the Superintendent grades will for some time to come be less than 28, which, with the ten appointments down to and including the Chief Superintendents, make up the number of 38 charges above the rank of Assistant Superintendent (vide Statement C). In fact, for the present, the number of officers in the two Superintendent grades will probably not exceed 21, which is the number that will remain in those grades after carrying out the promotions in the grades above the Superintendent grade.

It was further proposed that officiating and temporary promotions should continue to be made from the rank of Assistant Superintendent to that of Superintendent, and from the rank of Superintendent to that of Chief Superintendent and to appointments above that rank according to present rules, within the scale produced, in the Superintendent class, by operation of the time rule and limiting scale; but that Assistant Superintendents, 1st Grade, holding Superintendents' charges, when not temporarily promoted under the new scale, should draw a charge allowance of Rs. 50 a month in addition to pay of Rs. 700, and similarly that Assistant Superintendents, 2nd or lower grade, in the same position should receive a charge allowance of Rs. 150 per mensem in addition to grade pay.

It was also proposed that the four grades of Assistant Superintendent should form one class instead of two as at present. The result of this will be that temporary promotion from Assistant Superintendent, 3rd Grade [old class VII (1)], to Assistant Superintendent, 2nd Grade [old class VI (2)], will be no longer admissible.

The proposed scale (ultimate) as compared with the present ultimate sanctioned scale is shown in the appended statement A; while the scale that will result from the immediate application of the new scheme including the time rule, as compared with the present actual scale, is shown in statement B.

6. The above proposals were placed before the Secretary of State and have been approved by His Lordship. They will have effect from the 16th March 1903, the date of receipt of His Lordship's Despatch sanctioning the reorganization.

7. In consequence of the abolition of the present Class VII, consisting of the two lowest grades of Assistant Superintendents, certain officers who are now temporary or officiating in the new 2nd Grade of Assistant Superintendent would revert on the introduction of the scheme. They are, however, permitted to retain their temporary or officiating steps, until they would have reverted in the ordinary course under the old rules, on the cessation of the acting vacancies.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to the Accountant General, Public Works Department, and to the Director General* of Telegraphs for information and guidance, and to the Finance and Commerce Department for information.

* With copy of Despatches Nos. 346 and 7 Tel, date 1, respectively, the 4th December 1902, and 27th February 1903, to and from the Secretary of State.

Also that it be published in Part I of the Gazette of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 9th July 1903, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The week under review has been one of feeble monsoon conditions and restricted rainfall.

Judging from the strength of the winds at the coast stations and from the report of the weather experienced by the S.S. Rewa which left Colombo on the 26th June and reached Calcutta on the 2nd July the monsoon current is at present weak over the Bay. The rainfall over the north-east of the Indian area has consequently been generally light. During the week under review daily showers were received over the Burma coast division and occasional showers over inland Burma, but the falls were not heavy, except locally at Akyab on the Arakan coast, where the week's rainfall amounted to 12'00". In Assam and east and north Bengal daily showers were also obtained, but in other parts of north-east India rain was light and scattered and Bihar was practically rainless. In the Assam Hills the rainfall was heavy, more particularly towards the close of the week when the following heavy falls in twenty-four hours were reported :

				Up to 8 A.M. 8th.	Up to 8 A.M. 9th.
-	Shillong 5'90"	3'90"
	Cherra Poonjee 11'36"	24'20"

The Bombay or Arabian Sea monsoon current has been equally light. The Safari from Delagoa Bay only carried a strong monsoon with her as far as the middle of the Arabian Sea and during the last six hundred miles of her voyage experienced light or variable winds. The west coast stations received, however, daily moderate to heavy rain during the week, the principal falls in twenty-four hours having been—

			Up to 8 A.M. 3rd.	Up to 8 A.M. 9th.
Mangalore	2'00"	5'86"
Karwar	4'62"	4'00"
Goa	4'32"	3'09"
Mormugao	3'88"	3'32"

Rain extended fairly well into the Deccan and the West Satpuras where occasional moderate amounts were received during the week, but over the East Satpuras, the Central India Plateau, the Gangetic Plain, the Sub-Himalayas and the north-west dry area only a few light scattered showers were received and hot weather conditions prevailed throughout.

It will be noticed that on both sides of India the rainfall in exposed situations became heavier at the close of the week. At the same time the barometer fell quickly over northern India, and conditions once again became more favourable for the extension of monsoon winds and rainfall throughout the country.

The week's rainfall has exceeded the normal in east Bengal, the Brahmaputra Valley, and the Deccan and has been about normal over Madras and the west coast. In all other parts of the country the rainfall has been short of the average, the deficiency amounting to 4" in the Dinajpur subdivision, to 3½" in the Bahraich subdivision, to over 3" in the Simla, Raipur and Jubbulpore subdivisions and to over 2" in the Burma coast division and the Darbhanga, Burdwan, Patna, Ludhiana, Cawnpore, Ranchi, Jhansi and Ahmedabad subdivisions.

The seasonal rainfall, i.e., the rain from May 1st to date, is about normal over Burma and north-east India and exceeds the normal over the greater part of the Peninsula, but is more or less deficient elsewhere. The deficiency is greatest in the following subdivisions, viz., Patna (—79%); Simla (—64%); Ludhiana (—78%); Cawnpore (—82%); Lahore (—86%); Jhansi (—79%); Jaipur (—75%); Ahmedabad (—87%); and Rajkot (—85%).

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday
4th July 1903.

Madras.—The rainfall was fair in the West Coast, the Hills, parts of the Circars and the Deccan and light to fair elsewhere. Irrigation supplies generally are sufficient. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue generally. The standing crops generally fair. Harvests continue in some places with fair outturn. Pasture is scanty in parts. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are almost stationary.

Bombay.—Good rain fell during the week in parts of Surat, the Konkan, Khandesh, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Sholapur and Bijapur. The rainfall was moderate in parts of Ahmedabad, Broach and Poona, slight in parts of Satara, Belgaum and Dharwar and very slight in parts of Karachi, Hyderabad, Panch Mahals, Kaira, Rajkot, Wadhwan and Baroda. More rain is urgently needed in parts of Thar and Parkar, Gujarat, the Carnatic, the Deccan and Baroda. Seedlings have been damaged by locusts in parts of Larkana and Thana and insects in parts of Hyderabad and Bijapur. They are suffering from insufficient moisture in parts of the Panch Mahals and are generally in good condition elsewhere. The preparation of lands for autumn cultivation continues in parts of Hyderabad, Gujarat, Nasik, Rajkot and Wadhwan. Sowing has been completed in Thana, commenced in parts of Ahmedabad, Broach, Khandesh and Baroda and is in progress in parts of Sindh, Surat, the Deccan, Ratnagiri and the Carnatic, but has been retarded for want of moisture in parts of Poona, Satara and the Carnatic. Transplantations have commenced in parts of Colaba, are progressing in parts of Sukkur, Larkana, Hyderabad, the Upper Sindh Frontier, Thana, Ratnagiri and Kanara, but are being retarded for want of rain in parts of Thana and Poona. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of Larkana and the Upper Sindh Frontier. Agricultural stock is in good condition and sufficient except in parts of Sholapur and Bijapur. The water-supply is deficient in parts of Bijapur and Baroda. Prices have fallen in three districts, have risen in five and are stationary elsewhere.

Bengal.—The rainfall continued to be general and was heavy in parts of East and North Bengal, but lighter elsewhere. The districts of Bankura, Midnapore, Murshidabad, Rajshahi, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, Muzaffarpur, Monghyr, Balasore, Angul, Puri, Ranchi, Palamau and Singhbhum are in need of more rain. Transplantation of winter rice is in progress. Early rice and jute are doing well. The outturn of jute is estimated at 85 per cent. of a normal crop, provided that conditions for the remainder of the season are normal. Flights of locusts passed over a portion of Behar and Chota Nagpur, but no serious damage is reported. Fodder and water generally are sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in nine districts, has fallen in nine and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces.—Light and scattered showers of rain are reported from thirty-two districts, Gorakhpur alone receiving 1 inch. More rain is urgently needed throughout the Provinces and in seventeen districts the sowings of autumn crops are being retarded for want of it. Supplies are ample, but fodder is reported to be scarce in Rae Bareilly, Jaunpur, Hamirpur and Banda. Prices are rising.

Punjab.—Good rain has fallen in parts of Shahpur and Mooltan. Slight falls are reported from Hissar, Ferozepore, Rawalpindi and parts of the Delhi, Umballa, Lahore, and Amritsar districts. The price of wheat is rising slightly in Hissar, Delhi, Umballa, Jullundur, Amritsar and Rawalpindi, but falling in Shahpur. The prices of other food-grains are fluctuating. Harvesting of extra spring crops has commenced in Hissar. Sowings of autumn crops continue. Rain is urgently wanted in some districts. The condition and prospects of standing crops are good. The outturn of extra spring crops is good in Amritsar. The cotton crop has been slightly damaged by locusts in Hissar. Locusts also appeared in parts of Mooltan, but did no damage. Cattle are generally in good condition. Fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts except in parts of Hissar, Shahpur and Mooltan.

North-West Frontier Province.—Rain fell throughout the Province during the week except in Peshawar and Kohat. The extra spring and autumn crops promise well, but more rain is required. Flood irrigation is favourable in Dera Ismail Khan. The rivers are rising. Fodder is abundant. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are steady in Peshawar, but are falling in Dera Ismail Khan, Peshawar, Kohat and Hazara.

Burma.—The rainfall generally is seasonable and fairly well distributed. The fall was heavy in Akyab and Pegu. Ploughing for wet-weather paddy is in full operation and sowing is extending. Transplanting has commenced in a part of Shwebo. The reaping of early wet-weather paddy is in progress in Mandalay and Sagaing and of dry-weather paddy still continues in Magwe and Lower Chindwin. Sowing of cotton and early sesamum has been completed in Myingyan. Considerable damage has been done to early paddy in Mandalay by flooding of the Shwetachaung tract. Young crops have been slightly damaged by insects in the Wuntho subdivision of Katha. Rain is badly wanted in Sagaing where crop prospects are poor and also needed in the Shabeitkin subdivision of the Ruby Mines. Standing sesamum and cotton crops in the Salingyi and Pale townships of Lower Chindwin and sesamum in the Yindaw township of Yamethin are withering for want of rain. Prospects on the whole are fair. The price of paddy has fallen very largely in Shwebo. It has slightly changed in five districts, but is stationary elsewhere.

Central Provinces.—The weather generally has been warm and cloudy. Light to moderate showers have fallen during the week but the rainfall up to date is abnormally deficient throughout the Provinces, particularly in Saugor, Mandla and Hoshangabad. More rain is wanted everywhere for autumn sowings which have been retarded in places. Fodder and water are generally sufficient. Grass-hoppers still exist in the Khandwa tahsil of the Nimar district. Prices have risen in Damoh, Jubbulpore, Mandla and Bilaspur and have fallen in Bitul and Bhandara. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are:—wheat, 18½; gram, 24; rice, 15; and juar, 30. The highest prices are:—wheat, 10½; gram, 12; rice, 8; and juar, 17½. The numbers on famine relief were as follows:—Relief workers:—Public Works Department—(Raipur)—adults, 8,521; children, 1,344; total, 9,865. Road construction and repairs—(Bilaspur)—adults, 572. Gratuitous relief—otherwise relieved—(Raipur)—adults, 8,869; children, 2,153; total, 11,022. Bilaspur—adults, 1,076; children, 274; total, 1,350. Bhandara—adults, 1,001; children, 97; total, 1,098. Balaghat—adults, 351; children, 81; total, 432. Total otherwise relieved—13,902. Dependants—Raipur—adults, 16; children, 1,051; total, 1,077. Poor-houses—Raipur—adults, 31; children, 39; total, 70. Minor irrigation grants-in-aid works—Bilaspur—adults, 330; children, 20; total, 350. Total on all forms of relief, 25,836. The number of Public Works Department camps open is 13.

Assam.—Slight to moderate rain fell in every district. More rain is wanted in the Naga Hills and Manipur. Ploughing for, and sowing of, early and late rice and plucking and manufacture of tea are in progress. Transplanting of late rice and cutting of jute have been commenced in places. Early rice is being reaped in Sylhet, Goalpara, Kamrup and Darrang. The outturn of tea is short in Cachar owing to excessive rain, good in Lakhimpur and fair elsewhere. Blight is prevailing in Darrang and Nowgong. The prospects of sugarcane are good in Cachar and fair elsewhere. The prospects of early rice are good in Sylhet, Goalpara and the Garo Hills, poor in Kamrup and Manipur and fair in other places. Some damage has been caused by frogs on low lands in Goalpara and Kamrup. Jute has been damaged by floods in parts of Goalpara. Elsewhere prospects are fair to good. Fodder is insufficient in parts of Sylhet and Kamrup. Prices—of common rice—Silchar, 14; Tezpur, 13; Sylhet, Dhubri and Gauhati, 12; Nowgong and Sibsagar, 11; and Dibrugarh, 10 seers per rupee.

Mysore.—Seventeen cents of rain fell in the Civil and Military station. The rainfall was good generally throughout the Province, but more is wanted in Shimoga and in parts of Tumkur. General prospects are fair. Prices have risen slightly in three districts. Cattle are healthy except in parts of Hassan. Water and fodder are sufficient.

Coorg.—Rainfall—88 cents. The sowing of rice and transplanting of ragi have been completed. Prices of food-grains are stationary. Water and fodder are ample.

Berar.—The average rain during the week was 1 inch and 78 cents. The weather is warm and cloudy. Cotton has germinated in parts of the Basim and Ellichpur districts. The preparation of land continues in all districts except Amraoti. Sowings are in progress. Fodder is sufficient. Water is sufficient except in parts of the Jalgaon taluq. Prices are stationary.

Hyderabad.—Rainfall 1 inch and 93 cents. Autumn crops are being sown generally, except in few talukas, where more rain is awaited. Early rice sowings have been commenced in a few talukas. Lands are being extensively prepared for further sowings. The week's rainfall has given a fair supply of water to several tanks. Prices:—Wheat, 9½; rice, 8½; and juar, 27½ seers per halli rupee.

Rajputana.—Rainfall in cents:—Bikaner, 29; Mewar, 10; Abu, 9; Marwar, 30; Kotah 82; Jhalawar, 220; Jaipur, 37; Kishengarh, 76; Alwar, 60; Bharatpur, 102; Karauli, 112; Dholpur, 228; and Ajmer-Merwara, 84. The preparation of land for autumn crops is in progress. Sowing has been commenced in parts. The condition of cattle generally is good. Fodder is sufficient. The cheapest price is—Jhalawar, 33½ seers and the highest price is—Sirohi, 14 seers the rupee.

Central India.—The rainfall was general but light in Bhopal, Baghelkhand, Malwa and Bhopawar and partial elsewhere. It was sufficient in Bhopal, Malwa and parts of Gwalior and insufficient elsewhere. Agricultural operations are in progress in Bundelkhand, Malwa, Bhopawar and Indore and have been started in Gwalior and Bhopal. Locusts are causing damage to trees in Bhopawar. Agricultural stock and pasturage are generally good. Prices are steady in Gwalior and parts of Bhopawar, normal in Bhopal, Bundelkhand, Baghelkhand and Indore, low in Malwa and are falling in Dhar.

Kashmir.—The weather is bright and warm. Prices are a little higher than usual. JAMMU:—The rainfall was slight. The condition of the standing crops is fair. Fodder is generally sufficient, but the outlook seems gloomy. Land is being prepared for autumn sowings. Rain is badly wanted. Prices are fluctuating. Wheat sells from 16½ to 20 and maize from 20 to 32 seers the rupee.

Nepal.—Rainfall—0·68 inch. The weather is bright and hot. Transplanting of paddy in lowlands is retarded for want of rain. Upland crops are doing well. The price of rice is 7½ seers for the rupee.

The term "gunpowder" means exclusively gunpowder ordinarily so called.

CLASS 2.—Nitrate-mixture Class.

The term "nitrate-mixture" means any preparation other than gunpowder ordinarily so called, formed by the mechanical mixture of a nitrate with any form of carbon or with any carbonaceous substance not possessed of explosive properties, whether sulphur be or be not added to such preparation, and whether such preparation be or be not mechanically mixed with any other non-explosive substance.

The nitrate-mixture class comprises such explosives as—

Chilworth special powder,	Ripp-Lene,
Fortis explosive,	Safety blasting powder.
	Westfallite.

and any preparation coming within the above definition.

CLASS 3.—Nitro-compound Class.

The term "nitro-compound" means any chemical compound possessed of explosive properties, or capable of combining with metals to form an explosive compound, which produced by the chemical action of nitric acid (whether mixed or not with sulphuric acid) or of a nitrate mixed with sulphuric acid upon any carbonaceous substance, whether such compound is mechanically mixed with other substances or not.

The nitro-compound class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Amberite No. 1,	Dynamite,
Ballistite,	Gelatine Dynamite,
Blasting Gelatine,	Gelignite,
Carbonite,	Lithofracteur,
Cordite,	Nitro-glycerine,
	Stonite,

and any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation which consists either wholly or partly, of nitro-glycerine or some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Amberite No. 2,	Nitrated gun-cotton,
Ammonite,	Picrates,
Bellite,	Picric powder,
Coopal's powder,	Roburite,
Cotton gunpowder,	Sawdust and gun-cotton powder,
E. C. powder,	Schultz's powder,
Gun-cotton ordinarily so-called,	Tonite (or cotton powder) and any nitro-compound as before defined which is not comprised in the first division.

CLASS 4.—Chlorate-mixture Class.

The term "chlorate-mixture" means any explosive containing a chlorate.

The chlorate-mixture class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's blasting powder,
Brain's blasting powder,

and any chlorate preparation which consists partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's original blasting powder,	Hochstadter's blasting charges,
Erhardt's powder,	Reichen's blasting charges,
Reverley's powder,	Teutonite,
Chlorated gun-cotton, and any chlorate-mixture as before defined which is not comprised in the 1st division.

CLASS 5.—Fulminate Class.

The term "fulminate" means any chemical compound or mechanical mixture, whether included in the foregoing classes or not, which, from its great susceptibility to detonation, is suitable for employment in percussion-caps or any other appliances for developing detonation, or which, from its extreme sensibility to explosion and from its great instability (that is to say readiness to undergo decomposition from very slight exciting causes), is specially dangerous.

The fulminate class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such compounds as the fulminates of silver and of mercury and preparations of these substances, such as are used in percussion-caps, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with phosphorus, or certain descriptions of phosphorus compounds, with or without the addition of carbonaceous matter, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with sulphur, or with a sulphurate, with or without carbonaceous matter.

Division 2 comprises such substances as the chloride and the iodide of nitrogen, fulminating gold and silver, diazobenzol, and the nitrate of diazobenzol.

CLASS 6.—Ammunition Class.

The term "ammunition" means an explosive of any of the foregoing classes when enclosed in any case or contrivance, or otherwise adapted or prepared so as to form a cartridge or charge for small-arms, cannon, or any other weapon, or for blasting, or to form any safety or other fuze for blasting or for shells, or to form any tube for firing explosives, or to form a percussion-cap a detonator, a fog-signal, a shell, a torpedo, a war-rocket, or other contrivance other than a fire-work.

The term "percussion-cap" does not include a detonator.

The term "detonator" means a capsule or case which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive of the fulminate-explosive class in such quantity that the explosion of one capsule or case will communicate the explosion to other like capsules or cases.

The term "safety fuze" means a fuze for blasting which burns and does not explode and which does not contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive in such quantity, that the burning of such fuze will not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

The expression "safety cartridges" means cartridges for small arms of which the case can be extracted from the small-arm after firing, and which are so closed as to prevent any explosion in one cartridge being communicated to other cartridges. The term also includes rifle-calibre machine-gun cartridges if they are of the above description, whether they are for use with machine-guns having chambers identical with those of rifles or with machine-guns which have special chambers.

The maximum diameter at which a small-arm or machine-gun cartridge can be accepted as "safety" is one inch.

The ammunition class has three divisions.

Division 1 comprises exclusively—

- Safety cartridges,
- Safety fuzes for blasting,
- Fuzes for shells, and tubes friction for guns, provided there be no more than five fuzes or 25 tubes in one package, and that the package be a hermetically sealed metal cylinder,
- Railway fog-signals,
- Percussion-caps.

Division 2 comprises any ammunition, as before defined, which does not contain its own means of ignition and is not included in division 1, such as—

- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Cartridges and charges for cannon, shells, mines, blasting, or other like purposes,
- Shells and torpedoes containing any explosive,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,
- War-rockets,

which do not contain their own means of ignition.

Division 3 comprises any ammunition, as before defined, which contains its own means of ignition and is not included in division 1, such as—

- Detonators,
- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,

which do contain their own means of ignition.

By ammunition containing its own means of ignition is meant ammunition having an arrangement, whether attached to it or forming part of it, which is adapted to explode or fire the same by friction or percussion.

CLASS 7.—Fire-work Class.

The fire-work class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises fire-work compositions, that is to say, any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation of an explosive or inflammable nature, which is used for the purpose of making manufactured fire-works, and is not included in the former classes of explosives, and also any star and any coloured fire composition, subject to the proviso hereinafter set forth.

Division 2 comprises manufactured fire-works, that is to say, any explosive of any of the foregoing classes and fire-work composition, when such explosive or composition is enclosed in any case or contrivance, or is otherwise manufactured so as to form a squib, cracker, toy cap or amorce, serpent, rocket (other than a war-rocket), maroon, lance, wheel, Chinese fire, Roman candle, or other article specially adapted for the production of pyrotechnic effects or pyrotechnic signals or sound signals :

Provided that a substantially constructed and hermetically closed metal case containing not more than 1 lb. of coloured fire composition of such a nature as not to be liable to spontaneous ignition shall be deemed to be a "manufactured fire-work."

TRANSPORT.

(a) Packing.

2. The following general rules shall be observed with respect to the packing of explosives for conveyance :—

I.—Each class of explosive shall be separately packed.

II.—An explosive not being an explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class, or of the 2nd and 3rd divisions of the 6th (ammunition) class, or of the 1st division of the 7th (fire-work) class, shall, if not exceeding 5 lbs. in quantity, be contained in a substantial case, bag, canister, or other receptacle made and closed so as to prevent the explosive from escaping.

III.—In every other case the explosive shall be contained in a double package. The inner package shall be a substantial case, bag, canister, or other receptacle made and closed so as to prevent the explosive from escaping, and the outer package shall be a box, barrel, or case of wood or metal or other solid material, and shall be of such strength, construction, and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened, or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow the explosive to escape :

Provided as follows :

(a) If the explosive is of the 1st (or gunpowder) class or of the 2nd (nitrate-mixture) class, or of the 2nd division of the 3rd (nitro-compound) class, the quantity of the explosive in any one outer package shall not, in the case of explosives of the first two classes, exceed 100 lbs., and in other cases 50 lbs.
If the explosive is picric acid, the inner package must be of such a nature as to effectually prevent any picric acid from coming into contact with any basic metallic oxide.*

(b) If the explosive belongs to the 1st division of the 3rd (nitro-compound) class or to the 4th (chlorate-mixture) class, the inner package shall be without any metal in its construction, and the inner or outer package, or both, shall be thoroughly waterproof.† No one of the inner packages shall contain more than 10 lbs., and the aggregate quantity of the explosive in any one outer package shall not exceed 50 lbs.

(c)—1. If the explosive belongs to the 5th (fulminate) class, and is of such character that it cannot be packed mixed with water, or that danger would arise from such mode of packing, it shall be packed in such manner as shall be specially directed by the Resident with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council.

2. Any other explosive of the fulminate class shall be packed as follows :—It shall be packed in bags or coverings of calico, canvas, or other material permeable to water, and containing each not more than 25 lbs. of fulminate, and so made and closed as to prevent any explosive from escaping. Such bags or coverings shall be packed in a case containing sufficient water to ensure the explosive being kept constantly wet, and such case (hereinafter called the inner case) shall be packed in an outer case containing sufficient water constantly to surround the inner case; and the inner case and the outer case shall each be of such strength, construction, and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow any fulminate or water to escape; and the amount of the explosive in any one outer case shall not exceed 200 lbs. except with the consent of, and under conditions approved by, an Inspector of Explosive.

3. Every package when actually used for the packing of one fulminate shall not be used for the packing of any other fulminate or for any other purpose

4. On the outer case there shall be affixed in conspicuous characters by means of a brand or securely attached label or other mark the word " Explosive, " with the name of the explosive followed by the words " Fulminate, Division 1 " (or 2 as the case may be) and the name and address of the owner or sender.

(d)—1. If an explosive belongs to the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class, it shall be contained in a box, barrel, or case of wood, metal, or other solid material, and of such strength, construction, and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened, or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow any explosive to escape.

2. If the explosive belongs to the 2nd division of the 6th (ammunition) class, the following rules shall apply, viz. :—

(i) A shell or torpedo containing any explosive material, whether such shell or torpedo be separate or form part of a rocket or other appliance, shall be packed in such manner as may be specially directed by the Resident with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council with reference to such explosive.

(ii) Any explosive material when made up into a cartridge or charge for cannon, shells mines, blasting, or other like purposes, shall be packed in the manner required for the same explosive material when not so made up :
Provided that where a double package is required, the enclosing case of such cartridge or charge, if it satisfies the conditions required for the inner package, may be held to be such inner package.

(iii) Any other explosive of the 2nd division shall be packed in a box, barrel, or case of wood, metal, or other solid material, and of such strength, construc-

* Note.—This rule is intended to prevent picric acid being packed in a case lined with certain metals, such as zinc or lead, which would result in danger arising from the formation of a picrate. Waterproof bags inside powder-barrels are suggested as a simple and safe method of packing picric acid for transport or storage.

† Note.—From the requisition that the package should be waterproof are excepted—

(1) All explosives falling in the 2nd division of the 4th (chlorate mixture) class.

(2) Those explosives included in the 1st division of the 3rd (nitro-compound) class which do not yield up their nitro-glycerine in contact with water, such as blasting gelatine, gelatine dynamite, cordite and ballistite and galignite; provided that any other substance than those named has been certified to be of this character by a Chief Inspector of Explosives.

tion, and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened, or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow any explosive to escape: and any one such package shall not contain more than 100 lbs. of ammunition.

- (e) If the explosive belongs to the 3rd division of the 6th (ammunition) class, it shall be packed in a double package. The inner package shall not contain more than 2 lbs. of such explosive, and no more than 50 lbs. shall be contained in the outer package.

"Provided that, in the case of detonators, the following further rules shall also be observed, namely:—

1. The detonators, and the spaces between the detonators and between the sides of the inner package and the detonators, shall all be filled, as far as practicable, with fine sawdust or other similar material. A layer of cotton wool or other soft elastic material shall be placed between both ends of all the detonators and the interior of the inner package in which the detonators are placed, in such manner and so secured that both ends of the detonators will rest upon the said cotton wool or other material. Every inner package, if of metal, shall be lined throughout with paper or other soft material.
2. Where the number of detonators packed for conveyance exceeds in all one thousand (1,000), or such greater number as may from time to time be assigned with the consent of, and under conditions approved by, an Inspector of Explosives, all the inner packages as aforesaid shall be placed inside a substantial case of wood or metal, made and closed, so as to prevent any of the inner packages escaping therefrom, and the case shall be placed inside such outer packages as is required by the above general rule relating to the packing for conveyance of explosives of the 3rd division of the 6th (ammunition) class, in such manner and so secured as to leave a clear space of not less than three inches between every part of the interior of the said outer package, notwithstanding that such clear space may, if preferred, be filled with sawdust, straw, or other similar material, or may contain a light framework or battens of wood to keep the case aforesaid in position in the outer package."
3. In the case of electric detonators, the quantity to be contained in any one such outer package may amount to not more than three thousand (3,000) electric detonators, or, if such outer package is provided with handles of such strength and construction as to allow it to be safely and conveniently carried by means of such handles, the number may be increased to five thousand (5,000).
- (f) If the explosive belongs to the 1st division of the 7th (fire-work) class, it shall be contained in a double package. The inner package shall be a substantial canister, case, or other receptacle hermetically closed, and containing no more than 1 lb. of explosive, and no more than 20 lbs. shall be contained in the outer package; and,
- (g) If the explosive belongs to the 2nd division of the 7th (fire-work) class, it shall be contained in a box, barrel, or case of wood, metal, or other solid material, and of such strength, construction, and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow any explosive to escape, and the quantity of explosive in any one package shall not exceed 100 lbs.

IV.—Whatever be the amount of the explosive, and to whatever class or division of a class it belongs, the following conditions shall be observed:—

- (a) the interior of every package, whether single or double, shall be kept free from grit and otherwise clean;
- (b) every package, whether single or double, when actually used for the packing of the explosive, shall not be used for the packing of any other explosive of the same or any other class or for any other purpose, except with the consent of and under conditions approved by, an Inspector of Explosives;
- (c) there shall not be any iron or steel in the construction of any such single package or inner or outer package unless the same is effectually covered with tin, zinc, or other suitable material;
- (d) on the outermost package there shall be affixed, in conspicuous characters, by means of a brand or securely attached label or mark, the word "Explosive" followed by the name of the explosive or other description of the contents and the name and address of the owners or senders; and
- (e) the amount of the explosive in any single package or, if there is a double package, in any one outer package, shall not exceed the amount specified in the foregoing rules except with the consent of, and under conditions to be approved by, an Inspector of Explosives or other officer appointed by the Resident in this behalf.

3. Whoever commits a breach of any of the foregoing rules relating to the packing of explosives for conveyance shall be punishable with fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000.*

* Rules regarding search for, and detection of, explosives contravening regulations have been issued by the Local Governments.

(b) Mode of conveyance.

4. The following general rules shall be observed with respect to the conveyance of explosives:—

i.—No explosive shall be conveyed from place to place unless packed in the manner provided for in the foregoing rules.

ii.—There shall not be conveyed in any carriage or vessel which is being used for the conveyance of an explosive, any explosive of a different class and division, of whatsoever nature, which contains its own means of ignition, unless it is sufficiently separated therefrom to prevent any fire or explosion which may take place in one such explosive being communicated to another.

iii.—Except in the case of small consignments carried by railway, which may be unloaded at any time, explosives shall be loaded or unloaded only between sunrise and sunset. For the purposes of this rule no consignment of more than half a wagon-load booked to one station shall be deemed to be a small consignment.

iv.—Whilst the explosive is being loaded on or unloaded out of any carriage no fire or artificial light, nor any article which is liable to cause or communicate fire or explosion [such as charcoal, lucifer-matches, articles for striking a light, petroleum to which the Indian Petroleum Act, 1899 (VIII of 1899) or any other Act for the time being in force regarding the importation, possession, and transport of petroleum, applies, or any spirit or oil or substance that gives forth an inflammable vapour at a temperature below 100° Fahrenheit] shall be, or shall be allowed to be, brought, had or used dangerously near to, such carriage, and no smoking shall be allowed in, on or dangerously near to, the same:

Provided that when the use of a light for the purposes of such loading or unloading is unavoidable, a lamp of such construction, position, or character as not to cause any danger from fire or explosion may be used; and no person, while handling any explosive (except an explosive of division 1, class 6, if packed in accordance with the packing rules), shall wear boots or shoes with iron or steel nails, heels, or tips.

v.—In the loading or unloading of any explosive, the casks and packages containing the same shall be passed from hand to hand and not rolled upon the ground: they shall not be thrown or dropped down, but shall be carefully deposited and stowed.

vi.—The explosive shall not be conveyed except in the interior of a carriage so enclosed on all sides with wood or metal, as effectually to protect the explosive against accident by fire from without. If the explosive cannot be so secured, it shall be completely covered with painted cloth, tarpaulin, or other suitable material so as to effectually protect it against communication of fire.

vii.—There shall not be any iron or steel in the interior of the portion of the carriage with which the case containing the explosive is in contact, unless the same is effectually covered with leather, wood, cloth, or other suitable material.

viii.—In the stowing of the explosive, due precautions shall be taken by means of a partition or otherwise and by careful stowing to secure such explosive from being brought into contact with, or endangered by, any other article or substance conveyed in such carriage which is liable to cause fire or explosion; and if the explosive is dangerously affected by water, due precautions shall be taken to exclude water from coming into contact with such explosive.

ix.—The amount of the explosives conveyed in any one carriage at any one time shall not exceed 2,000 lbs. unless the carriage be so enclosed on all sides with wood or metal, as effectually to protect the explosive against accident by fire from without, in which case the amount of the explosives conveyed shall not exceed the following:—

	Tons,
In any one carriage on a railway	10
In any one other carriage	2

NOTE.—This rule shall, in the case of dynamite conveyed by railway, be read subject to paragraph XII of Rule 6.

x.—Nothing in the foregoing rules (except Rule I) shall apply to any explosive of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class:

Provided that all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accidents.

5. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the conveyance of explosives otherwise than by railway:—

i.—No explosive shall be conveyed in a carriage whilst carrying or plying for public passengers unless the quantity is less than 5 lbs. and notice has been given beforehand to the person in charge of such carriage; and all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accidents by a fire or explosion.

Provided that there shall not be conveyed in any such carriage any explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class or any explosive of the 3rd division of the 6th (ammunition) class, or of the 1st division of the 7th (fire-work) class, except detonators packed according to the proviso to Rule 2 (iii) (c), to the number of 200.

Provided that the amount of explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class in the detonators shall in no case exceed in the aggregate 3 oz. (a certificate to this effect being given by the Agent of the Company by whom the detonators are tendered for transport):

Provided also that no other explosive is carried in the same compartment.

ii.—With respect to the conveyance by carriage of explosives of the 5th (fulminate) class or of the 3rd division of the 6th (ammunition) class, or of the 1st division of the 7th (fire-work) class, or of larger quantities than 5 lbs. of any other explosive, the following regulations shall be observed :

- (1) The person in charge of the carriage shall not drive or conduct the same in a dangerous or reckless manner, and shall take all due precautions to avoid fire and explosion, and no person shall do any act or thing in relation to the explosive which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the conveyance of the explosive or for work immediately connected with such conveyance; and a person who is intoxicated shall not have charge of any carriage conveying explosive and shall not be permitted to be in, or on, or attending the same.
- (2) A person shall not forward to any warehouseman or carrier a consignment of explosive, unless he has given notice to such warehouseman or carrier beforehand, stating the name and quantity of the explosive proposed to be conveyed, and the name and address of the proposed consignee, and has had an intimation that the warehouseman or carrier is prepared to receive the consignment; and a warehouseman or carrier shall not make such an intimation, nor receive such consignment, unless he is prepared to receive it, and forthwith to despatch the same, or to deposit it in a magazine or at a place at which a person is licensed to possess the same.
- (3) The carriage conveying the explosive shall be in charge of, and constantly attended by, some competent person, or by a sufficient number of competent persons, and such persons shall not, if the amount of the explosive conveyed exceed 100 lbs., stop or delay for a longer time than may be reasonably necessary, or stop unnecessarily, at any place where such stopping would be attended with special public danger.

6. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the conveyance of explosives by public railway :—

i.—No person shall send for carriage upon any railway any consignment of an explosive unless he has given to the officer in charge of the railway station previous notice in writing, which, at the option of the Railway Administration, may extend to 48 hours, of his intention to send such consignment, and stating the true name, description, quantity, and mode of packing of the explosive proposed to be conveyed, and his own name and address, and also the name and address of the proposed consignee, and unless he has had an intimation in writing from an authorised officer of the railway that such consignment will be received.

ii.—No explosive which a Railway Administration shall, by any notice or regulation for the time being in force, notify that they will not receive, shall be brought, sent, or forwarded to, or upon, any railway of the said Railway Administration.

iii.—Consignments of explosives shall be sent to the forwarding station and shall be received by the railway servants only at such times between sunrise and sunset as the Railway Administration may appoint; and every package containing any explosive proposed to be conveyed on any railway shall immediately on arrival at the station be unloaded and placed in a safe place under the special direction of the officer in charge of the station.

All gunpowder under despatch or receipt by a Government arsenal, depot, or factory, shall be loaded or unloaded in the railway vans by Government servants employed in such arsenal, depot, or factory. In each van used by the railway for the transport of gunpowder the packages of gunpowder shall be secured in such a way as to prevent concussion when the train is in motion.

iv.—An explosive shall be removed by the consignee from the receiving station during the twelve hours of daylight after arrival: if this condition is not strictly complied with, the Railway Administration may return the consignment to the consignor at his risk and expense. And such packages shall in the meanwhile be kept as far away from the station buildings as possible, in the wagon they were conveyed in, or, if unloaded, shall be completely covered with tarpaulins or other suitable material, and, if necessary, shall be protected by a police guard.

v.—The Railway Administration may refuse to receive any packages which they suspect to contain any explosive packed or sent in contravention of these regulations. And in case any package, which the Railway Administration suspect, shall be upon any railway, the Railway Administration may open, or require to be opened, such package to ascertain the fact, at the risk and expense of the consignor, and may return the explosive contained in the package to the consignor at his risk and expense, keeping the packages, pending such return, in the manner prescribed in the preceding rule.

vi.—Subject to the exception provided for in clause (e), no explosive shall be conveyed by passenger-train except of the kinds and in the manner hereinafter specified in this rule:—

(a) Safety cartridges and percussion-caps and safety-fuze (for blasting), also fog-signals for railway use which may be conveyed in ordinary wagons or carriages.

(b) Explosives of the 3rd (nitro-compound) class which may be carried in the form of cartridges up to the limit of 5 lbs.

Provided that no detonators are carried in the same compartment.

(c) Detonators packed according to the proviso to Rule 2 (iii) (e) may be carried to the number of 200.

Provided that in no case the amount of fulminate of mercury in the package or packages containing the detonators exceeds in the aggregate 3 oz. (a certificate to this effect being given by the company, firm, or person tendering the detonators for transport or by its or his agent) :

Provided also that no other explosive is carried in the same compartment.

(d) Sporting gunpowder or non-safety cartridges packed in double cases as before provided, so long as the gunpowder is contained in one-pound tin canisters packed in a stout wooden case with an outer covering of tin or zinc completely spark-proof, or in metal-lined cases of a pattern approved by the Railway Administration. But no outer case shall contain more than 25 lbs. of gunpowder, and the total consignment of gunpowder or non-safety cartridges by one train shall not exceed 80 lbs.

(e) Explosives may be carried by mixed trains on any line on which goods trains are not running, subject to the conditions that they are loaded in properly constructed powder vans ; that not more than one powder van containing explosives is forwarded at any one time by a mixed train ; that there are not less than three vehicles between the powder van and either the engine or the passenger coaches : that the powder van is close-coupled to the adjoining vehicles ; and that directly a powder van containing explosives arrives at a section on which goods trains are running, it is detached from the mixed train.

vii.—Not more than five carriages containing explosives shall be loaded or unloaded at any railway station or be conveyed by any one train at any one time ; and the quantity of explosive to be contained in any one carriage shall not exceed two-thirds of the normal load, unless the carriages shall be specially built and approved of by the Government of India for the conveyance of explosives. But nothing in this clause shall be held to apply to separate consignments of safety cartridges for small-arms.

viii.—There shall not be conveyed in the same carriage with any explosive any lucifer or other matches, fuzes, pipelights, acids, naphtha, paraffine, petroleum to which the Indian Petroleum Act, 1849 (VIII of 1899), or any other Act for the time being in force regarding the importation, possession, and transport of petroleum applies, or any other volatile spirit substance liable to give off an inflammable vapour or liable to spontaneous ignition, or to cause or communicate fire or explosion.

ix.—The consignor shall attach to the consignment note a certificate or (provided the original is produced, for verification) copy of a certificate, signed by an officer authorised by the Resident in this behalf that the explosive, if it is an explosive of class 3 or 4, is of the standard purity ; and further in the case of dynamite, and all nitro-glycerine compounds, that there are no signs of exuded nitro-glycerine or of liquefaction. The consignor shall also certify that the explosive has been packed in accordance with the packing rules in force in England or in British India or in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

x.—In the case of explosives under classes 3 and 4 the outer packages shall be marked with the date of the manufacture of the explosives. The abovementioned certificate shall contain sufficient information to admit of all packages being easily recognised.

xi.—The certificate referred to in Rule IX shall be valid for six months after date, if the examination has been made between the 15th October and 31st March ; but any Railway Administration which accepts dynamite and other nitro-glycerine compounds for transport may demand a fresh certificate for these explosives if presented for conveyance between 1st April and 15th October (both inclusive).

xii.—Packages containing dynamite and other blasting explosives of the 3rd nitro-compound class or explosives of the 4th (chlorate-mixture) 5 (fulminate) classes or of the 1st division of the 7th (firework) class shall be stowed in one layer only and secured so as to prevent movement during transit, and the gross load in any one wagon shall not exceed 3 tons :

Provided that if the packages of explosive are in rectangular form and are properly secured so as to prevent movement during transit, they may be stowed in any number of layers not exceeding five, and the gross load in any one wagon shall not exceed 5 tons.

xiii.—No explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class or of the 3rd division of the 6th (ammunition) class or of the 7th (fire-work) class shall be carried in the same train with any explosive not of the class and division to which it belongs unless it be sufficiently separated therefrom to prevent any fire or explosion which may take place in one such explosive being communicated to another.

xiv.—Wagons used for the carriage of explosives shall be examined to see that they are spark-proof, and have been cleaned out before they are loaded. Hair, cloth, hides, or other suitable materials shall be spread on the floor of the wagon and between each layer of packages except when the packages are covered with gunny or felt, or contain safety cartridges for small-arms packed in tin-lined service-pattern boxes.

xv.—Wagons containing explosives shall be loaded and unloaded on sidings distant as far as possible from the station buildings.

xvi.—Packages containing explosives other than those referred to in rule 6 (XII) shall not be stored in more than three layers one above the other. But if the packages are in rectangular form and of uniform size (provided they are double packages and are so secured as to prevent movement during transit) they may be packed in five layers one above the other. But in the case of safety cartridges for small-arms packed in tin-lined service-pattern boxes, there is no restriction. Subject to the provisions of rule 4 (III), the loading and unloading of explosives when once begun shall be diligently proceeded with until the same is completed.

xvii.—When the train is being marshalled, wagons loaded with explosives may be shunted by a locomotive, if they are separated from the engine by not less than three wagons containing no explosive nor easily inflammable substance. This precaution is not necessary with wagons specially constructed for the carriage of explosives. The speed of these movements shall be restricted to 5 miles an hour; they shall be superintended by a duly authorized officer, who shall be held responsible for the observance of these orders. Flying shunts are strictly prohibited.

Conditions.

1. This license is given subject to the provisions of Indian Explosives Act (IV of 1884) and the rules thereunder.

2. There shall not be at the same time in the magazine an amount of explosive exceeding the amount specified in the license.

3. The magazine shall be used only for the keeping of the explosive or explosives specified in the license, and of receptacles for, or tools or implements for work connected with, the keeping of such explosive or explosives.

4. The interior of the magazine and the benches, shelves, and fittings therein, shall be so constructed or so lined or covered as to prevent the exposure of any iron or steel, and the detaching of any grit, iron, steel, or similar substances in such manner as to come into contact with the explosive, and such interior, benches, shelves, and fittings shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, be kept free from grit and otherwise clean; and in the case of any explosive being possessed which is liable to be dangerously affected by water, due precautions shall be taken to exclude water therefrom.

Provided that so much of this condition as relates to precautions against the exposure of any iron or steel and the detaching of any grit, iron, steel, or similar substances shall not be obligatory in a building in which no explosive other than an explosive of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

5. The magazine shall have attached thereto a sufficient lightning conductor which shall be tested at least once during the currency of a license.

6. Before repairs are done to or in any part of a room or magazine, it shall, as far as is practicable, be cleaned by the removal of all explosive or mixed ingredients thereof, and the thorough washing out of such room or part; and after such cleaning, these conditions shall cease to apply to such room or part of the magazine until explosive is again taken into it, provided that this condition shall not be obligatory in a magazine in which no explosive other than an explosive of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

7. Except after such cleaning, all tools and implements used in, or in any repairs to, any part of the magazine shall be made only of wood, copper, or brass, or some soft metal or material, or shall be covered with some safe and suitable material; provided that this condition shall not be obligatory in a magazine in which no explosive other than an explosive of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

8. Due provision shall be made by the use of suitable working clothes without pockets, suitable shoes, searching and otherwise, or by some such means for preventing the introduction into the magazine of fire, lucifer matches, or any substance or article likely to cause explosion or fire, or any iron, steel, or grit; but this rule shall not prevent the introduction of an artificial light of such construction, position, or character as not to cause any danger of fire or explosion.

Provided that so much of this condition as applies to the exclusion of grit, iron, or steel shall not be obligatory in a building in which no explosive of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class is kept.

9. No person shall smoke in any part of the magazine.

10. No person under the age of 16 years shall be employed in or enter the magazine except in the presence and under the supervision of some grown up person.

11. Two or more descriptions of explosive which may lawfully be possessed in a licensed magazine, may be possessed in the same magazine, if they are separated from each other by an intervening partition of such substance and character, or by such intervening space, as will effectually prevent explosion or fire in the one communicating with the other, subject to the following qualifications:—

- (a) The various explosives of classes 1 (gunpowder), 2 (nitrate-mixture), 3 (nitro-compound), and 4 (chlorate-mixture), safety fuse belonging to the 1st division of class 6 (ammunition), and such of the various explosives of the 2nd division of class 6 (ammunition) as do not contain any exposed iron or steel, may be kept with each other without any intervening partition or space.
- (b) The various explosives of the 1st division of class 6 (ammunition) may be kept with each other without any intervening partition or space.
- (c) Such of the various explosives of the 2nd division of class 6 (ammunition) as contain any exposed iron or steel may be kept with each other without any intervening partition or space.
- (d) The various explosives of the 3rd division of class 6 (ammunition) may be kept with each other without any intervening partition or space.
- (e) The various explosives of class 7 (fire-work) may be kept with each other without any intervening partition or space.

Save as aforesaid, two or more descriptions of explosives shall not be kept in the same magazine.

12. The licensee and every person employed in or about the magazine shall take all due precaution for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion in the same, and for preventing unauthorized persons having access to the magazine or to the explosives therein, and shall abstain from any act whatever which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the purpose of the work in such magazine.

Provided that, in the case of any building or work above mentioned which is so screened from the Magazine by the natural features of the ground, or by good and sufficient artificial mounds of earth as not to be visible from any part of such Magazine, the distance assigned above as that to be observed between such building or work and the Magazine may be reduced by one-half.

Provided also that, in the case of any building or work above mentioned which is so screened from the Magazine by an intervening hill, that a line drawn from any part of such building or work to any part of such Magazine would pass through such hill, the distance assigned by this Schedule as that to be observed between such building and work and the Magazine may be reduced by three-fourths, subject nevertheless to a notification in writing from a Government Inspector, that in his judgment the intervening hill, in respect of which such reduction is claimed, is not of a character to justify such reduction, whereupon this proviso authorizing such reduction as aforesaid shall be deemed not to apply in respect of the said building or work.

(PRESCRIBED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.)

In any case where any of the items enumerated in column 1 of this Table is, in the opinion of an Inspector of Explosives, effectively screened from a magazine, either by the natural features of the ground or by good and substantial artificial mounds of earth or mine refuse of such height that a line drawn from any part of the magazine to any part of the item in question will pass through the intervening ground or mound, the distance from that item (except for quantities of 1,000 lbs. of explosives and under) will be reduced to one-half. Provided that when a natural hill so intervenes as to afford a degree of protection which, in the opinion of an Inspector of Explosives, justifies a further reduction, the distance shown in the Table will be reduced to one-quarter. In no case, however, is the distance from a Viceregal Residence to be less than one mile.
N.B.—The figures in small italics are distances to be observed when ordinary Gunpowder only is to be stored or other Explosives up to the equivalent of 5,000 lbs. of Gunpowder, every half pound of such other Explosive being reckoned as 1 lb. of Gunpowder.

(b) This rule applies to two or more magazines, on the same premises, belonging to the same occupier, or by mutual consent of the respective occupiers.

(c) Detonators may be kept in an annexe near to or adjoining a magazine under the following conditions:—

(1) The amount of explosives contained in the detonators must not exceed 100 lbs. reckoned in the proportion of not less than 24 lbs. of explosives per 1,000 detonators. (This proportion represents roughly about 44,000 detonators of "sextuple" strength; with detonators of greater strength the number would be of course less.)

(2) The detonator annexe must be so constructed that not less than 2 feet of masonry and 3 feet of air-space shall intervene between any detonators in such annexe and the interior of the main magazine.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 16th July 1903, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

It will be remembered that at the close of last week the barometer had fallen quickly over India and that conditions were once again becoming more favourable for the extension of monsoon rainfall over the country. This tendency to improved conditions has been maintained during the week under review. On the 10th rain was practically confined to the west coast, the Burma coast and part of north-east India, on the 11th there occurred a slight extension of rainfall into the central districts and on the 12th and 13th rain extended over the greater part of the country. This fairly general rainfall has been maintained up to the close of the week, and the only areas in which the fall has been still delayed or is still only partial are parts of the Gangetic Plain, of the Himalayas, of the Central India Plateau and of Gujarat. The daily weather charts of the 14th, 15th and 16th showed that a slight cyclonic storm lay over Kathiawar and that a couple of cyclonic storms were passing from the head of the Bay into central or upper India, so that at the close of the week the general conditions were favourable for the continuance of rain over the greater part of the country.

The Bay of Bengal monsoon current has been somewhat interrupted in its flow inland by the formation of the two storms mentioned above, so that, while Burma coast has received steady daily rain, north-east India has recorded more or less scattered and partial rainfall. Thus, while Tavoy in Tenasserim received 18·37" during the week, Cherra Poonjee received 21·33" on the 10th and practically nothing during the remainder of the week.

The Bombay or Arabian Sea monsoon current has been strong. At first the rainfall from this source was confined to the coast, but rain commenced to extend inland on the 11th, and by the close of the week showers were received over nearly the whole area fed by this current. Towards the close of the week a storm formed over the north of the Arabian Sea and drifted into Kathiawar causing very strong winds along the north Bombay coast. During the week Calicut received 13·37", Ratnagiri 24·54", Veraval 8·07" and Dwarka 13·14" of rain.

The week's rainfall exceeded the normal on the Burma coast, the Brahmaputra valley, and in the Burdwan, Waltair, Cuttack, Raipur, Calicut, Bombay, Rajkot, Bijapur, Hyderabad, Mysore and Madura subdivisions. The excess amounted to 10·49" in the Bombay, to 5·81" in the Calicut, to 2·30" in the Cuttack and to 1·73" in the Burdwan subdivisions. In other parts of the country the rainfall remained light and the deficiency exceeded 1" in the Narayanganj, Patna, Simla, Ludhiana, Cawnpore, Jubbulpore, Jhansi and Ahmedabad subdivisions.

The condition of the seasonal rainfall has been improved in some parts of the country by the rainfall of the past week, but there is still considerable deficiency in Patna (—75%); Simla (—59%); Ludhiana (—71%); Cawnpore (—81%); Lahore (—76%); Jhansi (—72%); Jaipur (—54%); Ahmedabad (—79%); and Rajkot (—57%).

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday,
11th July 1903.

Madras.—The rainfall has been good in the West Coast, parts of the Deccan, the Carnatic and light to fair elsewhere. Water for irrigation is generally sufficient. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue generally. The standing crops are generally in fair condition. Pasture is sufficient and fodder is procurable. Prices are almost stationary.

Bombay.—Heavy rain fell during the week in parts of the Konkan and Surat. The rainfall was good in parts of Kaira, the Deccan and Belgaum, moderate in parts of Ahmedabad, Broach and Baroda and slight in parts of Larkana, the Panch Mahals, Dharwar, the Upper Sindh Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Bijapur, Rajkot and Wadhwan. More rain is needed in parts of Thar and Parkar, Ahmedabad, Broach, Nasik, Poona, Sholapur and the Carnatic. Seedlings have been damaged by locusts in parts of Sukkur, Larkana, the Panch Mahals and Thana and by insects in parts of the Upper Sindh Frontier and Bijapur. They are suffering from insufficient water-supply in parts of Larkana and are generally in good condition elsewhere. The preparation of lands for the autumn cultivation continues in parts of Ahmedabad, Rajkot and Wadhwan. Sowing has been completed in Thana, almost over in Ratnagiri and is in progress in parts of Sindh, Gujarat, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Poona, Satara, Sholapur, the Carnatic and Kanara. It is being retarded for want of moisture in parts of the Carnatic. Transplantation has been commenced in parts of Surat, Nasik, Poona and Baroda, is progressing in parts of Sindh, the Konkan, Satara and Kanara, but is being retarded for want of sufficient moisture in parts of Karachi, Sukkur and Poona. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of Larkana and the Upper Sindh Frontier. Agricultural stock is in good condition and generally sufficient. The water-supply is deficient in parts of Baroda and in some canals in Sindh. Prices have fallen in three districts, have risen in two and are stationary elsewhere.

Bengal.—The rainfall continued to be general and was heavy in parts of North and East Bengal, but lighter in other parts of the province where more rain is required. The transplantation of winter rice continues. Early rice and jute generally are doing well. In some places in Bihar were visited by locusts, but the injury done was generally slight. Prospects are fair. Fodder and water generally are sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in thirteen districts, has fallen in three and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces.—Rain has fallen in thirty-six districts. Three inches were recorded in Naini Tal and two in Fyzabad, while Gorakhpur received 1 inch. Elsewhere the falls average from a few cents to half an inch. More rain is still urgently required for sugarcane and extra crops which are suffering and for sowings of autumn crops which are being stopped in parts for want of it. Irrigation is in progress where possible. Locusts appeared in eight districts and did slight damage to standing crops in Almora, Agra, Azamgarh, Benares and Gorakhpur. Supplies are adequate, but fodder is said to be scarce in ten districts. Prices continue to rise.

Punjab.—Good rain has fallen at the Rawalpindi sadar station. Slight falls are reported from Hissar and parts of the Delhi, Umballa, Jullundur, Ferozepore, Lahore, Sialkot, Shahpur and Mooltan districts. The harvesting of extra spring crops has commenced in Mianwali and is nearly completed in the Amritsar district. Sowings of autumn crops continue on irrigated lands. Rain is urgently wanted throughout the province. The condition and prospects of standing crops on irrigated lands generally are good. The outturn of extra spring crops is below the average in Lahore. Crops on unirrigated lands are withering for want of rain in Sialkot. The extra spring crops have been slightly damaged by hail in parts of Mianwali. Locusts appeared in Mooltan, but did no damage. Cattle are generally in good condition and fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts except in Umballa and parts of the Hissar, Shahpur, Mianwali and Mooltan districts. The price of wheat is rising in Hissar, Delhi, Umballa, Amritsar and Shahpur, but is falling in the Jullundur, Rawalpindi and Mianwali districts. The price of other food-grains are fluctuating.

North-West Frontier Province.—Heavy rain fell in Peshawar and Hazara and slight showers elsewhere. More rain is required everywhere. The prospects of the standing autumn crops are average. Flood irrigation continues favourable in Dera Ismail Khan, but rivers are running low. Fodder is ample and cattle are in good condition. The prices of food-grains are rising slightly in Peshawar, but are falling in Dera Ismail Khan.

Burma.—The rainfall was heavy in the Arakan and Tenasserim divisions and in Toungoo and Henzada, scanty in the dry zone tract and fair elsewhere. Ploughing and sowing for wet-weather paddy are progressing and transplanting has commenced in parts of Thongwa, the Ruby Mines district, Kyaukse and the Southern Shan States. The reaping of dry-weather paddy is still going on in three districts. Sowing of early sesamum is approaching completion and reaping is finished in the Myitha township of Kyaukse. The sowing of ground nuts in Magwe and juar in Myingyan has begun. The sesamum and cotton crops in Meiktila are withering for want of rain. More rain is needed in six other districts. In Myingyan the condition of the sesamum and cotton plants has improved with recent rain. Crop prospects on the whole are fair. The price of paddy is practically stationary, slight changes only being reported from three districts.

Central Provinces.—Light to moderately heavy rain has fallen during the week throughout the Provinces. The heaviest falls which were in Raipur and Balaghat exceeded 4 inches. Good rain also fell in Chhatisgarh, the Nagpur country and the plateau districts, but more rain is urgently required in the Nerbudda Valley and in Saugar and Damoh. The monsoon rainfall is everywhere considerably in defect. The sowings of cotton have almost been completed in the Nagpur country and germination is good. Sowings of other autumn crops are busily in progress. Fodder and water are sufficient. Grass-hoppers still exist in the Nimar district and have also appeared in the Damoh and Balaghat districts. Prices have fluctuated slightly. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are:—wheat, 18; gram, 24; rice, 15; and juar, 30. The highest prices are:—wheat, 11; gram, 12; rice, 8; and juar, 17½. The numbers on famine relief were as follows:—Relief workers—Public Works Department—Raipur—adults, 7,217; children, 1,167; total, 8,384. Road construction and repairs—Bilaspur—adults, 480. Gratuitous relief—otherwise relieved—Raipur—adults, 8,698; children, 2,177; total, 10,875. Bilaspur—adults, 997; children, 253; total, 1,250. Bhandara—adults, 1,283; children, 109; total, 1,392. Minor irrigation grant-in-aid works—Bilaspur—adults, 596; children, 65; total, 661. Total on all forms of relief, 24,421. The number of Public Works Department camps open is 13.

Assam.—Heavy rain fell in the Khasi, Jaintia and the Garo Hills. Slight to moderate rain fell elsewhere. More rain is wanted in the Naga Hills and Manipur. Ploughing for, and sowing and transplanting of late rice, sowing of early rice, and plucking and manufacture of tea and cutting of jute are in progress. Early rice is being reaped in places. The outturn of tea is short in Cachar owing to excessive rain, good in Lakimpur and is fair elsewhere. Blight is still prevalent in Darrang. The prospects of sugarcane are good in Cachar and fair elsewhere. The prospects of early rice are good in Sylhet, Goalpara and the Garo Hills, poor in Kamrup and Manipur and are fair in other places. Some damage has been caused by floods on low lands in Goalpara. Jute has been damaged by insects in parts of Goalpara. Prospects are good in Sylhet and fair in the Garo Hills. Fodder is insufficient in parts of Sylhet and Kamrup. Prices—common rice—Silchar, 14; Tezpur, 13; Sylhet, Dhubri and Gauhati, 12; Sibsagar, 11; and Nowgong and Dibrugarh, 10 seers per rupee.

Mysore.—Fourteen cents of rain fell in the Civil and Military station. The rainfall was good throughout the province. General prospects are good. Prices have risen slightly in two districts. Cattle are healthy except in parts of Hassan. Water and fodder are sufficient.

Coorg.—Rainfall—15 inches and 94 cents. Transplanting of rice has commenced in parts. Prices of food-grains are stationary. Water and fodder are ample.

Hyderabad.—The rainfall during the week was 1 inch and 75 cents. Nine inches of rain fell in Warrangal on the 12th and 2 inches and 50 cents on the 11th, whereby damage has been caused to houses and tanks. Autumn sowings continue throughout and in few talukas are nearing completion. In three talukas sprouts require rain urgently. Early rice sowings are in progress and lands are being prepared for more sowings. The week's rainfall has augmented the supply of water in tanks. Lands are also being prepared for the spring sowings in a few talukas. Prices:—Wheat, $9\frac{1}{4}$; rice, $8\frac{1}{4}$; and juar, $27\frac{1}{4}$ seers per halli rupee.

Berar.—The average rainfall during the week was 1 inch and 92 cents. The weather is warm and cloudy. Cotton has germinated in parts of four districts. The preparation of land for the monsoon crops is nearing completion. Sowings of cotton and juar are in progress. Fodder is sufficient. Water is sufficient except in parts of the Jalgaon talug. The price of juar shows a tendency to fall in parts of three districts, but is otherwise stationary.

Rajputana.—Rainfall in cents:—Bikaner, 22; Marwar, 25; Mewar, 40; Kherwara, 202; Deoli, 5; Tonk, 37; Bundi, 163; Jaipur, 49; Kotah, 97; Jhalawar, 81; Bharatpur, 27; Karauli, 23; Dholpur, 130; and Ajmer-Merwara, 6. Showers fell in Jaisalmer and parts of Alwar. The preparation of land for autumn sowings is in progress. The condition of cattle generally is good. Fodder is sufficient. The cheapest price was—Bundi, $38\frac{7}{10}$ seers and the highest price was—Bikaner, $13\frac{1}{2}$ to 17 seers the rupee.

Central India.—The rainfall was general in Indore, Bhopal, Baghelkhand and Bhopawar, partial in Gwalior, Bundelkhand and Malwa, sufficient in Indore, Bhopal and parts of Gwalior, but was insufficient elsewhere. Agricultural operations are in progress in Gwalior, Bhopal, Bundelkhand, Malwa, Bhopawar and Indore. They have not been commenced in Baghelkhand. Crops are fair in Bhopal. Slight damage has been caused by locusts to germinated seed in Dhar and to leaves of trees in other states of the Bhopawar Agency. Agricultural stock and pasturage generally are good. Prices are steady in Gwalior and parts of Bhopawar, normal in Bhopal, Bundelkhand, Baghelkhand and Indore, low in Malwa and are rising slightly in Dhar.

Kashmir.—The weather is partly bright and partly cloudy and rainy. Prices are a little higher than usual. JAMMU:—The rainfall was slight. The condition of the standing crops is fair. Fodder generally is sufficient in all parts of the province except in certain tracts. Rain is badly wanted. Autumn sowings have been commenced on irrigated areas, but are being delayed in unirrigated tracts for want of rain. Prices are fluctuating. Wheat sells from 13 to 26 and maize from 16 to 36 seers the rupee.

Nepal.—Rainfall—3.30 inches. The weather is again seasonable, and owing to the good rainfall transplanting of paddy has been resumed. Upland crops are in good condition. The price of rice is $7\frac{1}{4}$ seers for the rupee.

Customs Circular No. XVII of 1903.

No. 3958-S.R., dated the 9th July, 1903.

From—R. A. MANT, Esq., Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 537-T. F., dated the 21st May 1903, asking for a ruling on the question whether certain portions of ice-making plant, namely, ice moulds, water tanks, ammonia coils, ammonia valves and pipe fittings, should be regarded as component parts of machinery, and be passed free of import duty. It is stated that although these articles are necessary to ice machinery worked by steam power, they can be and are also used with the Simple Ice Machines as well as for purposes quite apart from ice machinery.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Government of India are of opinion that when these articles are imported with, and as essential component parts of, a complete ice machine worked by steam or other non-animal power, they may be admitted free of duty. When they are imported under any other conditions, duty should be charged. The Government of India agree in the view expressed in paragraph 3 of the Board of Revenue's letter of 11th May 1903 that the use of steam as a mere heating agent, and not as a motive power, does not constitute the apparatus, in which it is used, a prime-mover within the meaning of Article 14 of Schedule IV to the Indian Tariff Act, 1894 (VIII of 1894).

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 23rd July 1903, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

During the past week the pressure has been steadily lower than usual over Lower Bengal and the head of the Bay, where a series of small shallow storms had formed, and over the Indus Valley and the north-west dry area. At the same time pressure has been normal or higher than usual over the south of the Bay and of the Peninsula, so that pressure differences have been greater than usual and a fairly strong monsoon has been determined to northern India.

The Bay of Bengal monsoon was light and irregular on the 17th, when, with the exception of local heavy showers at Tavoy (3'16"), Mergui (2'60") and Silchar (3'15"), the rainfall over Burma and north-east India was generally light and scattered. Similar conditions prevailed on the 18th, but on the 19th a storm was shown over Orissa and a general easterly wind carried rain up the Gangetic plain, whence Gorakhpur reported 4'06", Bareilly 2'49", Allahabad 2'00" and Lucknow 3'41", while Gopalpur to the south of the storm reported 3'14". On the 20th rain had fallen off somewhat over the Gangetic plain, though Lucknow reported over 5'00", but had become more general over Bengal, Assam and Burma, whence Moulmein reported 3'00" and Cherra Poonjee 4'09". The reports for the 21st showed that general rain continued to fall over Burma and north-east India with amounts varying between 2'00" and 3'00" at several stations, but on the 22nd and 23rd rain fell off very considerably in this area and, except along the Burma coast, no heavy rain was reported.

The Arabian Sea monsoon has been generally light along the west coast of the Peninsula, and, though rainfall amounts exceeding 2'00" were reported in this region on the 17th, the amounts quickly diminished and from the 19th to the close of the week the rainfall was only moderate on the coast and very light inland. On the north Bombay coast, on the contrary, there has been a strong flow of monsoon winds and during the week rain has steadily increased over Gujarat, Sind, the Central India plateau, the Central Provinces and north-west India. On the 17th and 18th well distributed rain measuring about 1'00" in twenty-four hours was received over these areas. On the 19th the fall increased about 3'00" falling at Ahmedabad and Deesa, Chakrata and Mussooree and falls of about 1'00" in such dry districts as Bikanir and Sind. On the 20th Jodhpur and Dwarka received over 3'00", the north west Himalayas between 2'00" and 3'00", and practically the whole of central and north-west India more or less rain. These favourable conditions continued on the 21st, when the principal falls were 6'16" at Chakrata, 2'07" at Mooltan and 2'00" to 4'00" all over Gujarat and southern Rajputana. During the last two days of the week the fall became much lighter over Gujarat, but moderately heavy rain continued over north-west and central India.

The rainfall table shows that the week's fall has exceeded the normal over the Burma coast, the west Himalayas, the west Gangetic Plain, the north-west dry area, the north of the east coast, the Central India plateau, Gujarat, the west Satpuras and over the Darbhanga, Bahraich, Bellary and Bijapur subdivisions, while it has been lighter than usual elsewhere. The excess has been greatest and more than 4'00" in the Ahmedabad and Simla subdivisions, more than 3'00" in the Ludhiana and Rajkot subdivisions and more than 2'00" in the Jaipur subdivision, while the deficiency has been greatest and more than 3'00" in the Bombay subdivision, more than 2'00" in the Jubbulpore subdivision and more than 1'00" in Bengal, the Brahmaputra Valley and the Burdwan subdivision.

The condition of the seasonal rainfall has been greatly improved by the week's rainfall and the only areas where the seasonal rainfall is more than 50% in defect are the Patna subdivision (—68%), the Cawnpore subdivision (—54%), the Lahore subdivision (—51%) and the Jhansi subdivision (—58%).

Madras.—The rainfall has been heavy in the West Coast, the hills and the Circars, but only light to fair elsewhere. Water for irrigation is generally sufficient. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue generally. Standing crops are generally in a fair condition. Pasture is sufficient and fodder is procurable. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are almost stationary.

Bombay.—Heavy rain fell during the week in parts of Broach, Surat, the Konkan, Nasik, Poona, Satara, Belgaum and Rajkot, good in parts of Karachi, Thar and Parkar, Ahmedabad, the Panch Mahals, Kaira, Khandesh and Baroda, moderate in parts of Sukkur, Larkana, Hyderabad, the Upper Sindh Frontier, Dharwar and Wadhwan and slight in parts of Ahmednagar, Sholapur and Bijapur. More rain is needed in parts of Ahmedabad, Surat, Khandesh, Sholapur and the Carnatic. Seedlings have been damaged by insects in parts of the Upper Sindh Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Nasik and Bijapur, but are generally in good condition elsewhere. Sowing has commenced in parts of the Panch Mahals, Broach and Baroda and is progressing in parts of Sindh, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Surat, the Deccan, the Carnatic, Ratnagiri, Kanara, Rajkot and Wadhwan and has been retarded for want of rain in parts of Bijapur. Transplantation has commenced in parts of Poona and is progressing in parts of Sindh, Surat, the Konkan, Nasik and Satara. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of Larkana and the Upper Sindh Frontier. Agricultural stock is in good condition and is generally sufficient. Water is deficient in some canals in Sindh. Prices have fallen in five districts, have risen in three and are stationary elsewhere.

Bengal.—The rainfall was general throughout the province, the fall being heavy in the Orissa division. More rain is wanted in the Burdwan and Patna divisions and in some districts of the Presidency, Bhagalpur and Chota Nagpur divisions and also in the district of Chittagong. The prospects of the standing crops generally are good. The harvesting of early rice and jute has commenced in places. Transplantation of winter rice continues. The early autumn crop is being damaged by insects in Saran and Malda. Cattle-disease is reported from eight districts. Fodder and water are generally sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in ten districts, has fallen in eight and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces.—Rain has fallen throughout the Provinces with the exception of Ghazipur and has greatly benefited the standing crops. Dehra Dûn, Gonda and Jhansi each received over 3 inches; Meerut, Sitapur, Kheri, Partabgarh, Fyzabad, Ballia and Jalaun 2 inches and fourteen other districts over 1 inch. The sowing of the autumn crops has recommenced in twenty-three districts where the rainfall has been sufficient. Irrigation continues where necessary. Locusts appeared in Aligarh, Agra and Rae Bareilly, but did no damage. Supplies are ample, but fodder is reported to be scarce in eight districts. Prices are stationary or rising slightly.

Punjab.—Good rain has fallen in all districts except at Mianwali. The harvesting of extra spring crops is nearly over in Amritsar, but still continues in the Mianwali district. The Indus is rising, while the Swat and Kabul rivers are running low. Fodder is abundant. The condition of cattle is good. Stocks of food-grains are ample. Prices are stationary both in Peshawar and Dera Ismail Khan.

Ploughing and sowing for wet-weather paddy are making steady progress and transplanting has begun in eight more districts. Reaping of dry-weather paddy is completed in the Myittha township of the Kyaukse district and still continues in parts of Pakokku and Lower Chindwin. Ploughing for juar in Mandalay and reaping of early sesamum in the Kyaukse township of the Kyaukse district have commenced. Ploughing for maize in Sagaing is at a standstill for want of rain. In the Singaing township of Kyaukse early wet-weather paddy has withered, owing to lack of water from the Minhla tank. Nurseries in Shwebo are drying in parts, owing to absence of rain. The standing sesamum and cotton crops are recovering in Meiktila owing to recent rain. The condition of crops is good in places and fair in others. The price of paddy is stationary except for seven centres where slight changes have occurred.

3 COUNCIL HOUSE STREET ;
Calcutta, the 30th July 1903.

THE HONOURABLE THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF AJMER-MERWARA.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Abu, the 23rd July 1903.

No. 870—89-II.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 8, sub-section (3), of the Reformatory Schools Act (VIII of 1897), the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara is pleased to make the following rule regulating the periods for which youthful offenders may be sent to the Reformatory School :—

Period for which he may be sent to the Reformatory School.

- | | |
|--|---|
| (1) If the offender is found by the Court or Magistrate to have attained, at the date of his conviction, an age which is less than ten years | Seven years. |
| (2) If he is found to have then attained the age of ten years or an age which exceeds ten years | Not less than five but not more than seven years, unless he would sooner attain the age of eighteen years and in such last mentioned case a period equal to the difference between eighteen years and the age he is found to have attained. |

No. 872—89-II.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 8, sub-section (3), of the Reformatory Schools Act (VIII of 1897), the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara is pleased to make the following rules, defining what youthful offenders should be sent to the Reformatory School :—

- (1) The most proper subjects for reformatory treatment are those who are without proper parental or other control and who have committed an offence or offences against property.
- (2) As a rule, no boy should be sent to a Reformatory School on a first conviction unless there is reasonable cause for supposing that he is being trained up to or likely again to lapse into crime.
- (3) As a rule, it is not desirable to send boys to a Reformatory School before they have completed their ninth or after they have completed their fourteenth year of age.
- (4) No boy belonging to any of the under-mentioned tribes should be sent to a Reformatory School :—

Aherias	Doms.
Baoria.	Haburas.
Barwars.	Kanjars.
Bauriahs.	Moghias
Beriahs	Nats.
Bhats.	Sanaurias.
Bhatus.	Sansis.
Bhils.	San-iahs.
Daleras	Satias.

Other boys who appear to be habitual offenders should be sent (if at all) at an early stage in their career, being less amenable to reforming influences as they approach the age of 15.

- (5) No boy should be sent to a Reformatory School who has been convicted of an unnatural offence, or whose antecedents afford reasonable grounds for assuming habitual immorality.
- (6) A youthful offender convicted of murder should not ordinarily be sent to a Reformatory School.

No. 874—89-II—Whereas the Reformatory Schools Act V of 1876 was repealed by Act No. VIII of 1897, which has introduced many important changes in administration and procedure, it is advisable to point out, for the information and guidance of Courts and Magistrates, the alterations that have been effected in the law. It is necessary also to exercise the power of making rules conferred on Local Governments by section 8 of Act No. VIII of 1897.

2. The first section of the new Act requiring notice is section 4, clause (a), the effect of which is to reduce by one year the maximum age at which a youthful offender can be sent to a Reformatory School on conviction and sentence by a Court. A boy must now be under the age of 15 years at time of conviction instead of under the age of 16 years as formerly. The new age limit will also regulate the action of an officer in charge of a prison who may desire to bring a youthful offender confined therein before a Magistrate with a view to his transfer to a Reformatory School. In consequence of this alteration, the minimum period of detention of a youthful offender in a Reformatory School has been raised to three years (section 8, sub-section (1)); it formerly stood at two.

3. Under the repealed Act, outside Presidency towns, the power of sending youthful offenders to a Reformatory School could be exercised by any Magistrate of the first class. By the new Act (section 8, sub-section (2)) the power is conferred on District Magistrates and on Magistrates specially empowered by the Local Government, and the power may now be exercised whether the case comes before the Court originally or on appeal. Owing to the restriction of the power of sending youthful offenders to a Reformatory School, to Magistrates of the first class specially authorised by Government, provision has been made in a new section (9) for the submission of proceedings to the District Magistrate in cases where a Magistrate not specially authorised considers that a youthful offender should be sent to a Reformatory School. The procedure is very similar to that prescribed in section 349, Criminal Procedure Code, which is ordinarily adopted to secure a punishment of whipping on conviction by a Magistrate not competent to pass such a sentence. Previous to submitting his proceedings to the District Magistrate, a Subordinate Magistrate not empowered to send a youthful offender to a Reformatory School is required by section 11, sub-section (2), to record, after enquiry, a finding as to the age of the boy before him. District Magistrates should take steps to ensure that the power conferred by section 9 is exercised by Subordinate Magistrates in all cases where such action is suitable.

4. Sub-section (3) of section 8 permits the Local Government to make rules—

- (1) defining what youthful offenders should be sent to Reformatory Schools, having regard to the nature of their offences and other considerations ; and
- (2) regulating the period for which youthful offenders may be sent to such schools according to their ages or other considerations.

5. In section 11 of the new Act it is made obligatory on a Court or Magistrate before sending a youthful offender to a Reformatory School to record, after due enquiry, on the very important matter of the boy's age, a finding which, under the provisions of section 16, is final. Section 11 provides for the taking of evidence, if necessary, on the point, which will enable Magistrates to record the evidence of the Civil Surgeon or in case of doubt in accordance with the practice at present prevailing. In view of the fact that the finding is not subject to appeal or revision and that the whole treatment of the boy is influenced primarily by his age, it is essential that the enquiry should be conducted with the greatest care and discrimination, in order that a correct decision may, so far as possible, be arrived at.

6. The Reformatory School at Chunar is appointed for the reception of youthful offenders directed by a Court or Magistrate to be sent to a Reformatory School. It has hitherto been the custom when the Reformatory School is full, to request Magistrates not to pass orders for the detention of boys in that institution. A different procedure will now be adopted in accordance with the provisions of section 12 of the Act :—

- (1) As soon as it appears to the Director of Public Instruction of the United Provinces that owing to the want of accommodation, boys should not, for the time being, be admitted to the Reformatory School, he will immediately give intimation to the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara, to the Commissioner and Sessions Judge, Ajmer, and the District Magistrates of Ajmer and Merwara, and to the Superintendent of the Ajmer Jail, reporting his action at the same time to the Government of the United Provinces.
- (2) Immediately that accommodation is again available, the Director of Public Instruction of the United Provinces will cancel his notice in a similar manner.
- (3) During the intervening period, Courts or Magistrates will, on passing an order that a youthful offender should be detained in a Reformatory School, send such youthful offender instead to jail to be confined (in accordance with the provisions of Chapter X of the Ajmer Jail Manual) for the term of his original sentence, unless he is previously removed to a Reformatory School.
- (4) The Superintendent of the Jail, in which such youthful offender is confined, shall give notice of the confinement to the Inspector-General of Prisons and to the Director of Public Instruction of the United Provinces.
- (5) If accommodation becomes available in the Reformatory School both for youthful offenders sent direct from the Courts and for those temporarily confined in prisons owing to the want of accommodation in the Reformatory School, the Director of Public Instruction of the United Provinces will inform the Inspector-General of Prisons and the Superintendent of the Ajmer Jail, who will transfer such youthful offenders to the Reformatory School. In view of the new procedure, the form of warrant may require alteration.

7. The principle embodied in section 13 of the Act that no person above the age of 18 years shall be detained in a Reformatory is not new, but a procedure has now been prescribed for dealing with cases in which after admission to the School a boy's age is found to have been under-stated in the order of detention. The Committee of visitors will report such cases for the orders of the Government of the United Provinces by whom the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara will be addressed when such cases relate to Ajmer-Merwara.

8. Under section 11 of the repealed Act, a youthful offender discharged by the Government from a Reformatory School before the expiration of his sentence, might be ordered to undergo the residue of his sentence at such place as the Government thought fit. This provision has been omitted from the new Act and a boy who has been detained in a Reformatory School cannot now be sent back to prison under any circumstances.

9 Part V of the Act, Miscellaneous, deals with several important matters. The provisions of Part IX of the Prisoners' Act III of 1900 by section 30 are applicable to youthful offenders detained in Reformatory Schools, while section 32 directs that when a youthful offender under detention in a Reformatory School is again convicted by a Criminal Court, the sentence shall commence at once. Such cases as the latter will, it is hoped, be rare; but Magistrates are requested to observe that the matter has to be forthwith reported to the Local Government.

10. Finally, the attention of all subordinate Courts is directed to the important provision, new to Indian Legislation, contained in section 31, which allows a Court empowered by or under section 8 to discharge a youthful offender (including in this case a girl) after due admonition, or to deliver the offender to a parent or guardian or nearest adult relative on such parent, guardian or relative executing a bond to be responsible for the good behaviour of the offender for a period not exceeding twelve months. This procedure has been found of great advantage in England and there can be little doubt that a discriminating exercise of the power now granted will in many cases be beneficial to the offender and will be much appreciated by the parent or guardian. When a Magistrate is not authorized to pass such an order, it will be his duty, if he considers such an order to be appropriate, to record his opinion and to submit his proceedings to the District Magistrate.

11. If it is no longer open to the Government to remand to Jail a boy who has been sent to a Reformatory School, but it has been ruled that the High Court has power to interfere in Appeal or Revision with an order for detention in a Reformatory School passed in substitution for transportation or imprisonment, when such order is made without jurisdiction and is not an order warranted by Act No. VIII of 1897 (Indian Law Reports, Allahabad, Volume XXI, page 391, sub date May 27th, 1899). Reference should invariably be made by the Magistrate to the rules on the subject before disposing of a case:—

(1) No person may be ordered to be detained in a Reformatory School unless—

- (a) he is a male,
- (b) he is under the age of 15 years,
- (c) he is convicted of an offence (as defined in the General Clauses Act, 1897, section 3) punishable with transportation or imprisonment,
- (d) he is actually sentenced to transportation or imprisonment, and
- (e) he is of a class declared by rules made by the Local Government under section 8, sub-section (3) to be suitable for reformatory treatment (vide Chief-Commissioner's Notification No. 872 - 89 II of this day's date).

(2) Before ordering detention in a Reformatory School, the Court must pass a substantive sentence of transportation or imprisonment, and such sentence should, in view of section 12, Act VIII of 1897, not be a nominal, but an adequate punishment for the offence. The Court has no power to direct detention in a Reformatory School either without a substantive sentence of transportation or imprisonment or in addition to such a sentence, but must order that the offender instead of undergoing the sentence imposed shall be detained in the Reformatory School.

(3) The period for which the Court may order the detention in a Reformatory School of youthful offenders admissible under the Act and rules must not be less than three years nor more than seven years. The following table shows the period of detention in the case of boys between the ages of 9 and 14 who alone should, as a rule (vide Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 870-89-II of this day's date), be sent to the Reformatory School:—

Age.	Period.
9 years	7 years.
10 years	Not less than 5 years and not more than 7.
11 years	Ditto ditto.
12 years	Not less than 5 years and not more than 6.
13 years	5 years.
14 years	4 years.

- (4) The Court is bound to record a finding as to the age of the youthful offender at the date of its order, and to direct him to be detained for a specified period which will expire on or before the date on which he will complete the age of eighteen years. It should not be left to the officer in charge of the Reformatory School to determine when the period of detention would expire otherwise than by a reference to the warrant.
- (5) Having passed the order for detention in a Reformatory School, the Court should fill up the appropriate form of warrant prescribed by the High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces, and applied by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner to Ajmer-Merwara.
- (6) The youthful offender should then (unless he has to be sent to the Ajmer Jail, owing to want of accommodation in the Reformatory School) be made over to the Magistrate of the District who should arrange for sending him with the necessary papers to the Reformatory School without allowing him to pass through the Jail. These papers are a copy of the judgment of the Criminal Court, together with a short history showing any crime for which the offender may have been previously punished, the position and character of his parents or guardians and any other facts known to the Police which might be useful in dealing with him.

By order,

A. B. MINCHIN, Captain,

First Assistant to the Governor-General's Agent, Rajputana, and Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

ARMY (ANNUAL) ACT, 1903.

[3 EDWARD VII, CHAPTER 4.]

An Act to provide, during Twelve Months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army.

[30TH APRIL, 1903.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by His Majesty and this present Parliament, that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of His Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of two hundred and thirty-five thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within His Majesty's Indian possessions :

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in His Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid :

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the government of His Majesty's forces by sea :

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm ; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert His Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

14 & 45 Vict.,
c. 58.

No. 3632-I.B.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 11 of the Hyderabad Residency Bazars and Cantonments Arms Law, 1903, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules:

RULES.

Transport, Import and Export.

1. No arms or ammunition or military stores shall be transported without a license in Form I appended to these rules. The license will be granted by the Resident or by an officer authorized by the Government of India or by the Resident to grant such license, as the case may be. If the articles are to be consigned to a place beyond the jurisdiction of the officer granting the license, the consent of the licensing officer of the place to which the consignment is made must be obtained before the license is issued. Such consent may be obtained by the person applying for the license, or the officer to whom application for the license is made may forward the proposed license to the officer whose consent is required; and on receiving reply may either issue the license to the applicant, or inform him that his application for a license to transport arms, etc., has been refused. The fee payable in respect of every such license shall be ten rupees.

2. Persons lawfully entitled to possess arms, or to go armed, are permitted to transport arms and ammunition in reasonable quantities for their own use. Any person abusing this exemption, and transporting such articles otherwise than in reasonable quantities for his own use, will be held to have contravened this rule, and will, on conviction, become liable to the penalties under sections 12 and 13 of the Hyderabad Residency Bazars and Cantonments Arms Law, 1903.

3. A person licensed to possess arms, ammunition, or military stores, or who is exempted from the liability to take out such a license, is entitled to transport to his residence from the premises of a licensed dealer, arms, ammunition, or military stores without a separate transport license, so long as the articles purchased are in reasonable quantity and for his own use. A licensed dealer in arms, ammunition, and military stores may supply the order of any such person, and may, without a separate transport license, send or despatch in any way desired to the residence of the purchaser the articles ordered by any such person so long as they fulfil the requirements of rule 2, and are legibly addressed to the person for whom they are intended.

4. A license to transport arms, or ammunition, or military stores is void if the consignment breaks bulk at any place short of the district for which it may be granted. A license to transport shall ordinarily not be made valid for more than twice the period actually required for the conveyance of the articles to their destination by the intended route.

5. No license shall be granted, save by the special order of the Governor General in Council, certified under the signature of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, for the importation of any rifles or parts of, or fittings for, rifles, except rifles or parts of, or fittings for, rifles of such quality or in such quantity as may reasonably be held to be intended for bonâ fide sporting purposes.

NOTE.—No such licenses will be granted for the importation of any rifles of 303 bore or rifles of 450 bore of the Martini-Henri pattern.

6. Licenses to import arms (other than arms for which the Governor General in Council is to issue licenses under rule 5), ammunition, or military stores may be granted by the Resident or by an officer authorized by the Government of India or by the Resident. The fee payable in respect of each such license shall be rupees five; but officers granting such licenses are empowered to remit the fee when the arms, ammunition, or military stores are of a reasonable quantity, and such officers are satisfied that they are required bonâ fide for purposes of protection of person or property. In the case of arms, ammunition or military stores imported from any other part of the territories of His Highness the Nizam, or from any other Native State, a copy of the license shall be sent by the officer granting it to the First Assistant to the Resident.

The license shall be prepared in Form II appended to these rules.

7. Licenses to export arms, or ammunition, or military stores to any place in India, but not in British India, may be granted by the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, or by the Resident or by an officer authorised by the Government of India or by the Resident.

Licenses granted under this rule will be prepared in Form III and be charged with a fee of rupees five, except in such cases as the Government of India in the Foreign Department or the Resident may grant exemption from, or reduction of, the prescribed fee.

Copies of such licenses shall be sent on the day of issue to the Resident and to the Political Officer of the State to which the articles are to be exported.

8. Persons desirous of transporting, importing, or exporting arms, ammunition, or military stores must apply in writing to the nearest officer authorised to grant a license. The application must specify—

- (a) the place to which the articles are to be transported, imported, or exported; the route of transport, import, or export; and the probable time that will be occupied in the journey;
- (b) the quantity, description, average price, and the purpose of each kind of arms or ammunition; or
- (c) in the case of transport, or export, whether the applicant has obtained the consent of a Magistrate or Police officer at the place of consignment, the evidence of such consent being produced with the application.

9. Persons transporting, importing, or exporting arms, ammunition, or military stores under a license must write legibly on the cases or packages containing such articles an account of their contents.

10. In the case of transport, or import, the consignee must, within six days of the articles reaching their destination, deliver the transport, or import license to the Superintendent, Residency Bazars, or the Cantonment Magistrate, as the case may be.

11. The officer to whom the transport, import, or export license, as the case may be, may be delivered under rule 10 must satisfy himself that the articles correspond with the entries in the license, and that any deficiency is properly accounted for.

Manufacture and Sale.

12. Licenses to manufacture, convert, keep, and sell arms, or ammunition, or military stores may be granted by the Superintendent, Residency Bazars, or the Cantonment Magistrate, as the case may be in Forms IV and V appended to these rules. But licenses to manufacture, convert, keep or sell, or keep for sale, breach-loading rifles, rifle ammunition, or military stores for rifles may be granted only by the Resident in Form IV-B or V-B so appended. The Resident may under this rule grant licenses to selected dealers to hold a certain amount of ammunition for rifles of '303 bore, or rifles of '450 bore of the Martini-Henri pattern, on the condition that the license-holders shall not sell from this stock to any person who does not hold a license to possess any such ammunition. The fee, payable in stamps, shall be twenty rupees in respect of licenses to manufacture, convert and sell, and ten rupees in respect of licenses to keep and sell arms, ammunition, and military stores. Every license-holder under this rule shall keep, in such form as the Resident may direct, registers of all arms manufactured or converted, of all ammunition and military stores manufactured, of all stock in hand, and of all sales. He shall exhibit his stock and his registers on demand by any Magistrate or by any Police officer not below the rank of Inspector. Magistrates and all Police officers not below the rank of Inspector are hereby empowered to enter and inspect any premises within their several jurisdictions in which arms, or ammunition, or sulphur are or is manufactured or kept, and to examine the stock and accounts of receipts and sales of arms, ammunition, or military stores. Any person licensed to sell arms and ammunition shall affix on a conspicuous part of his shop or usual place of business a sign-board, on which shall be painted in large letters in English or in the vernacular his name and the words "Licensed to manufacture (or, as the case may be, "Licensed to deal in") arms, ammunition, and military stores" He shall also post up in his shop a copy of section 16 of the Hyderabad Residency Bazars and Cantonments Arms Law, 1903, either in the vernacular or in English.

Possession of arms, and going armed.

13. Licenses to possess cannon shall not be granted, save under the special order of the Governor General in Council, certified under the signature of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department. A copy of such license, so certified, must be sent immediately on its issue to the Magistrate of the place where the cannon is to be kept.

14. Licenses to possess arms and ammunition in reasonable quantities and to go armed for purpose of sport or protection or of display may be granted by the Resident, or by an officer authorised by the Government of India or by the Resident, in Form VI appended to these rules. Such a license shall be liable to a fee of four annas for each weapon, and will authorise its holder to carry the arms described in it on occasions when they may be reasonably required for the purposes named therein. But the holder, unless specially authorised by the licensing officer, must not go armed to fairs, religious processions, or other public assemblages. Licenses granted under this rule shall, on countersignature by the First Assistant Resident, or other officer authorised by the Resident, be valid throughout the Hyderabad Residency Bazars, the Cantonment of Secunderabad and the Contingent Stations of Aurangabad and Bolarum.

15. Licenses for the possession of reasonable quantities of ball ammunition which can be fired from rifles of the '303 bore or rifles of the '450 bore of the Martini-Henri pattern shall be granted by the Resident, or by an officer authorised by the Government of India or by the Resident, in the said Form VI. Such licenses shall be granted on application to any person lawfully in possession for sporting purposes of a rifle of the '303 bore or a rifle of the '450 bore of the Martini-Henri pattern, and shall state the amount of such ball ammunition which he may possess in the following twelve months. Duly licensed dealers shall be allowed to import their ball ammunition up to the quantity stated in their licenses. Upon every license produced in support of an application for leave to import, the quantity of ammunition to import which leave was given, and the date of giving it, shall be endorsed by the authority by whom leave was granted.

16. The Resident or an officer authorised by the Resident may grant a license in Form VII appended to these rules for a journey, specifying the direction of the journey and the period it will occupy. Such a license shall be valid in other jurisdictions only for such journey and for such period, and will be liable to a fee of four annas for each weapon. Holders of such licenses, unless specially authorised by the officer granting them, must not go armed to fairs, religious processions, or other public assemblages. When an officer receives an application for such a license in Form VII from a person who is not resident within his jurisdiction or is not personally known to him, he shall before granting the license ascertain from the Magistrate of the place in which the applicant resides whether there is any objection to the grant of the license, unless, for reasons to be recorded, he considers this precaution to be clearly unnecessary.

17. Licenses simply to possess fire-arms or ammunition or military stores may be granted in Form VIII appended to these rules, and shall be valid for five years without fee. Such licenses will not authorise the holders to go armed or to carry arms.

18. Licenses for possession of arms and ammunition may be granted in Form IX appended to these rules, without fee and for a term of five years, to persons who require arms for the destruction of wild animals which do injury to human beings, cattle, or crops. Such a license will be valid only in or on the immediate confines of the area for which it is granted. It will be subject to the conditions that the license and the weapon it covers is shown once a year, between the 15th November and the 31st December, to the nearest Magistrate; that the weapon becomes confiscated to Government directly it is sold or seized in execution of any debt; and that the weapon is carried only on occasions when it is to be used bonâ fide for the destruction of wild animals. Holders of such licenses must not go armed to fairs, religious processions, or other public assemblages.

19. Licenses may be granted, in Form X appended to these rules, to cultivators, contractors, and other persons, without payment of any fee, entitling the holders to possess and transport gunpowder and fuses, and to transport dynamite, blasting gelatine and detonating caps, in reasonable quantities when the same are proved to the satisfaction of the officer granting the licenses, to be required bonâ fide, for blasting purposes.

20. Licenses for the importation, possession, or transport of sulphur, proved to the satisfaction of the Resident to be intended only for bonâ fide medicinal, manufacturing, or agricultural purposes, may be granted without payment of any fee. This concession does not extend to sulphur intended for the manufacture of gunpowder or of ammunition.

21. The Superintendent, Residency Bazars, and the Cantonment Magistrate of Secunderabad, as the case may be, are authorized to suspend, under the orders of the Resident, the operations of the Hyderabad Residency Bazars and Cantonments Arms Law, 1903, and of the notifications and rules thereunder, for such period as may be considered necessary or as the Resident may fix.

NOTE.—The authority to suspend is necessary on the occasion of a religious festival or procession, or, when the Residency Bazars and the Cantonment of Secunderabad are used as thoroughfares from the City of Hyderabad to places of pilgrimage or religious resort beyond the city.

General.

22. The fees leviable under these rules shall be taken in the shape of impressed stamps. Ordinarily the applications for licenses or renewals of licenses shall be written on impressed stamps of value equal to the amount of fee leviable in respect of such licenses or renewals; and the licenses will be issued on plain paper. But when the licenses themselves are written or printed on impressed stamps, the applications may be on plain paper. When an application for a license is written on an impressed stamp, and the license is refused, the value of the stamp shall be refunded to the applicant.

23. Applications for licenses in respect of which no fee is leviable, or regarding licenses on which the full fee has been paid, shall be considered to be applicable within the meaning of schedule II, article I, clause (a), of the Court-fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), and shall bear a court-fee stamp of one anna.

24. All licenses under rules 12 and 14 shall expire on the 31st December of the year for which they may be issued; licenses under rule 18 shall expire on the 31st December of the fifth year of their currency. But the currency of a license may be renewed, previous to its expiration, on payment of a second fee, by the same authority that granted it.

25. When a license granted in accordance with these rules is lost or accidentally destroyed, a duplicate may be granted to the licensee on payment of the same fee as he paid on the original license if not in excess of one rupee, and in any other case on payment of a fee of one rupee. Cultivators or other persons to whom licenses may have been granted without payment of any fee may obtain duplicates of such licenses if lost or destroyed free of all fee.

26. All licenses shall be given and held subject to the conditions endorsed on the reverse, and subject to these rules and the provisions of the Hyderabad Residency Bazars and Cantonments Arms Law, 1903. Licenses under rules 14 and 17 may be granted subject to the observance of a close season in the pursuit of game-birds or animals that do not injure either men or cattle or crops. The limits of the close season will be decided by the Resident, and the condition regarding such close season, if imposed, shall be endorsed on the reverse of the license.

27. Any person holding a license, or acting under a license granted in accordance with these rules, shall be bound to produce the same when called upon to do so by any Magistrate, or by any Police officer in charge of a police station, or by any Police officer of higher rank.

28. Licenses shall be written or printed in English.

29. A license granted under these rules will cover only the weapons or other articles and the persons named therein, unless the officer granting a license under rule 14 or rule 15 deems it expedient to include the retainers of any person named in the license: in which case the entry on the face of the license shall declare how many, and whose, retainers are covered by the license.

30. Any officer empowered to grant a license under these rules may at his discretion refuse to grant, to renew, or to consent to the issue of a license, or may refer any application for the orders of the Resident.

31. All Magistrates or other authorities acting under these rules will perform their duties subject to the control of their executive superior and of the Resident.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 30th July 1903, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The principal feature of the weather of the past week has been the series of shallow depressions or cyclonic storms which has passed from the head of the Bay westward or west-north-westward through the Central Provinces and Central India and disappeared into the permanent low pressure area in the north-west. The first storm was shown over Raipur on the 24th, and the heaviest falls of rain connected with it were $5\frac{1}{2}$ " at Nagpur, 5" at Chanda, 4" at Pachmarhi and Belgaum and over 2" at Mercara, Goa, Hoshangabad, Amraoti, Indore and Sambalpur. The storm passed west-north-westward and was shown the next day as a large diffused depression over the Central Provinces and Central India. The heaviest falls of rain on this day were 7" at Indore, 5" at Chikalda, 3" at Hoshangabad and over an inch at Amraoti and Chanda. On the following day the 26th the depression had almost filled up, but still determined moderately heavy rain to different parts of the country, thus Surat reported nearly 5", Roorkee $3\frac{1}{2}$ ", Ahmedabad 3" and Rajkot $2\frac{1}{2}$ ". In the mean time, at the head of the Bay the barometer was falling briskly and another depression was forming. The depression continued to develop during the next twenty-four hours and 5" of rain was received at Nagpur, $2\frac{3}{4}$ " at Sconi and Hanumkonda and over 1" at Amraoti, Akola and Khandwa. On the next day the 28th the depression was crossing the Orissa coast and moderate rain was falling over the Peninsula and north-west India, with heavy local falls of 9" at Hanumkonda and 4" at Mercara. On the 29th the depression from Orissa had moved in a west-north-westwardly direction and a large trough of low pressure was shown over the central parts of the country, while light to moderate rain had fallen over the east Satpuras, the west coast and the Upper India hills. The principal amounts were $4\frac{1}{2}$ " at Mercara, 4" at Mangalore and over 2" at Roorkee, Pachmarhi and Calicut. On the 30th another shallow storm appeared over the head of the Bay and scattered rain was reported from Bengal, Assam, the Peninsula and the central parts of the country, the largest amounts were $4\frac{1}{2}$ " at Mercara, $3\frac{1}{2}$ " at Goa, $4\frac{1}{4}$ " at Neemuch and over 2" at Ratnagiri, Nagpur and Sambhar.

The effect of the storms at the head of the Bay and of their subsequent direction of advance has been to direct the Bay branch of the monsoon current largely towards the Burma coast and to draw a good, steady, monsoon from the Arabian Sea over the Peninsula, the Satpuras, Gujarat and the west of Central India. On the other hand, the distribution of pressure has been prejudicial to rainfall in inland Burma, Bengal, the Gangetic plain and to a certain extent in Upper India, and over the whole of these areas the rainfall has been light.

The rainfall table shows that the week's rainfall has exceeded the normal on the Burma coast, the west coast, Gujarat, the west Satpuras and the Burdwan, Raipur, Jubbulpore, Indore, Bijapur, Hyderabad and Madura subdivisions. The excess was large in the Indore subdivision +4.75", in the west Satpuras division +4.52", the Ahmedabad subdivision +3.65" and the Calicut subdivision +2.72". Over the whole of the remainder of India the rainfall of the week was in greater or less defect. The defect was greatest over Central Burma, Bengal, Assam and parts of the United Provinces and amounted to 2.99" in Burma wet, to 2.67" in the Naravanganj subdivision, to 2.07" in the Calcutta subdivision, to 2.42" in the Brahmaputra Valley, to 3.69" in the Dinajpur subdivision, to 3.14" in the Darbhanga subdivision, to 2.70" in the Bahraich subdivision, to 2.68" in the Patna subdivision, to 2.01" in the Cawnpore subdivision and to 2.24" in the Jhansi subdivision. The above shows that there has occurred a large deficiency of rainfall over nearly the whole area extending from the west of the United Provinces as far east as central Burma.

The seasonal variations show that the rainfall from 1st of May to date is more than 50% short of the normal in the following subdivisions: Patna (—70%), Cawnpore (—55%) and Jhansi (—60%).

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday,
25th July 1903.

Madras.—The rainfall has been good in the Circars, on the West Coast and in the hills and light to fair elsewhere. Water for irrigation is sufficient except in parts of the Deccan. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue generally. The condition of standing crops is fair. Pasture is sufficient and fodder is procurable. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are almost stationary.

Bombay.—Heavy rain fell during the week in parts of Thar and Parkar, Gujarat, the Konkan, Nasik, Poona, Satara and Belgaum; good in parts of Hyderabad and Khandesh; moderate in parts of Karachi, Sukkur, Larkana, the Upper Sindh Frontier, Sholapur and Dharwar; and slight in parts of Ahmednagar and Bijapur. More rain is needed in parts of Nasik, Sholapur and the Carnatic. Young crops have been slightly damaged by insects in parts of Bijapur and the Upper Sindh Frontier, but are generally in good condition elsewhere. The sowing of autumn crops is generally in progress except in parts of Broach, Poona and Dharwar where it is retarded owing to excessive rain. Transplantation has commenced in parts of Ahmedabad and is progressing in parts of Sindh, Surat, the Konkan, Nasik, Poona and Satara. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of the Upper Sindh Frontier. Agricultural stock is in good condition and is generally sufficient. Water is deficient in some canals in Sindh. Prices have fallen in three districts, have risen in some and are stationary elsewhere.

Bengal.—The rainfall was general throughout the province, but not evenly distributed. More rain is urgently needed in the Burdwan, Presidency, Patna and Bhagalpur divisions and in some districts of the Rajshahi, Chittagong and Chota Nagpur divisions. Except in the districts of Noakhali, Patna, Shahabad and Monghyr, where standing crops are suffering badly for want of rain, prospects are generally fair. The harvesting of early rice and jute continues. Transplantation of winter rice continues, but is very backward in most districts for want of rain and in a few has altogether been stopped. Paddy is being damaged by insects in parts of Midnapore. Fodder and water are generally sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in eleven districts, has fallen in seven and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces.—Rain is reported from every district, the fall averaging from 2 to 3 inches in most districts, while Dehra Dun, Saharanpur and Lucknow have received 11, 6 and 8 inches, respectively. More rain is generally required. Sowings continue and transplantation of rice has commenced in a few districts. Locusts appeared in Almora and Farrukhabad, and did slight damage in the former district. Markets are full, but fodder is still scarce in seven districts. Prices are stationary with a tendency to fall.

Punjab.—Good rain has fallen throughout the province. The harvesting of extra spring crops is completed. Sowings of autumn crops are in progress. The condition and prospects of the standing crops are good. The autumn crops are much benefited by the recent rain except in parts of the Amritsar district. The cotton crop has been badly damaged by locusts in parts of the Mianwali district. Locusts also appeared in parts of Hissar, Lahore and Amritsar, but did no damage. Cattle are generally in good condition. Fodder is reported to be sufficient in all districts, except in parts of Shahpur and Mianwali. The price of wheat is rising slightly in Umballa, Jullundur and Rawalpindi, but is falling in the Dehli and Amritsar districts. The prices of other food-grains are fluctuating.

North-West Frontier Province.—Sufficient rain fell during the week in Dera Ismail Khan and Hazara, but little elsewhere. More rain is still required everywhere in the Province. The standing autumn crops are much benefited by the rain. Irrigation by hill torrents continues satisfactory in Dera Ismail Khan. The Indus is still gaining strength; the Swat and Kabul rivers are falling, but the canal supply is sufficient. Cattle are in good condition. Fodder is sufficient and stocks of food-grains are ample. Prices are, stationary.

Burma.—The rainfall in all coast districts was heavy and in most places sufficient, but in the central area it was generally scanty with none in Shwebo, Sagaing, Kyaukse and Mgingyan. Ploughing for the main paddy crop is completed in Hanthawaddy, Bassein and Amherst and sowing and transplanting are now general. Sowing of juar and sesamum is completed in parts of Pakokku and ploughing for juar has commenced in the Ava subdivision of Sagaing. Ploughing is retarded for want of rain in parts of Thayetmyo, Katha, Shwebo and Sagaing. Crops are withering owing to drought in the Seikpyu township of the Pakokku district and in the Katha, Sagaing and Shwebo districts and in the Kama, Minhla and Sinbaungwe townships of the Thayetmyo district. Sesamum and cotton too are withering in Meiktila and the former in Myingyan and in the Yamethin subdivision of the Yamethin district. Rain is urgently needed in Sagaing and badly wanted in the Pale and Budalin townships of Lower Chindwin. Prospects vary from fair in most places to poor in some parts. The price of paddy has risen considerably in Thongwa and largely in Shwebo. The changes are inconsiderable in four districts. Elsewhere they are stationary.

Central Provinces.—Good rain has fallen throughout the Provinces, except in Saugor and Damoh, where the falls were light. More rain is needed in these districts, but a break would be beneficial in the cotton tracts of the Nagpur country where the rain has been exceptionally heavy. Autumn sowings are approaching completion. These crops are unusually late, but germination has been good and they are thriving. The transplanting of rice and weeding operations are in progress. Some damage by grass-leppers is reported from the Nimar and Raipur districts. Fodder is sufficient. Prices have fallen in Betul, but are generally steady elsewhere. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are:—Wheat 18; gram 26; rice 14½; and juar, 32. The highest prices are:—Wheat, 11; gram, 12; rice, 8; and juar, 17½. Assam.—Rain fell in all the districts, but is deficient in the Surma Valley, Goalpara, the Naga Hills and Manipur. Ploughing for and transplanting of late rice, harvesting of early rice, plucking and manufacture of tea and cutting of jute are in progress. Sowing of early rice still continues in Kamrup. The outturn of tea is good in Darrang and Lakhimpur and fair elsewhere. Blight is still prevalent in Darrang. The prospects of sugarcane are good in Cachar and fair elsewhere. The prospects of early rice are good in Sylhet, Goalpara and Darrang; poor in Cachar, Kamrup and Manipur and fair in other places. Some damage has been caused by floods on lowlands in Goalpara. Prospects of jute are fair in the Garo Hills and good in Sylhet and in Goalpara except in parts where they have been damaged by insects. Fodder is insufficient in parts of Sylhet and Kamrup. Berar.—The average rain during the week was 4 inches and 75 cents. The weather is cool and cloudy. Standing crops are in good condition except in the upland taluqs of the Buldana district where cotton and juar plants show signs of rotting, owing to excessive moisture. Preparation of land for monsoon crops is nearing completion. Sowings continue. Weeding is in progress. Fodder and water are sufficient. Prices are almost steady.

Central India.—The rainfall has been partial in Bundelkhand and parts of Gwalior ; insufficient in parts of Gwalior, Bundelkhand and Baghelkhand and sufficient elsewhere. Agricultural operations are in progress everywhere. Crops are good in parts of Gwalior, in Malwa, Bhopawar and Indore and fair in Bhopal and Baghelkhand. They have been slightly damaged in parts of Dhar and Indore by insects. Agricultural stock are generally in good condition, except in Dhar, where rinderpest continues and in parts of Indore. Prices are steady in Gwalior and parts of Bhopawar, normal in Bhopal, Bundelkhand, Baghelkhand and Indore, low in Malwa and are falling in Dhar.

Kashmir.—Exceedingly heavy rains, followed by very high floods, have done injury to crops. The extent of the injury is not yet estimable, but it is believed to be great. The weather is bright just at present. Prices are exceedingly high :—rice 3 to 5 seers the rupee. JAMMU. There has been heavy rain. The condition of the standing crops is good. Fodder is generally sufficient. Locusts have appeared in some parts of the Jammu district and have done some damage to standing crops. Autumn sowings are in progress. Floods, consequent on the recent heavy rain, have washed away considerable land and many cattle. Prices are fluctuating. Wheat is selling from 14 to 26 and maize from 16 to 36 seers the rupee.

Nepal.—Rainfall 3·02 inches. The weather is still bright and warm and transplanting of lowland rice is in a very backward condition. Indian-corn and upland rice are progressing well. The price of rice is 6½ seers for the rupee.

RESOLUTION.

By the Resolution of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 3129-I.A., dated the 19th August, 1901, the Residents in Hyderabad, Mysore, Baroda, Kashmir and Nepal, the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, and all Political Officers in Rajputana and Central India are empowered to grant licenses for the export of arms and ammunition (subject to certain exceptions) to the Native States under their political charge, irrespectively of whether they are required for personal use or for sale. It has now been decided to modify the restrictions imposed by the Resolution, firstly, by removing rifles of '577 bore of the Snider pattern and also magazine pistols from the category of military weapons, and, secondly, by authorising Political Officers to grant licenses, in certain cases, for the export of rifles of '303 bore and of '450 bore of the Martini-Henry pattern, and of a limited quantity of ammunition for use with those weapons.

It has also been agreed that other Political Officers serving under Local Governments should be invested with similar powers.

- (d) save as hereinafter provided, to ball ammunition which can be fired from rifles of the bores and pattern specified in sub-head (c) :

Provided, secondly, that, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-head (c) of the first proviso, licenses for the export of rifles of the bores and pattern there specified may be granted to persons of the classes mentioned in paragraph I of the Notification above cited, subject to the condition that the rifles must either have been in India on the 20th February 1901, or have since been imported with the special sanction of the Government of India :

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 4th August, 1903:

No. 10 OF 1903.

A Bill to provide for the regulation of the possession and sale of all poisons in certain local areas, and the importation, possession and sale of white arsenic generally.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the regulation of the possession and sale of all poisons in certain local areas, and the importation, possession and sale of white arsenic throughout the whole of British India; It is hereby enacted as follows:

Short title and extent. I. (1) This Act may be called the Poisons Act, 1903; and

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

Poisons generally.

2. (1) Subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, the Local Government may, by rule, regulate within the limits of any municipality or cantonment the possession for sale and the sale, whether wholesale or by retail, of any poison.

Power to regulate possession for sale and sale of any poison in certain areas.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by subsection (1), rules made thereunder may provide for, amongst other matters,—

(a) the grant of licenses to possess any poison for sale, wholesale or by retail;

(b) the classes of persons to whom alone such licenses may be granted;

(c) the classes of persons to whom alone any poison may be sold;

(d) the maximum quantity of any poison which may be sold to any one person;

(e) the maintenance by vendors of any poison of registers of sales, the particulars to be entered in such registers, and the inspection of the same; and

(f) the labelling of packets in which any poison is sold or possessed for sale.

White Arsenic.

3. The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, prohibit, except under and in accordance with the conditions of a license, the importation of white arsenic into British India, and may, by rule, regulate the grant of licenses and prescribe the conditions to be imposed thereby under this section.

Power to prohibit importation into British India of white arsenic except under license.

4. (1) Subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, the Local Government may, by rule, regulate within the whole or any part of the

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by sub-section (1), rules made thereunder may provide, amongst other matters, for all or any of the matters specified in section 2, sub-section (2).

(3) Rules made under sub-section (1) may further provide that no person shall sell any powdered white arsenic unless the same is, before the sale thereof, mixed with soot, indigo or Prussian blue in the proportion of half an ounce of soot, indigo or Prussian blue at least to one pound of the white arsenic, and so in proportion for any greater or less quantity :

Provided that, where such arsenic is stated by the purchaser to be required for some purpose for which such admixture would, according to the representation of the purchaser, render it unfit, such arsenic may be sold, without such admixture, in a quantity of not less than ten pounds at any one time.

5. (1) The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may further, by rule, regulate the possession of white arsenic in any local area in which murder by poisoning with that drug or the offence of mischief by poisoning cattle therewith appears to it to be of such frequent occurrence as to render restrictions on the possession thereof desirable.

(2) In making any rule under sub-section (1), the Local Government may direct that any breach thereof shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both, together with confiscation of the white arsenic in respect of which the breach has been committed, and of the vessels, packages or coverings in which the same is found.

(2) Any poison in respect of which an offence has been committed under this section, together with the vessels, packages or coverings in which the same is found, and any animals and conveyances used in carrying it, shall be liable to confiscation.

8. (1) The District Magistrate, the Sub-divisional Magistrate and, in a Presidency-town, the Commissioner of Police, respectively, may issue a warrant for the search of any place in which he has reason to believe or to suspect that any poison is possessed for sale or sold in contravention of this Act or any rule thereunder or that any poison liable to confiscation under this Act is kept or concealed.

(2) The person to whom the warrant is directed may enter and search the place in accordance therewith, and the provisions of sections 47 to 49 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, as far as may be, be deemed to apply to the execution of the warrant.

9. (1) Every power to make rules conferred by this Act is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

(2) All rules made by the Governor General in Council or by the Local Government under this Act shall be published in the Gazette of India or the local official Gazette, as the case may be, and on such publication shall have effect as if enacted by this Act.

Savings.

10. (1) Nothing in this Act or in any license granted or rule made thereunder shall extend to or interfere with anything done in good faith in the exercise of his profession or business as such—

- (a) by a medical practitioner, or
- (b) by a chemist or druggist duly qualified to act as such under the law for the time being in force in the United Kingdom, or
- (c) by a chemist or druggist dispensing or compounding in compliance with the prescription of a medical practitioner, or
- (d) by a manufacturer of pharmaceutical preparations, sheep-dips or weed-killers, or
- (e) by a tanner or hide-merchant.

(2) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Local Government may in its discretion, by general or special order, declare that all or any of the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to apply to any article, or class of articles, of commerce specified in such order or to any poison, or class of poisons, used for any purpose so specified, and may, from time to time, alter or vary any such declaration.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE question of restricting by legislation the sale and possession of poisons in India has been under the consideration of the Government for many years. It was at one time thought that the working of a general law on the subject would be attended with such difficulties as to render its enforcement all but impracticable. Among the reasons for this conclusion were the facts that some mineral poisons are largely used for legitimate purposes connected with trade, and that, since plants from which vegetable poisons can be extracted grow all over the country and are readily accessible, any restriction on the sale and possession of mineral poisons might result in inducing criminals to have recourse to the more subtle and less easily detected vegetable poisons, which could in no case be placed beyond their reach. On further consideration, however, it seems to the Government of India to be an extraordinary anomaly, which should be removed with the least practicable delay, that a deadly poison, such as arsenic, which is without taste or smell, which produces effects very similar to those of cholera, and which is known to be the agent most frequently employed for homicidal purposes, should be procurable in unlimited quantities in every part of India. There is, so far as the Government of India are aware, no other civilized country in the world in which the sale and possession of poisons is not carefully restricted, and it is thought that, notwithstanding the special conditions prevailing in India, a beginning at least in the direction of legislation should be made. This view is supported by the great mass of opinion which has been obtained from Local Governments and Administrations and from the several Chambers of Commerce and Trades Associations.

2. The only measure in the Indian Statute-book dealing with poisons generally is Bombay Act VIII of 1866; but that enactment extends only to the Province of Bombay, and even there, owing to defects in its form and limitations in its scope, it has produced but little effect. No provision is made in it for the inspection or searching of vendors' shops, and it places no restriction on the amount of poison which may be possessed or sold. In the United Provinces the matter is regulated by rules under section 128 (1) of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh Municipalities Act, 1900; but these have not been rigidly enforced and seem to have been virtually inoperative. The experience of the United Provinces seems, indeed, to show that the matter is one which cannot with safety be left to municipal control.

3. The present Bill provides in the first place (clause 2) for the control of the sale of poisons generally within municipalities and within cantonments, which often adjoin municipalities. It also (clause 3) authorises the prohibition of the importation of white arsenic into British India except under license, and (clauses 4 and 5) empowers the Local Government to regulate the sale of that poison within the whole or any part of the Province, and its possession in any area in which murder by poisoning with that drug, or the offence of mischief by poisoning cattle, is of frequent occurrence. It further (clause 6) takes power for the Governor General in Council to apply to any other poison the provisions relating to white arsenic, and thus there will be an immediate remedy at hand should it be found that other poisons are beginning to take the place of white arsenic for criminal purposes. Finally protection is secured (clause 10) for acts done in good faith by members of the medical profession and by chemists and others who deal with poisons in the ordinary course of their business. The measure will be permissive, and its effectiveness will depend entirely upon the extent to which it is applied, and upon the success attained in framing and enforcing rules under it.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 4th August, 1903:

NO. 11 OF 1903.

A Bill further to amend the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Transfer of Property Act, 1882; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. This Act may be called the Transfer of Property (Amendment) Act, 1903.

2. In the fourth paragraph of section 1 of the said Act, after the words "extend this Act" the words "or any part thereof" shall be inserted.

3. In the second paragraph of section 59 of the said Act, for the words "an instrument" the words "a registered instrument" shall be substituted, and to the same paragraph the following proviso shall be added, namely:

"Provided that the Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct that all or any mortgages made within the territories under its administration or any part thereof, shall be effected only by such instruments as aforesaid."

4. In the last paragraph of section 59 and in clause (c) of section 69 of the said Act, for the words "and Rangoon" and for the words "or Rangoon" the words "Rangoon, Moulmein, Bassein and Akyab" and the words "Rangoon, Moulmein, Bassein or Akyab" shall be respectively substituted.

5. For the second paragraph of section 107 of the said Act the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely:

"All other leases of immoveable property may be made either by a registered instrument or by oral agreement accompanied by delivery of possession:

Provided that the Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct that leases of immoveable property, other than leases from year to year, or for any term exceeding one year, or reserving a yearly rent, may be made by unregistered instrument or by oral agreement without delivery of possession."

6. In section 117 of the said Act, after the words "to be so applicable" the words "in the case of all or any of such leases" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to make certain amendments in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, which the Government of India have decided to undertake for the following reasons.

2. Under the Indian Registration Act, 1877, registration is compulsory in the case of certain documents and merely optional in that of others. Documents of the first class are practically of no effect unless registered, but those belonging to the latter are equally effective, whether registered or not, subject to this limitation, that, if unregistered, they are liable to be superseded by subsequent registered documents. Among the documents the registration of which is optional are those relating to the transfer of rights in immoveable property of less than Rs. 100 in value, and it is in consequence of the questions that have arisen in connection with this latter class of documents that the present Bill has been prepared.

3. There was at one time a diversity of opinion as to the effect of section 50 of the Registration Act, which postpones all unregistered documents relating to land of which the registration is optional to a subsequent registered one of the same character. But it has recently been decided by all the chartered High Courts as well as by the Chief Court of the Punjab, that the section should be read subject to the equitable doctrine of notice, or, in other words, that an unregistered document should not be postponed to a registered one where it can be shown that the transferee under the latter had notice of the transfer evidenced by the former at the time when the latter was executed. These rulings did not appear to the Government of India to leave the law on a satisfactory footing. They learnt that in England there had been divergence of opinion with regard to the propriety of the recognition of the equitable doctrine of notice in connection with the construction of the English Registry Acts, and that that doctrine had in 1884 been deliberately abolished by Parliament in the case of the Yorkshire Registry, whilst past experience in this country had shown that the application of that doctrine in India was open to very grave objection. The Indian Registration Law prior to Act I of 1843 expressly provided for notice, and, as stated in the preamble to that Act, it was in consequence of the "forgeries, perjuries, fraudulent concealments and other practices" to which the application of the doctrine gave rise that that Act, which ignored the doctrine, was passed.

4. After giving the whole question very careful consideration the Government of India came to the conclusion that, instead of attempting to amend the provisions of the Registration Law as to priority between registered and unregistered instruments relating to the transfer of land in order to meet the difficulties to which the existing law gives rise, the better course would be so to amend the law on the subject of transfer of immoveable property as to make it impossible for such difficulties to arise in the case of future transfers of such property. It seemed to them that this result could be obtained if the law required all transfers of such property throughout India, when effected by written instruments, to be registered. They accordingly asked the opinion of Local Governments on the following proposals designed to carry out this intention :

- (1) that the whole or certain sections of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, should be extended to the parts of British India to which that Act had not yet been extended under the powers conferred by section 1, namely, the Punjab, and Lower Burma outside Rangoon ;
- (2) that section 59 of the Act (relating to mortgages) should be amended so as to require all mortgages effected by written instruments to be registered, whatever the amount secured ; and
- (3) that section 107 of the Act (relating to leases) should be amended so as to require all instruments of lease to be registered and all leases made by oral agreement to be accompanied or followed by possession.

5. With regard to the first point the Government of the Punjab objected strongly to the extension of the Act to that Province, and, as the arguments advanced by the Local Government against this proposal seemed to the Government of India to be of much force, this proposal has been abandoned in so far as the Punjab is concerned. The Government of Burma desired (1) to extend the whole of the Act to the towns of Moulmein, Bassein and Akyab, and to include those towns in the list of towns contained in sections 59 and 69 ; (2) to extend sections 54, 59, 107, 117, 118 and 123 to the whole of Lower Burma with the exception of areas to which the Registration Act does not apply and of specially backward tracts ; and (3) to take power to extend from time to time any part of the Act which may appear to it to be suitable to any part of the province. The amendments of the Act proposed in clauses 2 and 4 of the Bill are designed to enable the Local Government to give effect to its wishes in this respect.

6. Apart from the Punjab, all Local Governments accepted the second proposal which is given effect to by the amendment of the second paragraph of section 59 of the Act contained in clause 3 of the Bill. The proviso which it is further proposed to add to the same section of the Act is intended to give effect to a suggestion of the Government of Bengal that Local Governments should have power to require mortgages made within their territories, even when securing a less sum than Rs. 100, to be effected by registered instrument.

7. The third proposal was accepted by all Local Governments except the Governments of Bombay and Bengal, in deference to whose objections the Government of India have, while amending the second paragraph of section 107 of the Act, as originally proposed, in clause 5 of the Bill, added at the same time to the revised section a proviso reserving power to Local Governments to adopt or not to adopt, as they may think fit, the revised section in their respective provinces.

8. The Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces made a further suggestion that a proviso should be added to section 107 of the Act on the lines of the proviso to section 17 of the Indian Registration Act in order to encourage the application of Chapter V of the latter Act to agricultural leases. Though the principle of the suggestion is accepted by the Government of India, it appears to them that it will be more simply and conveniently given effect to by amending section 117 of the Act as proposed in clause 6 of the Bill, so as to give power to Local Governments to limit the scope of any notification issued under that section to particular classes of agricultural leases.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 4th August, 1903:

No. 12 OF 1903.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894.

VIII of 1894. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1903.

(2) Section 3 shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of March, 1904.

VIII of 1894. 2. In section 8A, sub-section (1), of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, as amended by section 2 of the Indian Tariff Amendment Act, 1902, the words "the production therein or" shall be inserted.

Act, 1899, before the words "the exportation thereof" the words "the production therein or" shall be inserted.

3. After section 8B of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, as amended by section 2 of the Indian Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1902, the following section shall be added, namely:

"8C. Notwithstanding that the condition precedent to the imposition of a duty under section 8A may have ceased to exist, and notwithstanding anything in section 1, sub-section (2), of the Indian Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1902, any duties which may have been imposed and are chargeable under section 8A or section 8B on the thirty-first day of August, 1903, shall continue to be chargeable in accordance with any rules which may have been in force on the said date:

Provided that the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, reduce the rate at which any such duty is levied, and amend or vary any such rules as aforesaid."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

SECTION 8A of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, provides for the levy of an additional duty on articles on which a bounty is given directly or indirectly by a foreign State, and section 8B provides for the levy of additional duties in certain cases in which high protective duties render possible the creation of bounties by private trade combinations or cartels. The majority of the chief sugar-producing countries of Europe have agreed to arrangements designed to secure the abolition of all bounties and high protective duties on sugar on the 1st of September, 1903. Large stocks of sugar exist in those countries on which bounties have been paid and which have been produced under the cartel system. The object of this Bill is to continue the present additional duties on sugar until the 31st of March, 1904, when it is expected that the greater part of the stocks which have received bounties will have been consumed.

The opportunity has been taken to make it clear that section 8A of the Act of 1894, as amended in 1899, extends to bounties or grants paid or bestowed upon production as well as upon exportation.

NEW MEMBER.

The Hon'ble SIR LEWIS TUPPER took his seat as an Additional Member of Council.

EXTENSION OF THE VICEROY'S TERM OF OFFICE.

Before proceeding with the business of the Legislative Council His Excellency THE PRESIDENT addressed Hon'ble Members as follows :

" It is my duty to make an announcement at the opening of these proceedings. Some months ago His Majesty's Government offered me an extension of my term of office in India; and since then I have long and anxiously considered what it would be right for me to do. The rule or custom of a five-years' duration of the Viceroyalty of India seems to me to be on the whole a wise rule, and I should not like by any action of mine to be thought to weaken its general application. Further, no one recognises more clearly than myself that no man is necessary, and that others could be found perfectly qualified to carry on the work. Nor can I be unaware of the tax upon health and strength, and I would add upon spirits also, that is entailed by the long exile and the undeviating strain; or of the warning supplied by the experience of the only two Governors General in the last half century who have stayed beyond the five-years' term. These points, and many others that I could name, have been arguments in favour of not accepting the offer. But, on the other hand, I have felt that there was still work, hard and heavy but necessary work, to be done, which it was almost an obligation upon the person who had initiated it to see through. Five years may be long enough for the individual, but it is all too short for a Government that has embarked upon wide and comprehensive schemes of reform, and that aspires—I hope not vainly or foolishly—to redress many evils, and to communicate a fresh impetus to the strenuous organism of our Indian administration. Education, Police, Railways, Irrigation, Agricultural, Industrial and Commercial advancement, efficiency in every branch and department of our Administration—all of these have been, or still are, under our close examination; and as the result we hope to frame the lines upon which this country can pursue the great development that awaits it for another generation. Some of our work is already done; much is still incomplete. A little while longer is needed to start the whole on its way. These are the considerations that led me to think that I ought not to turn my face homewards just yet, and that it would be a neglect of duty to abandon my share in the undertaking while it still remains unfulfilled. I have felt, too, that by staying on to complete this task, it might be in my power to do something more for the people of this country, which, in one way or another, I have endeavoured to serve for so many years of my life, and which can never lose its hold upon my affections. I have, therefore, accepted the offer of His Majesty's Government for an extension of my term of office, with permission for an interim vacation in England, should I desire to take it next year.

"I have only come to this decision with much misgiving, but in the hope that I may find justification in the motive that underlies it, in the approval of the Indian people whom it is my privilege to serve, and in the support of the colleagues to whom I owe so much, and upon whose continued co-operation I feel confident that I may rely. I am aware that the administrative programme of which I have spoken, and which we have in hand, cannot be achieved—it has not been pursued thus far—without placing an immense strain upon the labour and energies of the official world throughout India, who are the direct instruments in formulating and carrying it through. The loyalty with which they have responded to every appeal, the zeal and devotion with which they have played their part, I can never sufficiently acknowledge or praise. But at least I may take this opportunity of publicly expressing my gratitude for it, and my pride at being permitted for some time longer to preside over a service thus constituted and inspired, and to assist in a task which I shall never cease to regard as the greatest and noblest that anywhere devolves upon the British race."

His Honour THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR said:—"As I had the honour of serving as a Member of Your Excellency's Executive Council during the first three years of Your Excellency's administration and am head of the Province in which the meetings of Your Excellency's Legislative Council are at present being held, I trust that it will not be considered out of place on my part if I take on myself to assure Your Excellency that the announcement which Your Excellency has just made will be received with the liveliest satisfaction by all classes in India. Your Excellency, by consenting to prolong the tenure of your high and onerous appointment, will be able to bring to maturity such of the many important and beneficial projects which Your Excellency has initiated as it has not been found possible to complete within the ordinary limit of a Viceroy's term of office; and I am confident that I am expressing the general sentiment not only of those present in this Council Chamber to-day, but of the entire community of this country, in saying that the Indian Empire is to be heartily congratulated on its good fortune in securing the benefit of Your Excellency's services for a further period, and in wishing Your Excellency health and strength to bring the great work which you have undertaken to a successful conclusion."

His Excellency THE PRESIDENT :—"Sir Charles Rivaz, I hope you will allow me to say that I am very grateful to you for the kind words which you have spoken."

INDIAN EXTRADITION BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. RALEIGH moved that the Bill to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the Extradition and Rendition of Criminals be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Arundel, the Hon'ble Sir Denzil Ibbetson, the Hon'ble Sir Lewis Tupper and the mover.

The motion was put and agreed to.

CENTRAL PROVINCES MUNICIPAL BILL.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON moved that the Bill to make better provision for the organization and administration of municipalities in the Central Provinces be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Raleigh, the Hon'ble Sir Lewis Tupper and the mover.

The motion was put and agreed to.

POISONS BILL.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON moved for leave to introduce a Bill to provide for the regulation of the possession and sale of all poisons in certain local areas, and the importation, possession and sale of white arsenic generally. He said :—"My Lord, the question of regulating the possession and sale of poisons in India has frequently been under the consideration of Government. It was felt, however, that it was not advisable to create new offences, and to place new powers in the hands of subordinate officials, unless really effective control could be secured ; and it was doubted whether this was possible, in view of the absence of qualified druggists outside the large towns, and of the fact that vegetable poisons abound everywhere, while certain mineral poisons are largely used in indigenous industries. Proposals for general legislation were, therefore, rejected.

"In 1895 the matter was again brought to the notice of Government by a paper read before the Calcutta Medical Congress and by a presentment made by the special jury in a murder case tried before the Calcutta High Court. Especially the necessity for some control over the sale of white arsenic was insisted upon ; and it was thought that, even if any measures of universal application were inadvisable, it would at any rate be possible to regulate the sale of poisons within municipalities and cantonments. Local Governments were therefore asked for their opinions ; and the Bill which I ask leave to introduce is the outcome of the discussion which ensued. It is approved of by all the Local Governments, and by the various Chambers of Commerce and Trades Associations which have been consulted.

"I need not, I think, say much in justification of our proposals. India is probably the only civilised country in the world of which the Government exercises no general control over the sale of poisons. The Bill has been carefully framed so as to confine the control which it is now proposed to exercise within the narrowest limits which are compatible with the end in view ; and its provisions are wholly permissive, so that the action taken under it can be adapted to local circumstances. Power is taken to regulate the sale of all poisons within municipalities and cantonments ; but arsenic is the only poison the sale of which it is proposed to control in rural as well as in urban areas. The reason why arsenic is thus singled out for special treatment is, that it is the poison most commonly employed for homicidal purposes in India ; that, being used in the leather industry, it is procurable in every good-sized village; and that it is not produced in India, so that it is possible to follow it from the importer to the consumer. The Bill accordingly provides for the prohibition of its importation into British India except under license.

"The possession of poisons otherwise than for sale is not generally interfered with; but power is taken to control such possession of arsenic in areas in which its use for poisoning either men or cattle is especially frequent. Power is also reserved to the Governor General in Council to extend to any other poison those provisions of the Bill which relate to arsenic, so as to provide for the possibility of the new restrictions inducing the Indian poisoner to adopt some other poison as his favourite agent.

"The Government are anxious to avoid unnecessary interference with any legitimate industry in which poisons are employed; and clause 10 exempts from the provisions of the Act everything done in good faith and in the exercise of his business or profession by any member of certain specified classes of persons. It is not impossible that this specification may require modification or enlargement, and we shall welcome any suggestions made with a view to its improvement."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India in English, and in the local official Gazettes in English and in such other languages as the Local Governments think fit.

The motion was put and agreed to.

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON moved for leave to introduce a Bill further to amend the Transfer of Property Act, 1882. He said:—"My Lord, the Bill which I now propose, with the permission of Council, to introduce, though very short, is one of considerable importance, since it will, if it becomes law, affect the manner in which transfers of real property are effected throughout the greater part of India.

"Under the law of registration, if two transfers of the same piece of land have been made by the owner, the later one by a registered and the earlier one by an unregistered document, the later transfer will hold good against the earlier by virtue of its registration. Until the year 1843, this rule was qualified by the proviso that the second transferee must not have had notice of the first transfer; and that, if he had such notice, the later transfer in his favour would no longer prevail over the earlier one. But in 1843 this 'doctrine of notice,' as it is called, was deliberately struck out of the Registration Act, on account, as expressly stated in the preamble of the revised Act, of the 'forgeries, perjuries, fraudulent concealments and other practices' to which it had given rise.

"The intention of the Legislature evidently was that the doctrine of notice should no longer hold good in India, and that a registered deed of transfer should override an earlier deed which was not registered, even though the later transferee might have been fully aware of the first transfer: and certain of the superior Courts adopted this view, holding that by deliberately removing from the Statute the words which imported into it the doctrine of notice, the Legislature had implicitly enacted that it should no longer apply. Others, however, ruled that the doctrine still held good, on the ground, apparently, that fraud of necessity vitiates a transaction. It was this difference of opinion which led to the matter being brought to the notice of the Government of India. The difference has since disappeared, and all the superior Courts are now agreed in the view that the doctrine of notice still holds good.

"But this is the very doctrine which, sixty years ago, the Indian Legislature tried to get rid of—as it now appears, ineffectually—because of the iniquities to which it was found to give rise. And the Government of India are confirmed in their adherence to the view then held, by the fact that in England also the expediency of the doctrine has been questioned, and that it has been rejected in certain recent legislation on the subject. On the other hand, it is difficult to ask the Legislature to expressly declare that, if two men conspire together to defraud a transferee of land who has been so careless as not to register his deed of transfer, they may use as the instrument of their knavery that very registration machinery which was devised as a protection against fraud.

"The position was thus a difficult one. It was susceptible, however, of a simple solution, which was to insist that in future all deeds transferring real property should be registered, thus rendering the conflict between a registered and an unregistered deed impossible. And this is, broadly speaking, what the present Bill, which modifies the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, is intended to effect; although in Bombay and Bengal it is not proposed that the change should extend to leases. The change has also this incidental advantage, that the registration registers will in future furnish more complete information as to the title in real property—a point not without importance in provinces where no record-of-rights is maintained.

"When the Local Governments were consulted upon the proposal, the Governments of the Punjab and Burma, in which provinces the Transfer of Property Act is not in force, were at the same time consulted as to the advisability of extending to them either the whole Act, or at least those portions of it which regulate the mode of transfer, thus making the law on the subject uniform throughout virtually the whole of India, excepting, however, Upper Burma, in which province registration of documents has not yet been fully introduced.

"The Government of Burma was willing to extend the particular provisions to which I have just referred to the greater part of Lower Burma; and clause 2 of the Bill provides the necessary power. The Government of the Punjab objected to extending any portion of the Act to that province, mainly on the ground that the landowners are mostly small men and ignorant of the law; that they possess a record-of-rights, maintained with great efficiency, and which has their complete confidence; and that a duly attested mutation of names in that record is a method of transfer well suited to the people and their circumstances, and which it is desirable to encourage rather than to forbid. These arguments have been accepted by the Government of India, and the proposal against which they are directed has not been further pressed."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble SIR DENZIL IBBETSON moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India in English, and in the local official Gazettes in English and in such other languages as the Local Governments think fit.

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN TARIFF (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble SIR EDWARD LAW moved for leave to introduce a Bill further amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894. He said:—"In view of the fact that the Act which at present regulates the question of countervailing duties upon sugar duties on the 31st August next, it has been held advisable to take fresh action on this matter in the way of legislation. Section 8A of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, provides for the levy of an additional duty on articles on which a bounty is given directly or indirectly by a foreign State, and section 8B provides for the levy of additional duties in certain cases in which high protective duties render possible the creation of bounties by private trade combinations or cartels. The majority of the chief sugar-producing countries of Europe have agreed to arrangements designed to secure the abolition of all bounties and high protective duties on sugar on the 1st of September, 1903. Large stocks of sugar exist in those countries on which bounties have been paid and which have been produced under the cartel system. The object of this Bill is to continue the present additional duties on sugar until the 31st of March, 1904, when it is expected that the greater part of the stocks which have received bounties will have been consumed.

" The opportunity has been taken at the same time to make it clear that section 8A of the Act of 1894, as amended in 1899, extends to bounties or grants paid or bestowed upon production as well as upon exportation."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble SIR EDWARD LAW introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble SIR EDWARD LAW moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India and in the local official Gazettes in English.

The motion was put and agreed to.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 6th August 1903, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

A slight, but probably not unimportant change, has occurred in the pressure conditions during the past week. On July 31st a shallow depression was shown off the Orissa Coast. This depression developed somewhat during the next twenty-four hours without however crossing the coast, and at 8 A.M. on the 1st of August pressure was one-seventh of an inch in defect at False Point. The storm crossed the coast during the day, and at 8 A.M. on the 2nd the centre lay between Chaibassa and Sambalpur. Thence the centre advanced to the neighbourhood of Sutna on the 3rd and of Allahabad or Lucknow on the 4th, where it remained stationary and filled up during the 5th and 6th. It will thus be seen that this storm instead of, as in the case of its predecessors, passing westward through the Satpuras, travelled along a curved path, which finally brought it into the United Provinces, and this change in the trajectories of the storms probably indicates a change in the activities of the Arabian Sea and Bengal monsoon currents.

On the 31st July the weather remained dry and very hot over Bengal, Bihar and the Gangetic plain. Elsewhere showers had been received—more particularly over Gujarat and Rajputana. On the following day some heavy falls of rain (Diamond Island 6.10" and Tavoy 8.35") were reported from the Burma coast, an indication of the increased activity of the Bay current, and useful showers from Chaibassa, Gorakhpur, Lucknow and Bareilly. Otherwise the distribution of rain was generally similar to that on the 31st. On the 2nd rain commenced to take off in Rajputana and the temporary showers in the Gangetic plain had ceased, so that Bengal, Bihar and the United Provinces remained generally hot and dry. On the 3rd there was not much change except that rain had again extended into Rajputana and was moderately heavy over the Central Provinces. Over the Peninsula rain was confined to the west coast, and the weather over the interior and the east coast was fine. The reports of the 4th showed that rain had been general over the west coast of the Peninsula and northern India, with the exception of central and west Bengal and the centre and east of the United Provinces. During the 5th and 6th showers, unfortunately not very heavy, were received over Bihar and parts of the United Provinces, while elsewhere there was no important change.

The rainfall table shows that rain has been received during the week in all divisions of India, the average actual fall ranging from 0·17" in the Bellary subdivision, 0·20" in the Mysore subdivision, 0·24" in the Madura subdivision and 0·36" in the Lahore subdivision to 7·56" in the Jubbulpore subdivision and 15·42" in the Burma coast division. The week's rainfall exceeded the normal over Burma, except the dry division, and over Bengal and Assam, except the Calcutta subdivision, but was in defect over the east Himalayas, the east Gangetic plain and the Lahore subdivision of the west Gangetic plain. To the westward in the north-west dry area the rainfall was again in excess. Over the central parts of the country the week's rain was generally in excess, the only exception having been the Jaipur subdivision of the Central India plateau. In Gujarat the rainfall was in large excess. Over the Peninsula the fall was generally short except over Hyderabad and the south-west coast.

The preceding summary shows that, as for several weeks past, there has been an area of deficient rainfall over the whole region extending from the neighbourhood of Calcutta westward to Lahore, but that elsewhere the rainfall has been generally about the normal or in excess.

The seasonal variations show that the rainfall from the 1st of May to date is more than 50% short of the normal in the following subdivisions: Patna (—69%), Cawnpore (—51%), Lahore (—51%) and Jhansi (—51%).

The 6th August, 1903.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday,
1st August 1903.

Madras.—The rainfall was heavy on the West Coast and the hills, good in the Circars and light to fair elsewhere. Water for irrigation is sufficient except in parts of the Deccan, Salem and Madura. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue generally. The condition of the standing crops is fair. Pasture is sufficient and fodder is procurable. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are almost stationary.

Bombay.—Heavy rain fell during the week in parts of Gujarat, the Konkan, Nasik and Belgaum; good in parts of Khandesh, Satara and Dharwar; moderate in parts of Hyderabad, Thar and Parkar, Ahmednagar and Poona; and slight in parts of Karachi, Sukkur, Larkana, Sholapur and Bijapur. More rain is needed in parts of Nasik, Sholapur and the Carnatic. Inundation in Sindh is satisfactory. Sowings of autumn crops are almost completed in Sholapur and are generally in progress except in parts of Ahmedabad, Broach, Surat and Khandesh, where it is retarded owing to excessive rain, and in parts of Bijapur and Belgaum, where they are retarded for want of sufficient moisture. Transplantation is nearly completed in Colaba, Satara and Kanara and is progressing in parts of Sindh, Gujarat, Thana, Ratnagiri, Nasik and Poona. Early crops have been slightly damaged by insects in parts of Sholapur and the Upper Sindh Frontier; by rats in parts of Belgaum and Dharwar; by excessive rain in parts of Ahmedabad, Broach and Surat, but are generally in good condition elsewhere. The fodder-supply is generally sufficient. Agricultural stock are in good condition and generally sufficient. The water-supply is adequate except in parts of Hyderabad and Bijapur. Prices have fallen in nine districts and are stationary elsewhere.

Bengal.—Except in the Orissa and Chittagong divisions and in parts of the Burdwan, Presidency and Dacca divisions, the rainfall during the week was very slight, while in four districts there was none at all. More rain is urgently wanted in the Burdwan, Presidency, Rajshahi, Patna and Bhagalpur divisions and in parts of the Chittagong and Chota Nagpur divisions. Transplantation of winter rice is being retarded for want of rain in eighteen districts and in some of them it has altogether stopped. Standing crops are suffering in eight districts and in six districts the seedlings of winter rice are withering. Prospects are unfavourable in the Patna and Bhagalpur divisions. Fodder and water for cattle are generally sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in twenty-one districts, has fallen in three and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces.—Rain has fallen in forty-one districts. Five inches were recorded in Bijnor, 4 in Bareilly, Muzaffarnagar and Pilibhit and from 2 to 3 inches in Saharanpur, Moradabad, Budaun, Shahjehanpur and the Himalayan districts. Elsewhere the falls average from a few cents to 1 inch only. Good rain is urgently needed in the Lucknow, Fyzabad, Gorakhpur and Benares divisions and in most districts of the Allahabad division. The prospects of the rice and maize crops are at present poor. Irrigation is going on wherever practicable. Slight damage has been done by locusts to the standing crops in the Garhwal district and by insects in Rae Bareilly. Fodder is scarce in fourteen districts. Supplies are adequate, but prices are rising.

Punjab.—Good rain has fallen throughout the province. Sowings of autumn crops continue. The condition and prospects of standing crops are good. Autumn crops have benefited greatly by the recent rain, except in parts of Amritsar, where they have been damaged by excessive rain in lowlying lands. Crops have been slightly damaged by locusts in parts of Hissar and Ferozepur ; by insects in parts of Rawalpindi ; and by heavy floods in parts of Shahpur and Mooltan. Locusts appeared in parts of Lahore, Amritsar and Mianwali, but did no damage. Cattle are generally in good condition. Fodder is reported to be sufficient throughout the province. The price of wheat is rising slightly in Jullundur, Amritsar, Shahpur and Mianwali, but is falling in Umballa. The prices of other food-grains are fluctuating.

North-West Frontier Province.—Good rain has fallen in all districts but Bannu. Dera Ismail Khan has received over 5½ inches. The prospects of standing autumn crops are satisfactory. More rain is required in Bannu and the plain tracts of Hazara. Flood and canal irrigation continue satisfactory. The condition of cattle is good. Fodder is abundant and stocks of food-grains ample. Prices are falling in Peshawar, but are stationary in Dera Ismail Khan.

Burma.—The rainfall was heavy along the Tenasserim Coast and generally timely and sufficient in the lower and uppermost districts, but there has been little to none in the central districts. Ploughing for wet-weather paddy is approaching completion and sowing and transplanting are in full operation in most places. The reaping of dry weather paddy continues in parts of Pakokku and Lower Chindwin. The reaping of early wet-weather paddy is nearly completed in Mandalay and the Southern Shan States. The sowing of ground nut is completed in Magwe. Rain is badly wanted in Thayetmyo, Katha, Shewbo, Sagaing, Lower Chindwin and is also required in Pakokku, Mandalay, the Yamethin subdivision of Yamethin and Myingyan, in most of which districts the standing crops are withering for want of rain. Crop prospects are bad in Sagaing, where cotton and sesamum plants are fading. They are poor generally in the central area and fair elsewhere. The price of paddy is practically stationary. Insignificant changes are being reported for four centres only.

Central Provinces.—Moderate to heavy rain has fallen throughout the Provinces. The heaviest falls which were in Seoni and Narsingpur exceeded 9 inches. The rain has improved prospects in Saugor and Damoh. Autumn sowings which have been delayed by the heavy rains are nearly completed. Transplanting of rice is in progress. Weeding operations are retarded in places owing to continuous rain and a break would be beneficial, particularly in the Nagpur country, in parts of which heavy rain has caused slight damage to cotton and juar plants. Some damage by grass-hoppers is reported from the Nimar and Raipur districts and by insects from Seoni and Wardha. Fodder is sufficient. Prices have fallen slightly in some districts, but are fairly steady elsewhere. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are :—Wheat, 18 in Mandla and Seoni ; gram, 25 in Damoh ; rice, 13 in Raipur ; and juar, 30½ in Narsinghpur. The highest prices are :—Wheat, 11 in Chanda ; gram, 12 in Chanda ; rice, 8 in Chhindwara ; and juar, 17½ in Balaghat. The numbers on famine relief were as follows :—Relief workers—Public Works Department—Raipur—adults, 3,027 ; children, 317 ; total, 3,344. Road construction and repairs—Bilaspur—adults, 520. Gratuitous relief—otherwise relieved—Raipur—8,492 ; children, 2,010 ; total, 10,502. Bilaspur—adults, 936 ; children, 219 ; total, 1,153. Bhandara—adults, 1,230 ; children, 95 ; total, 1,325. Balaghat—adults, 318 ; children, 109 ; total, 427. Total otherwise relieved—13,409. Dependants—Raipur—adult, 1 ; children, 150 ; total, 151. Poor-houses—Raipur—adults, 32 ; children, 37 ; total, 69. Minor irrigation grant-in-aid works—Bilaspur—adults, 230 ; children, 33 ; total, 263. Total on all forms of relief, 17,756. The number of Public Works Department camps open was 8.

Assam.—Rain fell in all districts, but is deficient in most plains districts, the Naga Hills and Manipur. Ploughing for late rice, harvesting of early rice, plucking and manufacture of tea and cutting of jute are in progress. Sowing of early rice still continues in Kamrup. Transplanting of late rice has been delayed for want of sufficient rain. Prospects of tea and sugarcane are poor in Kamrup. Elsewhere they are fair to good. Prospects of early rice are good in Sylhet, Goalpara, Darrang and Nowgong ; poor in Cachar and Kamrup ; and fair in other places. Prospects of jute are bad in the Garo Hills, but good in Sylhet and Goalpara. Prices—common rice—Silchar, 15 ; Sylhet and Tezpur, 13 ; Dhubri and Gauhati, 12 ; Sibsagar, 11 ; and Nowgong and Dibrugarh, 10 seers per rupee.

Mysore.—Good rain fell throughout the province, but more is wanted in parts of Chitaldrug. General prospects are good. Prices are slightly fluctuating. Cattle are healthy except in parts of the Kolar and the Hassan district. Water and fodder are sufficient.

Coorg.—Rainfall—19 inches and 37 cents. Transplanting of rice continues. Prices of food-grains are stationary. Water and fodder are ample.

Berar.—The average rain during week was 3 inches and 1 cents. The weather is cool and cloudy. Crops are in good condition, except in parts of five taluks, where they have been damaged by excessive moisture. The preparation of land for the monsoon crops is almost completed. Sowings continue. Weeding operations are generally in progress. Fodder and water are sufficient. Prices show a tendency to fall.

Hyderabad.—The rainfall during the week was 4 inches and 40 cents. The prospects of autumn crops and early rice are good. Sowings continue and lands are being prepared for rice and spring sowings. Prices :—Wheat, 9½; rice, 8½; and juar, 29½ seers per halli rupee.

Rajputana.—Rainfall in cents :—Bikaner, average 71; Marwar, average 224; Jaisalmer, average, 197; Abu, 413; Sirohi, 91; Mewar, 453; Kherwara, 448; Deoli, 365; Tonk, 27; Bundi, 330; Shahpura, 138; Kotah, 281; Jhalawar, 635; Jaipur, 23; Kishengarh, 201; Alwar, average 21; Bharatpur, 65; Karauli, 234; Dholpur, 126; Ajmer-Merwara, average 124. The cheapest price of food-grains is—Bundi, 37; the highest—Sirohi, 14 seers the rupee.

Central India.—The rainfall was general throughout Central India, insufficient in Baghelkhand and sufficient elsewhere. Crops are fair in Bhopal and Baghelkhand and good in Malwa, Bhopawar and Indore, but have been slightly damaged by locusts and insects in parts of Dhar and Indore. Agricultural stock and pasturage are generally good, except in Dhar, where rinderpest continues, and in parts of Indore, where there is cattle-disease. Prices are steady in Gwalior, normal in Bhopal, Bundelkhand, Baghelkhand and Indore, low in Malwa and are falling in Bhopawar.

Kashmir.—Weather rainy. Prices are very high. Rice is selling at 5 seers the rupee. JAMMU: Good rain has fallen throughout the province. Autumn sowings are in progress. The condition of the standing crops is good. Fodder is sufficient, except in some parts. Prices are fluctuating. The price of wheat is from 14 to 26 and maize from 16 to 36 seers the rupee.

Nepal.—Rainfall 0·76 inch. The weather remains fair and warm and lowland rice is suffering from want of rain. Upland crops are doing well. The price of rice is 4½ seers for the rupee.

RESOLUTION.

The accompanying Report on the Exhibition of Indian Art Manufactures at Delhi is published for general information. In the Despatch to the Secretary of State describing the celebrations held at Delhi in honour of His Majesty's Coronation (published in the Gazette of India of June 13th) the objects of the Exhibition were explained and a brief account was given of their successful accomplishment, while at the same time the obligations of the Government of India to the Chiefs and others who contributed to the Loan Gallery and Prize Fund were acknowledged. The exceptional success of the Exhibition, in which Indian Arts were represented on a scale and with a completeness not attempted before in this country, was mainly due to the ability and indefatigable industry which the Director, Sir George Watt, ably seconded by his Assistant, Mr. Brown, and a small and hard-working staff, brought to bear on every detail of the organization.

ORDERED that the Resolution with the Report referred to	be published in the Gazette of India for general information, and that copies be forwarded to the Local Governments and Administrations marginally noted and to the Director and Assistant Director of the Indian Art Exhibition.

Report on the Exhibition of Indian Art Manufactures, Delhi, 1902-03.

I have the honour to submit a brief general report of the Art Exhibition held at Delhi in connection with the Coronation Assemblage, from the 30th of December 1902 to the 14th of February 1903.

2. Preliminary arrangements.—The organization and control of the Exhibition was placed in the hands of a Director, and Sir George Watt was appointed to that position on 1st March 1902. As Assistant Director I joined the staff on April 6th, 1902.

The first steps taken were (a) to obtain a suitable design for the building, and (b) to acquaint all intending exhibitors with the scope and character of the Exhibition. The former was the work of a number of hands, and was finally approved on 6th August 1902. The duty of informing the craftsmen of India of the opportunities the Exhibition placed before them was commenced in March 1902, and seven months were occupied by the Director and myself in travelling over the country and personally instructing the artisans as to the kind of manufactures that were considered the most desirable exhibits.

3. Method of informing intending exhibitors.—The procedure adopted during this tour was to inform the local officer of the district it was proposed to investigate, of the date of our visit, and to request him kindly to arrange a small display of the best local manufactures at some central institution. The artisans and others interested were then asked to be in attendance, and a brief lecture was given explanatory of the aims and objects of the Exhibition, and giving a general idea of those industries of the locality which it was considered most desirable to represent. Questions were then answered and every facility and encouragement given to any deserving craftsmen who wished to send a display of their goods. The results of the tour as seen in the different departments of the Exhibition, showed that the above plan was successful, as it brought the object in view to the very doors of those directly concerned.

4. Details of tour—Commencing with Burma in May it was thought advisable that I should accompany the Director in this particular instance so that a concerted plan of investigation for the remaining provinces might be matured. A rapid survey therefore of this country was made, all the principal art centres visited, and arrangements entered into with most of the leading artisans for a representative display of their works. On our return to India the Director and myself toured independently in order that more ground might be covered in a lesser time. June therefore was spent by Sir George Watt in travelling through Madras and the Deccan, while all the industrial towns of Bengal, the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh and the Central Provinces were visited by me. Bombay, Kathiawar and Kach occupied both of us during the greater part of July, and Rajputana and Central India were completed towards the end of August. In September Baluchistan, Kashmir and the Frontier Province were visited by the Director, while the greater part of the Punjab was finished by the middle of October when, nearly the whole of India having been surveyed, our presence at Delhi was found necessary in order to arrange for the reception of the exhibits which from that time commenced to arrive. A brief account of the lessons learnt while personally interviewing the artisans and others all over India may be considered of interest. The first idea was that this tour would be one of selection, but it soon became evident that the greater part of the work would be that of rejection, as a vast number of intending exhibitors had a very imperfect comprehension of the standard by which their manufactures would be judged. Goods, too, showing European influences of an inferior or unsuitable nature were repeatedly being brought forward and the difficulty of explaining the undesirability of these articles was often met with. Generally speaking, however, the small local displays got together at each industrial centre by the exertions of the local officials showed an enthusiasm and desire to learn which was most encouraging, and it may be accepted that the spirit of emulation inspired by these conferences led to some of the best collections being sent. The advice and assistance, aided by sketches, that the Director and myself were enabled from time to time to give to those interested were no doubt of considerable benefit to many classes of exhibitors.

Briefly, the principal facts brought to light during the tour, directly bearing on the improvement of the art industries were: (1) the advisability of an art expert regularly visiting industrial centres to guide the manufacturers in their designs and workmanship, and (2) the need in a number of the best known art industries for a good illustrated pattern book. In the former case the manufacturer could get the assistance required from the schools of art where they exist, but he rarely chooses to do so. The school of art, represented by the art expert, must therefore go to him. With regard to the pattern book, when visiting any workshop if we requested to see those in use, this invariably led to the production of a most unsuitable European illustrated catalogue. These appear to be used not because the designs were admired or because there was a demand for the reproduction of such designs, but for the reason that they were comparatively easily obtained and supplied a want. A museum would furnish the workman with suitable ideas if he went there, but the Indian craftsman by nature requires either the actual article or a faithful copy before him in his workshop from which to work directly. Pattern books containing a series of working drawings illustrating good designs would, it is felt, considerably improve some of the more important art industries.

5. The building.—During the tour Delhi was visited more than once in order to note the progress made in the erection and decoration of the Exhibition building. The site selected was the Kudsia Bagh outside the Kashmir gate of the city, and the design adopted was mainly Saracenic in character. The façade was ornamented with tile work and fresco painting, the former the production of the potters of Lahore, Multan, Halla and Jeypore, and the latter the work of one of the Masters, aided by the pupils, of the Mayo School of Art, Lahore.

The general construction of the building was carried out by the Punjab Public Works Department, and it was completed and handed over in November 1902. In plan it consisted of an Entrance Hall and three large galleries surrounded by a verandah. These were, the Main or Sale Gallery, 220 feet by 80 feet, the Loan Collection Court, and the Jewellery Court, each 80 feet by 60 feet, and the Artificers' Gallery or verandah. The whole building occupied a rectangle of 250 feet by 210 feet.

6. Lighting.—A point which received special consideration was the lighting. This was obtained in the daytime by a series of skylights facing the north. By these means windows were dispensed with, and the wall space was thus left free for the display of the larger exhibits, such as carpets, etc. This arrangement proved satisfactory.

7. Artificial lighting.—At night the whole building was well illuminated with Acetylene gas. The light given by this installation was a bright and steady one, its only drawback being the soot which from various causes occasionally accumulated.

8. Fire precautions.—The rates quoted by the various insurance offices being considered abnormally high, the building was not insured. Special precautions were therefore taken to protect the building and its contents from fire. Tanks holding several thousand gallons of water were constructed in the rear of the premises and connected with them were three portable fire engines capable of throwing a stream of water above the height of the building. In addition to these were four patent fire extinguishers for use in the case of a small local outbreak. All these appliances were under the control of a party of British soldiers who were located in tents near at hand, and could be easily turned out night or day in case of emergency. It was felt, however, that the safety of the building mainly lay in the hands of the permanent staff, who were requested to pay more than ordinary attention to the strict instructions issued with regard to the use of lights or fires.

9. Arrival of the exhibits.—Exhibits commenced to arrive early in October but, owing to the limited time that could be allowed to most of the intending exhibitors, the greater number of the boxes did not reach Delhi until much later, thus rendering the work of the staff during the month of December particularly arduous.

10. Railway concessions.—Reduced rates for the carrying of exhibits were conceded by all the principal railways, and the assistance rendered by those concerned in the transit of goods is worthy of note.

11. Forwarding of exhibits.—Specially prepared tickets, labels, invoice forms, etc., were supplied to all intending exhibitors during the previously mentioned tour, to assist them in the despatch of their goods. To facilitate the reception of exhibits the country was divided into eight circles, each circle, ticket label, invoice, etc., being marked with a distinctive colour (such as Punjab, brown label; Bengal, blue label, etc.), so that on the arrival of the packages or invoices at Delhi, the different circles could be readily distinguished. This arrangement worked well throughout the whole period of the Exhibition and lightened the work in many directions. All invoices were in triplicate, and instructions as to the use of these were distinctly printed on the back for the guidance of intending exhibitors. The information asked for on these was briefly (a) a description of the article, (b) the maker's name, (c) the price, and (d) a number corresponding to a number on a ticket which was required to be attached to all articles. One copy of the invoice was to be forwarded to Delhi by post, the second was to be packed with the goods and the third to be retained by the sender. On arrival at Delhi the articles were checked with the invoice which was then bound up with others of the same circle into folios, and these formed the basis on which the sale department worked, and in fact by means of these most of the business part of the Exhibition was conducted. The exhibits were then removed to that division of the building which the description on the invoice indicated, and in course of time were arranged as artistically as possible in conjunction with similar manufactures from other parts. A statement is appended with regard to the sale collection indicating the number of exhibitors in each circle and the amount of goods sent.

12. Government purchases.—To enable artisans in indigent circumstances to put such works in hand as would effectively represent their craft, sums of money were advanced by the Exhibition from time to time to the local officers for this purpose. Goods prepared with this assistance became the property of the Government. Most of these were purchased by the public during the period of the Exhibition, but a number from one cause or another remained unsold. These at the close of the Exhibition and under the orders of Government were forwarded to the different Provincial Museums for inclusion in their collections.

13. Classification of exhibit.—As before mentioned, the Exhibition comprised four great sections:—

- (a) the Main or Sale Gallery;
- (b) the Loan Collection Gallery;
- (c) the Jewellery Court;
- (d) The Artificers' Gallery or Workshops; and within each of these galleries the same main classification was observed, namely:—

- I.—Metal wares.
- II.—Stone wares.
- III.—Glass and earthen wares.
- IV.—Woodwork.
- V.—Ivory, horn, shell and leather wares.
- VI.—Lac (Lakh) and Lacquer wares.
- VII.—Textiles:—
 - (a) Treatment after leaving the loom, such as dyeing, printing, etc.
 - (b) Woven patterns.
- VIII.—Embroidery, braiding, lace, etc.
- IX.—Carpets, rugs, etc.
- X.—Fine arts.

These classes were next referred to certain divisions so as still further to facilitate the grouping together of manufactures of a particular kind. An important feature of this arrangement was that the goods were grouped according to their kind and not their places of origin. It was thus made possible for visitors to compare, almost at a glance, productions of one kind from all parts of India, both near and remote, and to make purchases in the Sale Gallery without being harassed by the importunities of competing traders.

Dispersed throughout the building were certain small rooms, balconies, etc. These were set apart for the purpose of exemplifying the adaptability of the various better known styles of Indian art, to modern household furnishing and architectural decoration. These and the other features of each gallery will be found fully described in the official catalogue.

14. Loan Collection Gallery.—The Loan Exhibits were displayed in a special room distinct from the other galleries and cut off from them by an iron gate. The floor was paved with Agra sandstone. It was considered necessary to take these precautions owing to the great value of the art treasures exhibited therein. It is needless to add that to the generosity of the Princes and Nobles of all parts of India this exceedingly rich and diversified collection was mainly due. An important addition to the gallery was the collective exhibit sent out from London by the Commissioners of the South Kensington Museum. This was of special interest as illustrating some of the finer designs long since lost to India through large collections of the many art wares having been bought up and carried off to foreign museums.

15. Jewellery Court.—The Jewellery Court was a gallery corresponding to and built on similar lines to the Loan Collection Gallery. It was specially arranged to allow a selection of the more influential jewellers of India to bring personally to Delhi a set of their most desirable Indian wares, which formed one of the most rare and expensive collections of jewels ever brought together in one building. The spaces for stalls were let to the 8 selected firms at the rate of Rs. 5 per square foot.

16. The Artisans' Gallery.—The Artisans' Gallery consisted of a long series of shops situated in the verandah and occupying the entire perimeter of the building. These were given to selected artisans who desired to work in them, and many of the art trades of India were represented. These craftsmen were permitted to sell, free of all Exhibition commission, the articles actually made by them in the building. Although some of these men made a fair amount of profit during their stay in Delhi, the majority of them from a variety of causes did not make much more than their expenses.

17. Fittings.—A number of shelves, tables, cases, etc., were required in the building for the proper display of many of the exhibits. With the exception of the fittings in the Loan Collection Court, these were all of a temporary character. Between each pair of the pillars of the Main Gallery, stalls were constructed by means of tables and shelves, each of which corresponded to one of the divisions of exhibits before mentioned under 'Classification.' These fittings were of ordinary unplanned wood and covered with printed cotton and proved quite suitable for their purpose. But the value of and the responsibility connected with the exhibits sent on loan necessitated a different arrangement in the Loan Gallery. Twenty-two plate-glass teak-wood dust-proof cases were specially constructed for the display of articles sent under this head, and the cost of these formed the principle item in the expenditure on "fittings." They added, however, considerably to the appearance of the Court, protected the articles admirably, and at the close of the Exhibition were sold and realized a very fair percentage of their original cost.

18. Decorations.—Articles for decorative purposes only were required to a very small extent, as the exhibits themselves were arranged so as to produce an artistic effect, the walls being tapestried with carpets and rugs, and the archways draped with embroidered curtains from Kashmir. The unsightly timbers and girders of the roof, moreover, were covered with printed cottons representing this art in all its forms from Kalahastri to Lahore, while the severe outlines of the supporting columns were relieved by flags and banners generously supplied by nearly every State in the country. The boarded floor was covered with a fibre matting of a green pattern which proved a most suitable article, and admirably completed the general effect.

19. Value of the exhibits.—Owing to the almost priceless value of some of the Loan Exhibits it is difficult to form even an approximate estimate of the value of the complete collection. The Main or Sale Gallery may, however, be computed to have contained goods equivalent to ten and-a-half lakhs of rupees. The Jewellery Court exhibits, as assessed by a competent authority, were valued at 140 lakhs, and the Loan Collection may be put down at a similar figure. The building may therefore be said to have held goods to the total value of nearly three crores of rupees.

20. Police precautions.—To efficiently guard the building, the nature of the construction of which had been carefully studied with regard to this important particular, a force of 120 policemen under a European Inspector was attached to the Exhibition. These patrolled inside and outside the buildings in the daytime, and the precincts and roof at night. The efficiency of these precautions may be judged by the fact, that, except for a little petty pilfering, no case requiring the attention of the police occurred.

21. Medical assistance.—As a small army of workmen was employed for several months about the building and had quarters in the Exhibition Camp, arrangements were made with the Civil Surgeon to depute a Hospital Assistant to be in attendance at certain hours every day in case of illness or accident. It was thought also that his services might be required in connection with the occupants of the Artizans' Gallery many of whom coming from warmer climates such as Madras and Burma might feel the rigors of the Delhi winter. Fortunately the duties of this officer throughout were of a very light character, no sickness or accident of any importance having to be recorded.

22. Awards of medals and certificates.—Awards of medals and certificates were made to those exhibitors who displayed goods of sufficient merit. For this work a Judging Committee was appointed under the orders of the Government of India. This consisted of the following :—

A full and detailed list of the awards made by the Judging Committee, with their recommendations as to the disbursement of the money awards, was published by the Government of India in their Resolution No. 16—5-7, dated April 24th, 1903.

24. Catalogue.—A brief "Abstract Catalogue and Guide" was prepared and placed in the hands of the public on the opening day. It contained short references to most of the more important exhibits, and was sold at 4 annas.

A considerably enlarged edition of this was prepared during the time the Exhibition remained open. It contains descriptions of most of the art industries of India and complete references to all the different divisions of exhibits. It is profusely illustrated and should form a record of the Exhibition and of Indian arts and industries generally.

25. Illustrated folio of special exhibits.—A proposal by the Judging Committee that reproductions of some of the more important exhibits, particularly those on loan, should be made and issued in folio form for use in Art Schools, is being put into effect.

26. Opening ceremony.—The Exhibition was formally opened by His Excellency the Viceroy on the forenoon of December 30th, 1902. A specially constructed platform was thrown out from the steps of the Main Entrance of the building. This was reserved for the principal guests of His Excellency, and for the Ruling Princes and high officials of Government. On the open space in front of the platform, accommodation was arranged for the general public, and complimentary tickets were issued for the seats. The proceedings commenced with a speech by His Excellency the Viceroy, the doors were then thrown open and those seated on the platform only were admitted. At noon the general public were allowed entrance.

27. Rates of admission.—From December 31st to January 2nd the rate of admission was one rupee, but owing to so many people crowding into the building it was decided to raise this to Rs. 2. No appreciable reduction of those desiring admission taking place, this rate was on January 6th and 8th further raised to Rs. 5, but was reduced again on the 7th, 9th and 10th to Rs. 2. On the 11th, the crowds having by this time become normal, the original price of admission of Re. 1 was resumed, and this rate was charged until January 24th. From that date until the closing day, February 14th, so as to give all classes of the community an opportunity of inspecting the collections, 4 annas only was charged, and a large number of the working classes of Delhi and elsewhere took prompt advantage of this concession and visited the Exhibition in large numbers.

28. Purdah Days.—While the Exhibition remained open, several Sundays were reserved for ladies only, and large parties of purdahnashin and other ladies took the opportunity to see the collections.

29. Season tickets.—Season tickets which entitled the holders to admission at any time during the period of the Exhibition were on sale at Rs. 5 each. As a first instalment 500 of these were stocked; it was anticipated that this number would be equal to the demand of the first few weeks at least. It is significant that these were all disposed of in 2 hours.

30. Hours of admission.—From December 31st until January 22nd the doors were opened from 9 A. M. until midnight. From January 23rd to January 31st, from 9 A. M. until 10 P. M.; after this date artificial lighting was discontinued and the doors were closed at sunset.

31. Sales.—The Main Gallery was the Sale Gallery, and every article displayed therein was priced and sent by the exhibitors for the purpose of sale. Every effort was made by the Director and myself while on tour and by correspondence to get exhibitors to quote the very lowest paying price on their goods, as the intention was to conduct sales by means of a selected staff, and no bargaining could be entertained. This principle of a fixed price was naturally not quite comprehended by some of the smaller traders and led in some cases to difficulties, but it may be accepted that in the main the prices quoted were of a very reasonable character. An Exhibition commission of 10 per cent. over and above the exhibitor's price was charged on all sale goods, and in cases where freight and packing was defrayed by Government, a further commission of 15 per cent. was added to these charges. The latter figure was arrived at after calculations had been made on a number of goods received from all parts of the country, and, although in the case of a light fabric from the Punjab it was somewhat in excess, and on a heavy article as (for instance) a piece of furniture from Madras, a small loss to the Exhibition was probably incurred, the 15 per cent. average may be considered fair.

For the first few days after the opening ceremony the Exhibition was conducted on the lines of a museum, and no sales took place. On January 3rd, however, purchases were allowed, and from then until the closing day practically the whole of the staff was engaged in meeting the wants of customers. The principal transactions were the work of a number of European Sales clerks—professional shop assistants—who were specially employed for this purpose. To check the sales properly the following system was adopted: Each clerk was provided with a sale voucher book, the vouchers being numbered in triplicate. On a sale being effected the salesman wrote the number, description and price of the article and the purchaser's name in triplicate in his book. Two of these leaves were then detached and presented with the money to the cashier who stamped both "Paid." One copy was retained by the purchaser as a receipt, and the other handed over to the Accounts clerk, and by means of these each evening the daily takings were checked. The third copy of the voucher remained in the Sales clerk's book as a reference. A special ticket was also supplied to enable purchasers to pass their goods out of the building. This was found necessary in order to put a check on goods being taken out of the building without authority.

32. Museum purchases.—To enable the permanent collections of the country to be specially benefited by the Exhibition, the representatives of the Provincial Museums were allowed to make a first selection of the articles displayed. Extensive purchases were made by all these institutions, and the specimens obtained by them should form valuable additions to their galleries.

33. Replicas.—In cases where articles had been already purchased, but of which copies were desired by other persons, arrangements were entered into with the manufacturers for a supply of replicas of any particular exhibit for which an order might be registered. These transactions were conducted through the official agent to the Exhibition.

34. Official Agents.—An important condition attached to all sales was that no articles, except those of which duplicates existed on the stalls, should be removed by the purchaser until the close of the Exhibition. This rule was found necessary to prevent the Sale Gallery being denuded of goods while the Exhibition remained open. A visitor, therefore, who purchased goods on the above understanding having received his sale voucher handed this over to an official agent (whose office was in the Exhibition), and this officer undertook to pack and deliver the purchases to his address at the close of the exhibition. The firm employed to conduct this work was that of Messrs. Thomas Cook & Son, Bombay, who tendered the most favourable proposals, and these were accepted, and their office opened on December 15th.

35. Refreshments.—The sole right to supply refreshments in the Exhibition was granted to Messrs. Oakes & Co., of Madras, who paid Rs. 3,500 for the privilege. A special bay of the building was reserved to this firm for the purpose, and luncheons, teas, dinners and the usual light refreshments were provided by them.

36. Visits to the Exhibition by students, artisans and others sent by Local Governments.—On a proposal made by the Government of India, a number of instructors and students of Schools of Art, artisans and others were enabled by means of funds provided for the purpose to visit Delhi and study the different designs and methods employed in the various manufactures displayed in the Exhibition.

These on their arrival were given suitable quarters in the Kudsia Garden and afterwards conducted over the Exhibition by either the Director or myself. The various industries as exemplified in the collections were then described to them and the characteristics of the different designs and processes explained, an effort being made to give these men an intelligent idea of the art manufactures of India generally. They were then supplied with drawing materials and encouraged to make notes or sketches of any particular design which it was considered might be useful to them in their work.

A statement is appended showing the institutions which availed themselves of the opportunity and the number of instructors and students who were sent to Delhi for this purpose.

37. Close.—The Exhibition closed on February 14th, and at once the duty of checking, packing and returning the unsold goods was put in hand. This entailed a great amount of work, but the bulk of the boxes were despatched by April 16th, on which date the railway concession expired, and on the following day the building was handed over to the Superintending Engineer, and the dismantling commenced. In arranging for the despatch of goods to the Exhibition and returning the unsold and loan exhibits, a considerable amount of help was very freely given by the different local officers, Principals of Schools of Art, and many others without whose assistance this work would have been rendered doubly difficult. In connection with the exhibits sent on loan many of the Native States and others who sent large collections deputed an agent to come personally to Delhi to identify and take over their articles. This considerably facilitated the despatch of goods from this Gallery and obviated what under other circumstances might have led to delay, loss, and considerable correspondence.

After the work of despatching the boxes had been accomplished, the remaining staff were employed in settling the exhibitors, individual accounts and considering small claims for compensation owing to loss, damage or other causes. A small number of exhibits, being without tickets or having been received by the Exhibition uninvoiced, have been packed and sent to the Lahore Museum in charge of a clerk to await identification. Claims for these are now coming in, and it is anticipated that all these will be accounted for at a very early date.

38. Staff.—From the initial stages of the undertaking until November 1st, 1902, the staff consisted of the Director and myself with a personal assistant each. A Supervisor was also sanctioned to superintend the building operations at Delhi. In November the work having become more concentrated, the staff was augmented and an office in the Exhibition building organized. The additional officers engaged were a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary and a number of subordinate assistants. The last named, on the opening of the Exhibition, undertook the duties of salesmen, but the bulk of this work was in the hands of the professional shop assistants beforementioned. To fill up some of these subordinate posts the provincial Schools of Art were invited to send men connected with their institutions, as it was anticipated that their art knowledge would benefit the Exhibition and the experience gained be of use to their school in the future. Three art instructors were enabled to avail themselves of this opportunity, and these men proved of great service.

With regard to the conduct and working capacity of the staff a few words are due. The exceptional character of the undertaking, previous experience on the lines actually followed being limited, rendered a correct forecast of the number of assistants required a difficult matter. At times and in certain departments the pressure of work seemed more than the numbers engaged could possibly control. All, however, laboured unsparingly, willingly devoting abnormally long hours to the work in hand, and it is felt that the result accomplished is not a little due to the spirited co-operation of the staff.

Assistant Director, Indian Art Exhibition, Delhi.

E. N. BAKER,

Secretary to the Government of India.

Bengal.

No. 809-T. F., dated 4th June 1903.

From—L. P. SHIRRES, Esq., I.C.S., Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department.

In compliance with the orders conveyed in paragraph 4 of the enclosure of the letter of the Finance and Commerce Department, No. 295-S., dated the 28th November 1890, I am directed to submit, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying copy of a letter from the Board of Revenue, No. 4543-B., dated the 26th May 1903, and of its enclosure, from the Collector of Customs Calcutta, reporting on the working of the Merchandise Marks Act, IV of 1889, in the port of Calcutta during the year 1902-03.

2. No proceedings were taken during the year under the Act by the Collectors of Customs of Chittagong, Naraingunge, or the Orissa ports.

No. 4543-B, dated 26th May 1903.

From—H. WHEELER, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

With reference to paragraph 4 of the instructions of the Government of India, forwarded with Government order No. C 1-16, dated the 8th December 1890, I am directed to submit the accompanying copy of a report No. 207, dated the 14th May 1903, from the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, on the working of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act, IV of 1889, during the year 1902-03, and to say that the Board have no remarks to offer.

2. As in previous years, no proceedings were taken under the Act by any of the Collectors of Customs at the out-ports.

No. 207, dated 14th May 1903.

From—L. F. MORSHEAD, Esq., Officiating Collector of Customs, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P., Miscellaneous Revenue Department.

I have the honour to submit the Annual Report in relation to the working of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act for the official year ending 31st March 1903.

2. From the statement annexed it will be seen that offences aggregated 251 as compared with 311 in the previous year. These were distributed under clauses (d), (e) and (f), section 18 of the Sea Customs Act, as amended by section 10 of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act, in the following proportions, namely:—under clause (d) 82, clause (e) 40, and clause (f) 129, as compared with 122, 52, and 137, respectively, in the previous year. The general decrease is attributed to a more extended knowledge of the law among importing firms coupled with the deterrent effect of the penalties imposed. More care is taken to comply with the requirements, and enquiries are not infrequently made at the Custom House regarding the conditions to be fulfilled before certain classes of goods are ordered.

3. There were no cases of counterfeit trade mark during the year. The detentions under clause (d) were all false trade descriptions, of which the following were the most important:—

- (1) Seven consignments of Austrian note-paper were detected with false indications of quantity on wrappers and packets, the object of which was to be able to sell 400 sheets parcels as being of 5 quires or 480 sheets. Penalties were imposed and the goods released after the false indications had been deleted and substituted by correct ones.
- (2) There were three cases in which German-made cigars were put up in boxes in colourable imitation of Havanas with the country of origin marked on a removable label only. The consignments were released on the boxes being stamped "Made in Germany," penalties being imposed in two cases.
- (3) Eight consignments of German Basic steel were detained on account of bearing English words without any indication of the country of origin. Penalties were imposed in each case and they were passed after proper marking.
- (4) There were only four instances of false indications of the material of which goods were composed. Penalties were imposed in each case and the false descriptions deleted before release of the goods.
- (5) A consignment of cotton piece-goods in which the widths were falsely indicated was re-shipped under a penalty.
- (6) There were eight instances in which consignments of paints were improperly marked as regards quality. In one case the offence being serious, a penalty was inflicted. All the lots were passed after the requirements of the law had been complied with, a warning being issued in the lesser offences.
- (7) There were only two detections of fraudulent yarn, both importations from Bombay. One was of short weight, and the other of short length. In the latter re-shipment was ordered, and in the former the bundles were broken up into loose yarn before being cleared, substantial penalties being inflicted in both cases. The severe penalties that it is the custom to impose in this class of offences has had a marked effect in deterring dealers from importing fraudulent yarns through this port.

4. Of the 40 detentions under clause (e), 36 were of Continental goods and the remainder American. Compliance with the law was insisted on in all the cases before release, and penalties were imposed in 32 cases.

5. Of 129 offences against clause (f), 56 were in connection with woollen piece-goods and 73 with cotton piece-goods. In 126 cases penalties were inflicted, and in each consignment the pieces were stamped in strict accordance with the law before they were cleared. In 32 consignments only was the indication of length found to be entirely omitted; in the remainder it was incomplete by the omission of the word "yards" or "yds." after the length numerals on the pieces or was given in strips or labels only instead of on the body of the cloth.

6. The results of the 251 cases under all clauses may be summarised as follows:—

Penalized and passed	227
Re-shipped with penalty	2
Warned and passed after compliance with the law	22

All the cases were disposed of by the Collector himself and there were no appeals to the Board of Revenue against his decisions. The total amount of penalties realised was Rs. 3,513 as compared with Rs. 6,256-11 during 1901-02.

7. In one case only was information which led to detention afforded from outside. The Appraisers themselves detected all the other cases of infringement. The Head Appraiser's (Mr. H. E. Girard) expert knowledge was, as in previous years, of much assistance to the Collector, and the staff generally were on the alert to detect infringements of the law.

CUSTOM HOUSE,
CALCUTTA,
The 15th May 1903.

L. F. MORSHEAD,
Offg. Collector of Customs.

Burma.

No. 605—1-T-6, dated 18th June 1903.

From—H. THOMPSON, Esq., I.C.S., Officiating Revenue Secretary to the Government of Burma,
To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department.

I am directed to submit, for the information of the Government of India, a copy of letter No. 241—1-T-3, dated the 8th June 1903, from the Financial Commissioner, Burma, forwarding a report from the Chief Collector of Customs, Burma, on the working of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act, 1889, in this province during the year 1902-03.

No. 241—1-T-3, dated 8th June 1903.

From—A. E. T. SARFAS, Assistant Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Burma,
To—The Revenue Secretary to the Government of Burma.

I am directed to forward herewith the report of the Chief Collector of Customs, Burma, on the working of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act, 1889, in this province during the year 1902-03.

No. 449—1-M-6, dated 27th May 1903.

From—G. G. COLLINS, Esq., Officiating Chief Collector of Customs, Burma,
To—The Assistant Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Burma.

I have the honour to submit a report on the working of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act of 1889, in Burma, during the official year 1902-03, together with a statement of the number of cases dealt with during that period.

2. All the 15 detentions shown in the statement occurred at Rangoon, while in the preceding year there were 13 such cases.

3. The only case under section 10, clause (d) of the Act, was a consignment of towels from the United Kingdom on which the trade mark of a rival firm had been counterfeited. The offender was proceeded against at the request and on the responsibility of the claiming firm, and a heavy penalty, with fine in lieu of confiscation, was imposed on importer.

4. Under section 10, clause (e), there were eight detentions consisting wholly of goods, bearing descriptions in English without any indication of the country of origin, five of which were from Pondicherry and three from Germany. Penalties with fine in lieu of confiscation were imposed in each of these cases. In one, a penalty of Rs. 100 was adjudged in respect of eight bales of canvas imported from Germany; this was subsequent to the closing of the official year, however, shown to be of English manufacture and the penalty was refunded.

5. There were six detentions under section 10, clause (f). In five cases the goods were of European origin, four having been imported through the Straits Settlements, and one from Germany direct, and in the remaining case the goods were of Indian manufacture imported from Pondicherry. Moderate penalties with redemption fines were levied in these cases.

6. The total amount of penalties and fines realized during the year for infringements of the Act was Rs. 1,095, of which Rs. 100 was refunded during the current year as stated in paragraph 4.

7. With the exception of one case in which information was received, the detentions were made by the Appraisers in the ordinary course of their duty.

8. I do not think that the increase in the number of the offences referred to calls for any particular comment. All goods detailed for omissions regarding descriptions, etc., were passed only after the requirements of the law had been complied with.

No. C.—6691, dated 27th May 1903.

From—E. GRAY, Esq., Collector of Customs and Opium, Bombay,

To—The Commissioner of Customs, Salt, Opium and Abkari, Bombay.

I have the honour to submit the Annual Report on the Administration of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act for the official year 1902-03.

2. The annexed statement marked A shows the total number of cases dealt with under each of the clauses (d), (e) and (f), section 18 of the Sea Customs Act, as amended by section 10 of the Merchandise Marks Act during the years 1901-02 and 1902-03. A comparison of the totals (382 in 1902-03 as against 374 in 1901-02) shows an unimportant increase of eight cases. Of the total of 382 cases, 13 were in respect of goods imported by parcel post.

3. As against a total of 286 in the previous year, there were 275 cases of infringement of section 10, clause (d). All of these were cases of false trade description in regard to material, weight, capacity, gauge and number, or measure or absence of indication of origin. As in the previous year, no cases of counterfeit trade mark were detected.

4. Under clause (e) of section 10, 53 cases were detected as against 57 in the previous year.

5. Of the 54 cases under clause (f) 43 were of cotton goods, 8 of woollen goods and three of cotton and woollen goods. In 37 cases only were fines imposed.

6. Penalties amounting to Rs. 4,248-8-0 were imposed in 272 cases as against a total of Rs. 5,376 in 271 cases in the previous year.

7. Of the total of 382 cases of detention, release was ordered after compliance with the requirements of the Act in all but nine cases, in which importers were permitted to re-ship the goods, being either unwilling or unable to cancel the marking. In one case only detention was followed by confiscation.

8. Of the total number of cases the Collector passed orders in 26 cases, carrying penalties of Rs. 1,135, and the First Assistant Collector of Land Revenue, Customs and Opium in eight cases, carrying penalties of Rs. 40. The remaining cases were decided by the First Assistant Collector of Customs at Prince's Dock.

9. In 14 cases appeals were made to the Collector against the decision of the First Assistant Collector of Customs, Prince's Dock. In two cases fines were remitted and in three the fine was reduced.

There were no appeals to the Commissioner against the decisions of Collector, but in one case an appeal direct to Government of India was followed by remission of the fine.

10. Recoveries under fines and penalties amounted to Rs. 2,977 and Rs. 1,132, respectively, Rs. 75 being refunded and Rs. 65 remitted.

11. 6895 packages of general merchandise, 450 bundles of iron sheets, 99 iron bars, 4,254 bundles of basic steel sheets, 58 marble blocks, 2,000 marble tiles and 200 coils of steel hoops were detained during the year under report.

12. The following is a brief summary of some of the more important cases:—

Eleven cases occurred in which the provisions of Customs Circular IV of 1901 were infringed in the importation of turpentine with an average adulteration in excess of 50 per cent. Similar breaches of the same circular were detected in two consignments of "white zinc," "superior white zinc" or "zinc white," in which the percentage of adulteration was found to range as high as 78 per cent.

* Printed as accompaniments to this Resolution.

Consignments of iron and steel sheets imported from the Contingent showed very faulty marking of weight both in excess and defect of ascertained average weight. One particular consignment marked as of 112 lbs. weight was found to have a range of 123 to 100 lbs. with an average of 107 lbs.

Incorrect weight markings were detected in the case of three consignments of cotton grey shirtings from Liverpool and Manchester.

Consignments of iron wire-netting from Hamburg marked "length 50 feet about" were found to measure less than the marked length.

In an importation of thermometers from Hamburg bearing mark "one minute" the indication of origin was so marked as to admit of its being easily removed.

A consignment from Hamburg of flannel pieces marked "white cricketing woollen flannel" was found not to be of wool. This case was a bad case and the consignment was confiscated subject to a heavy redemption fine. A case of cotton silk and velvet marked as "superior silk velvet" was treated similarly.

Bundles of silk yarn from Hull marked No. 200 were found on being tested to be falsely marked. In this connection it may be mentioned that some difficulty has been experienced in inducing silk shippers to follow the provisions of Customs Circular No. IX of 1902, some claiming that the metric system allows any kind of packing.

An importation of bottles described as containing guaranteed pure Santonine Anthelmintic Worm Tablets made in Holland, but which on examination by the Chemical Analyser were found not to contain any santonine, was confiscated subject to redemption penalty of Rs. 50 for shipment out of India.

The charge of the Prince's Dock Custom House was throughout the year in the hands of Mr. F. S. Punnett, who has done his work with care.

No. 2984, dated 4th June 1903.

Endorsed by the Acting Commissioner of Customs, Salt, Opium and Abkari.

Submitted to Government in the Revenue Department.

Clause D.

3. The large increase in the number of cases under clause (d) is due to the detention of 111 consignments of woollen and silk yarns imported from the Continent. As intimated in paragraph 4 of this office report for 1901-1902, the law was not strictly enforced against such yarn until the 1st August 1902. There were 42 cases in the intervening four months from 1st April, in all of which the goods were allowed to pass after the words "Continental Count" or "Metric System of Count" had been stamped wherever the count numbers appeared on the bundles. But of 69 consignments detained after 1st August, 52 were penalised, because on examination the yarn was found to be a much lower count than that marked on the label, and in the remaining 17 cases, in which the differences were not serious, the goods were allowed to pass with a warning after the incorrect descriptions had been removed.

4. In five instances the importers were given the option of reshipping the goods, which consisted of plated-ware, glass chimneys, mouth harmonicas, etc., of the aggregate value of Rs. 208-12-0, to a port out of India, on payment of fines in lieu of confiscation, as the goods could not be satisfactorily marked here. This option was availed of in only two cases.

5. Out of the remaining 130 cases falling under clause (d), fines were imposed in 74 cases, 56 being allowed to pass with a warning after the law had been complied with.

6. Five consignments of watches were detained under Section 13 of the Merchandise Marks Act, as the watches and the cases bore the words "Swiss Made" and "French Made," whilst the goods were shipped from Antwerp and invoiced from Germany. Some of the watch cases also bore the name and address of a firm in Germany. The goods were, however, allowed to pass subsequently on the importers producing documentary evidence proving Swiss and French origin.

7. Two consignments of soap shipped from the Continent were detained, as the wrappers and boxes appeared to be in imitation of those of a British firm from whom complaints had been received. The local agents of this firm, on being communicated with, instituted proceedings against the importers, which have not yet been concluded; the goods have, however, been allowed to pass with the consent of the plaintiffs, the Court having declined to issue a temporary injunction pending disposal of the case.

8. There were twelve detentions of sewing machines during the year, six of which were under clause (e). In four cases the English descriptions and names of British Indian dealers on the machines were unaccompanied by any indication of their German origin. In four more instances the indication of origin was marked so as to be easily removeable, and in the remaining four consignments the indication was applied on the lower side of the bottom plate, where it could not be seen without unscrewing and raising the plate. There can be but little doubt that all these machines were intended to be passed off as of British manufacture. The machines were passed after being properly marked, on payment of penalties, nominal in amount at first, but heavier later when it was found that there was no improvement. One of the last-mentioned cases was a particularly bad one, the qualification being applied with bronze powder on vaseline, or some similar substance, which could be wiped off with a rag. This case seemed to call for exemplary punishment and a fine of Rs. 300 was imposed, the value of the machines being Rs. 1,460.

Clause E.

9. There were 65 detentions under clause (e), out of which 45 were penalised. One of these was a consignment of pianos, which bore the name of a British Indian dealer, unaccompanied by an indication of the country of manufacture. It was alleged by the importer that the name on the piano was not his own but really that of a celebrated Continental manufacturer of the same name. There were, however, reasons to distrust this statement, but in order to prevent the risk of any hardship to the importer he was permitted to clear the pianos on payment of a deposit of Rs. 50 on his giving an undertaking to produce a certificate from the manufacturer. The certificate established beyond a doubt the falsity of the importer's statement, and the amount of deposit was forfeited as a penalty.

Clause F.

10. There were 112 cases under clause (f). Of these 99 were allowed to pass on payment of fines and the remaining 13 with a warning after the requirements of the law had been complied with. Under this clause, 82 of the detentions were for inconspicuous stamping of piece-goods, or stamping with a material which could be easily removed. In most of these cases the material used for stamping appeared to be a mixture of chalk and water, and in some cases, especially of woollens, the stamping was done in such a way that the material used did not penetrate to the cloth but caught the nap only.

11. The amount of fines and penalties imposed during the year was Rs. 2,761, which gives an average of Rs. 6 5 per case.

12. All detentions were made by the Customs officers in the ordinary course of their duty, no information being received from the public except in three instances, in which the importers themselves brought the irregularities to notice under advice from the shippers.

13. Two appeals were preferred to the Commissioner in Sind during the year against the decision of the Chief Collector of Customs. In one the Chief Collector's decision was upheld. In the second case, where the initials of a British exporter on a consignment from the Continent were unaccompanied by an indication of origin, the Commissioner decided that such indication should not be insisted on as the exporter in the case did not appear to be so well known a dealer in the article that the initials would at once be taken as standing for his name.

14. As I took charge of this office only last month, I regret that I cannot say anything about the staff, but I believe that Mr. Young was assisted with zeal and ability by Mr. C. F. D'Abreo and the subordinate officers.

The following letter from J. TWIGG, Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt, Abkari and Separate Revenue, dated 15th June 1903, No. 2981-G.

I have the honour to submit the following consolidated report on the administration of the Merchandise Marks Act, IV of 1889, in the Presidency during the year 1902-1903. Madras, Cuddalore, Negapatam, Mangalore and Vizagapatam were the only ports where cases under the Act occurred. The usual statement showing the number of cases dealt with under section 10 of the Act is enclosed, from which it will be seen that there were 54 cases under clause (d), 20 under clause (e) and 45 under clause (f), or 119 cases in all against 140 in the preceding year. All the cases were detected by the Appraisers in Madras and the respective Customs Superintendents at the out-ports in the ordinary course of their duties.

2. Madras.—The following are the more important cases that call for notice under clause (d) :—

- (1) A consignment of gilt silver thread consisting of 175 marcs was put up in wrappers stamped "1,900-2,100 yards denoting length, while actual measurement showed the average length to be only 1,876 yards, or 24 yards below the minimum and 224 yards less than the maximum marked lengths. The incorrect marking was allowed to be obliterated from the wrappers on payment of a penalty of Rs. 100 and the goods passed.
- (2) The packets in a consignment of gilt copper braids were marked as weighing 1 lb. each; but, on examination, the contents were found to weigh only 15½ oz. The marking on the wrappers was allowed to be altered according to the actual weight ascertained on examination on payment of a penalty of Rs. 10 before the goods were removed from the Custom House.
- (3) A consignment of Austrian note paper was put up in packets marked originally "one ream pack" or "one ream," each containing 4 smaller packets marked originally "5 quire pack" or "5 quires," though the packets contained only 400 and 100 sheets, respectively. The original labels were covered by strips marked "400 sheets" and "100 sheets," respectively, but the strips were so attached as to be readily removed. The consignment was confiscated, the Importers being allowed to stamp the packets with the correct contents and to clear the consignment on payment of a redemption penalty of Rs. 25.
- (4) In another consignment the paper was found to be put up as usual in large packets marked "one ream" on the outside while their actual contents were found to consist of only 400 sheets each instead of 480 sheets. The wrappers containing the false marking were allowed to be removed and the goods passed on payment of a penalty of Rs. 150.
- (5) A consignment of worm tablets was imported from Germany with labels on the bottles bearing the following description of contents: "Santonine Worm Tablets." The price charged for these being extremely low, it was suspected that the tablets contained no santonine at all, and the results of the Chemical Examiner's test (to whom samples were sent for analysis) confirmed the suspicion. The goods were confiscated, but were allowed to be released for re-shipment to the original port of shipment on payment of a penalty of Rs. 25.

- (6) There were two consignments of Austrian enamelled tumblers imported by the same firm, which had stamped on them the busts of "Their Majesties the King and the Queen," the British Coat of Arms, with the word "Coronation" above, without any indication of the country of origin similarly stamped. There was, however, a descriptive label, which was in order, but could easily be removed. It being impracticable to stamp the tumblers indelibly with the country of manufacture here, they were allowed to be passed as a special case on payment of a penalty of Rs. 15, the importers being warned that further consignments would not be passed.
- (7) In two consignments of undershirts the sizes marked were found to be incorrect, the actual measurements disclosing a shortage of a few inches compared with the marked sizes. The goods were passed in one case on payment of a penalty of Rs. 10 and on obliteration of the figures denoting the wrong sizes, and in the other on payment of a penalty of Rs. 5 and after the shirts were stamped with their correct measurements.
- (8) A case contained among other articles two S.B. B.L. guns with English words "Occidental" and "The Interchangeable" engraved on them, while the tags attached to them bore the words "The Interchangeable Occidental Gun, Belgium," etc. The weapons were passed after being engraved with the country of origin on payment of a penalty of Rs. 2.
- (9) Three consignments consisting of 25 bales in all, of continental coloured cotton yarn (which were imported into Cuddalore from Singapore), were referred up from Cuddalore and on examination here were found to be short of the prescribed length; the knots also in some cases were found to contain more than the number of hanks prescribed by law. In all the three cases the importers were penalized and the goods confiscated, but released on payment of penalties aggregating Rs. 275 for re-shipment to the original port of shipment. These three cases are shown in the statement attached against Cuddalore.

3. The twenty cases failing under (e) were those of foreign manufactured articles bearing the names of British or British Indian dealers without being qualified by a statement of the country of origin. In all these cases, the omission was allowed to be supplied at the Custom House before the goods were allowed to pass, small penalties being imposed in nine of the cases.

4. In the 42 cases of cotton and woollen piece-goods treated under clause (f), the goods were released after they were correctly stamped as required by law and on payment of small penalties in most of the cases.

5. Negapatam.—This case consisted of a consignment of cotton cambrics, manufactured in Holland and imported from Singapore with the words "Jacgar & Co., Singapore," on the pieces without any indication of the country of origin. The goods were allowed to be removed on the omission being supplied and on payment of a penalty of Rs. 10.

6. Visagapatam and Mangalore reported one and two cases, respectively, of piece-goods not properly stamped with their lengths in yards. These were passed out after due compliance with the law.

7. All the cases in Madras were disposed of by the Collector.
